MEXICANS IN AN UPROAR, FEAR INTERVENTION.

Secretary Lascurain Leaves Capital on Hurried Trip to Washington.

Rebels Renew Their Activities All Along the Line, Cut Railways, and Strand a Troop Train of the Madero Government—Orozco, Thought to be in Hiding, Appears at the Head of His Insurrectos.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Secretary of State Lascurain will leave for Washington tomorrow evening. His unexpected and hurried departure is declared by the newspapers to be for the purpose of dissuading the United States from sending four cruisers to Vera Cruz with implied intervention for the purpose of collecting the damages inflicted upon Americans during the revolution.

It can be readily seen that intervention would detract seriously from the prestige of the Madero administration and might be an incentive to the insurrectos to renew their activities so as to force the United States to even more drastic measures than merely implied intervention.

ALL WROUGHT UP ABOUT THE WARSHIPS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 3.—The Mexican Foreign Minister, Senor Lascurain, will visit the United States "solely for the purpose of attending to private business," according to an announcement made today.

Accompanied by his wife and daughter he will leave Wednesday, sailing from Vera Cruz.

The Minister will go from New York to Washington, but he denied today that his visit to the capital would be official.

The general belief among the public and the newspapers is that Senor Lascurain probably will attempt to arrange at Washington a settlement of the differences between the United States and Mexico arising from the revolution.

The Mexican people are skeptical regarding the coming of the American warships, the visit of which has been explained as one of courtesy, especially because the vessels, on account of their size, probably will not be able to enter Vera Cruz Harbor.

ACUTE SITUATION DUE TO REBELLION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 3.—Unable itself to give protection to other than the larger towns and, occasionally a few haciendas, the government has refused the request of a group of property owners in the State of Puebla to arm a protective organization, whom the owners proposed to pay and direct.

The group is headed by Manuel Rivero Collado, the Spanish Consul at Puebla.

The rebels are in possession of the greater part of the Chiautla district, near the city of Puebla. Yesterday they defeated a small Federal force near the town of Chiautla. Other towns in the same State are infested.

In the State of Guerrero, the important town of Ayutla is in the hands of the rebels, as is a long stretch of the Pacific Coast in that State. A small force of Federals has been sent from Ometepec to Acapulco.

The situation in the State of Morelos is acute, especially around Juchitepec, although the government claims to have defeated a strong force near Cuernavaca. A thousand irregulars, expected from the north, will be sent to report to Gen. Blanquet at Toluca for service. An energetic campaign is being mapped out in that State, where the rebels are so strong that they are raiding almost on the outskirts of the State capital, cutting the light and power cables.

The Indians in Oaxaca continue their barbarous campaign in the mountains. The State Governor's appeal for reinforcements resulted in the dispatch of two or three hundred men, who were withdrawn from the pursuit

THE CITY. The lately proposed charter was defeated nearly three to one yesterday in a election that drew less than a third of the voters to the polls. "Free lunch" carried.

San Pedro and Wilmington went "wet" yesterday in the election on the question to establish a harbor dry zone along the water front.

Abe Ruef's lawyers were able to secure a ruling further postponement of his trial and took their case before a visiting judge in the Superior Court yesterday.

Charges of extortion from the City Attorney's office by the Civil Service Commission in connection with the recent examination for chief of the fire alarm and police telegraph system.

Two police court officials were locked in the automatic elevator shaft in Central Station yesterday and despite desperate efforts were unable to stop the car, which carried them to the basement to roof in rapid round trips until some one shut off the juice.

Two sculptors and statue-casters disagree on a work of art and how it is to be cast. The Justice Court was asked to decide the matter financially.

The acquisition of nearly 3000 volumes of statutory law yesterday the Los Angeles County Bar Library became one of the twenty best of its kind in the country.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. Joseph Rubio, employed on a ranch near Long Beach, was terribly injured when gored by a bull he had entered the enclosure where it was confined and was immediately attacked by the maddened brute.

Long Beach citizens are indignant toward the Pacific Electric because their villa lots are overgrown by signs on the fronts of cars advertising the station from which they also feel that malice has prompted it formerly occupied.

Redondo by a practically unanimous vote decided to issue $20,000 worth of bonds to complete its new sewer system. In celebration of the Bible town's set up all night and the manner of noises.

Mrs. Ida Rose of San Bernardino dentist has filed suit for divorce, alleging cruelty. Among the charges she says he locked her out of the house while she was seriously ill and refused to call a physician.

Driver of a bakery wagon leaped from his vehicle when his team ran away in South Pasadena yesterday, and sustained serious injuries. The trouble started when a neckyoke broke and frightened the team.

PACIFIC SLOPE. C. A. Johnson, a stationary engineer of Seattle, yesterday, in spite his wife, who would not receive him back into their home, jumped with his child in front of a moving train. The boy was killed but the father escaped with a broken leg.

The commissioners of the Panama-Pacific Exposition yesterday reported that they had expended $208,312 of the fund appropriated by the State for expenses.

The steamer F. A. Kilburn, which struck on a bar near Eureka, Cal., was yesterday taken in charge by a tug and with its sixty-three passengers started for San Francisco Harbor.

GENERAL EASTERN. Gov. Baldwin of Connecticut, in addressing the conference of Governors at Richmond, Va., yesterday, advocated flogging for children, the whipping post and sterilization for criminals in certain cases. The national conference of State Governors is to be made permanent.

Gen. Bliss yesterday warned the nation against the spirit of anti-militarism and predicted a great conflict betwen the East and the West, in which the United States will be called upon to defend its dominions.

The effect of the Harriman dissolution decision was plainly felt in conditions on the New York stock market where railroad securities were particularly sluggish.

The Balkan situation had its effect on the Chicago wheat market yesterday, where wheat movements were sluggish.

Gov. Cole Blease, at a conference of Governors yesterday in Richmond, Va., applauded lynching and told why he is releasing so many convicts from the penitentiaries of his State.

THE GREAT WAR. The protocol of a peace pact was signed yesterday by the allies in the Balkan struggle with the Turks. The Greeks held aloof and may have to go it alone against the Turks.

A London cable last night indicated that Bulgaria and Turkey may form a new Balkan league with Rumania as against the Greeks.

WASHINGTON. The Archbald impeachment proceedings began yesterday before the bar of the Senate, Judge Archbald listening to a terrific arraignment by Representative Clayton, to which Archbald's attorney made emphatic reply.

FOREIGN. In France yesterday, the Minister of War proposed disfranchising those who mutilate themselves to escape military duty.

A dispatch from Mexico City last night stated that Secretary of State Lascurain had left the capital hurriedly on a trip to Washington. It was stated that the Mexicans are fearful lest the United States means to collect certain claims growing out of the Orozco rebellion with warships.

Dispatches from various points across the Mexican border last night reported renewed activity of the rebels under Orozco. The chief himself, thought to be in hiding, was yesterday reported to be at the head of his troops. The rebels have cut many railways and have stranded a Madero troop train with five hundred Federal soldiers aboard.

INSIST COLLEGE GIRLS DO THEIR LEVEL BEST.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] The American woman with a university training does just as much to people the United States as any other class of women.

Chicago women made this statement today following the charges of Cosmo Hamilton, an English playwright, who blames university women for race suicide.

Miss Irene Blanchard, dean of university women at Northwestern University, said the charge was doubtless true of the leisure class, but she insisted the university women for the most part do not belong to that class. Miss Myra Reynolds, dean of women at the University of Chicago, took the same position as did other Chicago women.

A PALACE ON WHEELS FOR CHARLEY SCHWAB.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

SOUTH BETHLEHEM (Pa.) Dec. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] Charles M. Schwab has just received from the Pullman Car plant his new private car "Loretto." It is said to be the most expensive private car in this country and the cost was $125,000. The new car is steel from Schwab's plant.

The Pullman Car Company says the car is the finest ever turned out by that concern. It took eight months to build. It is said that Mr. Schwab was struck on his recent trip to China by the magnificent car used on the trans-Siberian Railroad and his is patterened after that of the Russian road.

The interior is of solid mahogany and in many places is inlaid with gold and silver filigree and pearl, while the carving is the most artistic sort. At the rear of the car is a wide observation platform and from this one steps into a roomy library or drawing-room. Next is Schwab's bedroom and then comes Mrs. Schwab's room, the two being separated by a modern bathroom, built entirely of Italian marble.

Along the side of the car extends a corridor on which both bedrooms open. Then comes a spacious dining-room, next a strictly modern kitchen, a restroom upholstered in leather for the chef, separate toilet rooms for the cref, maid and valet and toilet room for the train crew, while half of the front platform is occupied by a large refrigerator. There are also sleeping-rooms for the maid and valet. The car is slightly more than eighty-five feet in length.

GIVES PALM TO COOKS; GOVERNORS INCOMPETENTS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 3.—"Good cooks are more necessary than Governors," said Gov. Marshall today in his address on "The Personal touch," before the local council of women.

"I think there is no one in this world, aside from my wife, that is more competent than my cook. I think she is well educated. I don't suppose she would be received at many of the social functions, but she does her work as it should be done. There is not a working woman in this city that is doing an honest work that is not more important to this State than the Governor of Indiana."

Recommendations of International Fire Conference Which Selects Vancouver for Next Meeting.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) Dec. 3.—The Western Forestry and Conservation Association concluded its international forest fire conference today with the selection, subject to approval by the Board of Trustees, of Vancouver, B. C., as the next meeting place. The conference adopted committee reports recommending forestry courses in public schools, liberal State appropriations for forest patrols, good roads in timber districts, railroad co-operation in fire prevention, home rule on forest questions, non-political appointments of forest workers, extension of State forest work, and reform in taxation of standing timber.

Discussing the taxation question, E. G. Ames of Seattle said the tax rate on standing timber in this State, amounting in 1911 to 80 cents an acre, was so high that it forced the timber owners to cut their timber as rapidly as possible regardless of economical methods and conservation of the timber supply. Mr. Ames advocated a method of taxation by which the timber would not be taxed until cut. Miles Standish of San Francisco was elected vice-president for California.

Jordan Laurens Mott, Sr., of New York dispatched Fuller, war correspondent and globe trotter, to overtake and bring back his son, who eloped with the fascinating Mrs. Hewitt Bowne on the British steamer Indrado, sailing from New York last May.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CINCINNATI (O.) Dec. 3.—A discussion of the organization of a National Highway Department consumed the greater part of the session of the annual convention of the American Road Builders' Association here today. About 2500 men representing every phase of road building were present when the convention was called to order.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RICHMOND (Va.) Dec. 3.—In the name of the State of South Carolina, Gov. Blease served notice to the Governors' conference here today that lynchers of negro assailants of white women in his State would go unpunished.

Gov. Blease warmly defended his use of pardoning power as well as declaring that in twenty-two months, he had pardoned or paroled approximately 400 persons and that he hoped the number at the end of the second term would be 800.

"I have said all over South Carolina, and I say it again, now," he declared, "that I will never order out the militia to shoot down their neighbors and protect a black brute who commits a crime against a white woman.

"Therefore, in South Carolina, let it be understood, that when a negro assaults a white woman, all that is needed is that they get the right man and they who get him will neither need nor receive a trial."

JUSTIFIES PARDON.

Gov. Blease justified the use he had made of his pardoning power, he said, by conditions he had found in penal institutions in the State.

"I walked through the penitentiary of South Carolina," he said, "and found it a tuberculosis incubator where poor devils were dying at their tasks, making money for other people; poor devils who had no choice but to stand and work or take the lash. Just the other day, Jim Roberts, a negro from Charleston, stopped me as I was walking through and respectfully asked permission to speak to me. He told me that he had been kept in jail twenty-two years for stealing a $27 watch.

"I said: 'If you are telling me the truth, you will eat your Christmas dinner with your folks at home.' He said: 'Governor, I have no folks.' 'Then,' I replied, 'you will eat it away from here.' And he will. Another negro had served eleven years and seven months for stealing $9; a judge wrote to me that he had sentenced to death a man when he did not believe the man had been convicted beyond a reasonable doubt. Another wrote me that he had sentenced to death a man whom he did not believe should be put to death.

"He did not believe it at the time, nor does he believe it now.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The protocol arranging an armistice was signed late tonight by the Turkish and Bulgarian delegates, the latter representing also Servia and Montenegro. Apparently the Greek delegates did not sign and their refusal is susceptible of different interpretations.

In the first place, as a tacit armistice has been in existence more than a week it is not impossible that the negotiations may have served to bring about an agreement on the general principles of the peace terms, such as would promise the speedy arrangement of a peace treaty when the conference meets, as is now expected, in London. In this case the fact that Greece is standing out from the peace protocol would not be of great importance.

In the second place the Greek abstention may mean a serious split among the allies, arising from jealousies concerning the possession of Salonika and the hinterland of the

TWO DEMOCRATS FOR ELECTORS.

Change of Ten Votes Would Land Third One.

Figures Are Official Except for Los Angeles.

Deny Bull Moose Recanvass in Two Counties.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 3.—Provided no more court decisions affect the canvass of votes, and assuming the corrections, which will probably have to be made in the Los Angeles county returns when audited by the Secretary of State, do not materially change the results of the official canvass in the south, figures tabulated today by Secretary of State Jordan indicate the election of two Democratic electoral candidates—Griffin and Del Valle—and eleven Progressive Republicans. A further change of ten votes would elect another Democrat.

With a dispute of five votes for each Democratic electoral candidate in Alameda still unsettled, that will not affect the general result either way, the audit of the Secretary of State on all counties but Los Angeles, and the result of the canvass by the Board of Supervisors there, show that the Progressive Republican and Democratic electoral candidates in the State at large received the following vote:

Wallace (Rep.)	283,606
Griffin (Dem.)	283,441
Wheeler (Rep.)	283,109
Pardee (Rep.)	283,057
Stimson (Rep.)	282,910
McLaughlin (Rep.)	282,867
Bancroft (Rep.)	282,829
Devlin (Rep.)	282,788
Porter (Rep.)	282,781
Harris (Rep.)	282,671
Fernald (Rep.)	282,676
Del Valle (Dem.)	282,650
Bull (Rep.)	282,653
Lea (Dem.)	282,643
Lynch (Dem.)	282,621
Monroe (Dem.)	282,599
Shanahan (Dem.)	282,585
Finney (Rep.)	282,544
Tobin (Rep.)	282,535
Sill (Dem.)	282,437
Luce (Rep.)	282,392
Mordecai (Dem.)	282,300
Doheny (Dem.)	282,274
Tucker (Dem.)	282,229
Foy (Dem.)	282,218
Cooley (Dem.)	282,183

SMALL MARGINS.

Only 109 votes separate Bull, the lowest winning Progressive elector, from the next highest Roosevelt electoral candidate, Finney. Between the two are Lea, Lynch, Monroe and Shanahan, Democrats.

Lea (Dem.,) according to the tabulated figures, loses out to Bull by just ten votes. The closeness of the contest between these two will make it impossible to determine which is elected until the Los Angeles returns have been audited by the Secretary of State.

THREE OTHER PARTIES.

W. M. Boyd, leading electoral candidate on the Socialist ticket, received 79,869 votes; Annie E. K. Bidwell, leading Prohibitionist candidate, 22,206, and Sbarbaro, Taft elector, with Alameda's vote not compiled, received 3943.

Alameda's figures were not made official today as planned. Senator Caminetti, who is watching the audit in the interest of the Democrats, protested to Secretary of State Jordan against a change in the record which L. J. Cordes, an Alameda deputy clerk, asked to make in one precinct. If the change had been made five votes would have been taken from each Democratic elector.

Jordan referred the matter to the Attorney-General and will take no action until an opinion on the point is rendered.

RECANVASS DENIED.

The third Appellate Court today, in an opinion prepared by Presiding Justice Chipman in which Justices Hart and Burnett concurred, denied the application of Frank R. Devlin for a writ of mandate to compel a recanvass of votes by the boards of Supervisors of Sacramento and San Joaquin counties, where the Progressives hoped to gain approximately 275 votes.

The court in refusing to issue the writ asserted that unless fraud or incorrectness was alleged it had no authority to direct the Board of Supervisors to recanvass the votes after certification had been made to the Secretary of State by the County Clerk.

DIFFERS FROM LOS ANGELES.

The fact that a delay might result from the issuance of a writ which might by appeal deny the State representation in the electoral college was another factor upon which the court based its refusal. The case differs from the Los Angeles suit in that the vote had already been certified to the Secretary of State and canvassed and certified by him.

Democrats Have Big Plurality But Fail to Get Clear Majority Over Their Opponents.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Dec. 3.—The official canvass of the vote cast at the November election was completed today and shows that while the Democratic electors have a heavy plurality, they did not receive a majority of the votes received. The vote for the electors is as follows:

Democratic—Jones, 10,324; Webb, 10,274; Hampton, 10,130. Republicans—Green, 2986; Talbot, 2975; Smith, 3021. Progressives—Clark, 6949; Greenwall, 6879; Heard, 6873. Socialists—Brooks, 2163; Simonton, 2139; White 2132. Prohibitionists—Wilson, 265; Howard, 221, and Sibley, 219.

SOCIALIST CAMPAIGN BILL EXPENSE LIST FILED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

Other factors that may influence the situation are to be found in the fact that Turkey recently sought to conclude a separate treaty of peace with Greece; that Bulgaria apparently is not unwilling to enter into an alliance with Turkey, and that the allies are desirous that Turkey shall enter the Balkan Customs League.

There is a rumor in Sofia that a suggestion has been made to substitute Roumania for Greece in the Balkan league. It seems clear from the report that Bulgaria will ignore the Greek offer to land an army in Gallipoli peninsula and to send her fleet to attack the Dardanelles, that the relations between Greece and Bulgaria are greatly strained and these signs of dissension among the allies leave the situation full of dangerous possibilities.

It is reported that France is trying to persuade Greece to adopt a less unyielding attitude. It is understood that financial pressure and the exhaustion of their forces had much to do with the willingness of Bulgaria and Servia to conclude peace, and in this respect, Greece, which secured her victories with less expense, is better able to continue hostilities.

MARTYR OF CHOLERA CAMP,

Miss Alt, for a Time the Only Woman Attendant in Hospital, Breaks Down from Overwork.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 3.—The Turkish Red Crescent has collected and spent $325,000 on the Turkish hospitals. Unfortunately, the Red Crescent Society does not extend to the cholera camps.

As the result of overwork, Miss Alt, who at one time was the only woman attendant in the cholera camp at San Stefano, has been brought to the British hospital here. It is not believed she is suffering from cholera.

Several Austrian Sisters of Charity are assisting the British Red Cross detachment which has begun work. There are still many deaths daily through lack of attention. A new camp for invalid soldiers has been established at San Stefano.

GREEKS AND BULGARS IN A DEADLY CLASH.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Dec. 4.—A Vienna dispatch to the Daily Telegraph says that official quarters there have received information that the dissensions between the Greeks and Bulgarians have become serious and that 250 Greeks were killed when 3000 of their troops attempted forcibly to occupy the town of Serres, which was already occupied by Bulgarians.

ALL SIGN ARMISTICE EXCEPTING GREECE.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 3, 10:45 p.m.—It is officially announced that an armistice has been signed between Turkey and Bulgaria, Servia and Montenegro. Apparently Greece has not signed.

Another conference of the plenipotentiaries was held in the evening, after the receipt of fresh instructions from the Porte. At the conclusion of this conference the armistice protocol was signed.

The fact that Greece is not among the signatories is interpreted as meaning that hostilities will be continued between that State and Turkey and there is considerable speculation as to what will become of the alliance agreement between the Balkan States.

It has not been determined when and where the peace negotiations will begin.

BLISS PREDICTS GREAT CONFLICT

Deems It Duty to Maintain Martial Spirit.

Army Officer Urges Militia to Prepare for War.

Anti-Militarists Denounced by French Official.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NORFOLK (Va.) Dec. 3.—Brig.-Gen. Tasker H. Bliss of the United States army, addressing the National Guard Association of the United States here today, declared that certain college presidents, professors and others, molding manhood of the rising generation, had taken a stand against the inculcation of the military spirit in the youth of the nation that had a tendency to rob the country of the power and force it would some time in the future need for self-preservation. The general said the stand taken to remove the military spirit, looking to possible universal peace, was wrong. He urged with great force "the keeping alive of the military spirit upon which the honor and existence of our country must surely depend."

Gen. Bliss declared that while western nations were looking to universal peace millions in the eastern nations were keeping alive the spirit of war; that, sooner or later, there was bound to come a great conflict between the peoples of the two hemispheres that would demand trained armies, and that the United States must maintain national honor and preserve its dominions.

Officers were elected as follows: President-general, Thomas J. Stewart of Pennsylvania; secretary-general, Elliott C. Dill of Maine; treasurer-general, Joseph A. Storch of Nebraska.

DENOUNCES ANTI-MILITARISTS.

Men Who Mutilate Themselves to Avoid Service Should Be Disfranchised, Says French Minister.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

PARIS, Dec. 3.—The danger to the defense of the country caused by the activity of the anti-militarist propaganda was the subject of a lively debate in the Chamber of Deputies today.

M. Bonnefous, referring to the fact that more than 80,000 citizens had eluded military service or deserted, proposed a bill whereby all deserters or persons who mutilated themselves to avoid service should be deprived of their electoral rights.

M. Millerand, the Minister of War, in an impassioned speech, amid an uproar on the part of the Socialists, declared an entire agreement with such a measure.

HITS TRUST HARD.

Government Agent Lists Harvester Among Those Using "Strong Arm" Methods to Stifle Competition.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 3.—At the conclusion of the second day's hearing here in the government's suit to dissolve the International Harvester Company, Special Agent Darling of the Department of Justice, said the government had heard sufficient evidence to conclude that the harvester trust was of the "garden" variety. "Garden" variety of trusts, he explained, were those that depend alone on "strong arm" methods to extinguish competition—not those depending on United States patents.

The government today began the introduction of witnesses in an effort to prove that the International had driven hundreds of implement dealers out of business by refusing to handle only its output.

ROUMANIANS VISIT KAISER AT BERLIN.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

BERLIN, Dec. 3.—Crown Prince Ferdinand of Roumania, accompanied by Gen. Albert Robesco of the Roumanian army, arrived here unexpectedly today. The Prince was the guest of Emperor William at luncheon and in the course of today and tomorrow will confer with Albert von Kiderlen-Waechter, Imperial Secretary for Foreign Affairs, and other German statesmen.

No announcement regarding the meaning of Prince Ferdinand's visit has been made, but the press generally declares that it would not be wrong to consider it as a link in the recent demonstrative chain of visits of courtesy, which, like the trip of Field Marshal Baron Conrad von Hetzendorf, the inspector-general of the Austrian army at Bucharest, are intended to indicate to the outside world the solidarity of the members of the triple alliance, Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy with Roumania.

CHOLERA IS DECREASING.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The American Red Cross forwarded today $1000 to the International Bureau for the Aid of War Prisoners at Belgrade, Servia, for Balkan relief work. A telegram received by the Department of State from Ambassador Rockhill at Constantinople reports that conditions there are normal and that there is a decrease in the epidemic of cholera.

FOURTH TO HONOLULU.

CAVALRY ORDERED TO EMBARK.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] The Fourth Cavalry was ordered to Honolu on the tranport Sheridan sailing from San Francisco January 6, 1913, to relieve the Fifth Cavalry which will embark for San Francisco on the transport Sheridan January 16. Upon arrival in the United States the Fifth Cavalry will go to Fts. Huachuca and Apache. Prior to the departure of the Fourth Cavalry from its present station the commanding general of the Western Division will send to Ft. Huachuca two troops of the Ninth Cavalry and to Ft. Apache a detachment of one officer and twenty-five enlisted men of the Ninth Cavalry to care for the respective posts until the arrival of the Fifth Cavalry.

RAILWAY IS CUT BY OROZCO REBELS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Dec. 3.—Rebels under Gen. Pascual Orozco, Jr., today cut the Mexican Central Railway below Villa Ahumada, about midway between Juarez and the city of Chihuahua. This not only will postpone all further traffic on the Federal owned line below the border but will prevent the arrival at Juarez of the armored troop train which has been making a circuit of the railways between the State capital and the border in an effort to keep open the lines.

Two passenger trains are stranded as a result of today's bridge-burning by Orozco's men. So far the rebels have burned no bridges on the Mexico Northwestern Railway, consistent with Gen. Salazar's announcement that the American-owned line would not be destroyed unless necessary. There is a small Federal garrison at Villa Ahumada, but they have been kept occupied by rebels under Gen. Marcelo Carraveo. It is believed that Orozco and Carraveo have formed a junction, which will form a force of some 700 men.

Entrance of Orozco's force in the district below Juarez comes as a surprise to Federal officials, who had insisted that he was hiding in the United States, and also increases the menace to the small forces of government troops scattered through the district below the border at this point. The armored troop train with 500 men of the Fifteenth Battalion and some cannon is believed to be stranded between burned bridges below Villa Ahumada and practically useless, as it carries only infantry and artillery.

ARGUE NEUTRALITY LAW.

Right of Government to Hold Violators at President's Wish Questioned in Case of Col. Orozco.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

AUSTIN (Tex.) Dec. 3.—The constitutional right of the Federal government to hold violators of neutrality laws prisoners at the wish of the President was argued today in the habeas corpus proceedings for the release of Col. Pascual Orozco, father of the Mexican revolutionary general, and David de la Fuente.

Federal District Attorney Boynton in outlining the government's case said the power delegated to the President by the neutrality section of the Penal Code is discretionary.

Counsel for Orozco denied the President had the right to order the arrest of any one except under due process of law.

Mr. Boynton admitted there is not sufficient ground on which to base a charge at this time against the prisoners, but said they were held by the military authorities with the hope of turning them over to the civil authorities.

MINISTER ATTACKS FADS THAT SIDETRACK GOSPEL.

Submission of New Humanitarian Creed to Federal Church Council at Chicago Is Preceded by Denunciation of Modern Aggressive Pastor's Absorption in Social Service—Methodist Editor Sounds Warning.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Social service work was attacked as a "fad" here today by Dr. Gilbert of Cincinnati, O., editor of the Western Christian Advocate, a Methodist Episcopal publication.

Dr. Gilbert took part in the conference of the ministry for social service, preceding the opening tomorrow of the Federal Council of the Church of Christ in America.

Social service is one of the foremost topics to be discussed before the council, which represents thirty-two denominations, more than 150,000 churches and more than 17,000,000 church members and in which 300 delegates will take part.

Dr. Gilbert's denunciation of the modern aggressive ministers' absorption in "social service fads" instead of gospel preaching, follows closely on the authorized advance publication of a comprehensive social service "creed" for all church, which is to be submitted to the council as a supplement to the humanitarian creed now in effect.

REVISED SOCIAL CREED.

It Will Be Submitted Today at First Meeting of Federal Council of Churches at Chicago.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A revised "social creed" was submitted at the first meeting of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, which began its second quadrennial conference at the Hotel La Salle today. The delegates represent thirteen million Protestant churchgoers.

The new creed was presented in a report of the commission on the church and social service, introduced by the Rev. Frank Mason North, the chairman. Features of the old creed and articles adopted at the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in Minneapolis last May are included. The report and creed were presented but will not be acted on until later.

The new "social creed" declares that the churches must take a stand in favor of the following things:

For the protection of the family by the single standard of purity, uniform divorce laws, proper regulation of marriage and proper housing.

For the abolition of child labor.

For such regulation of the conditions of toil for women as shall safeguard the physical and moral health of the community.

For the abatement and prevention of poverty.

For the protection of the individual and society from the social, economic and moral waste of the liquor traffic.

For the right of all men to the opportunity of self-maintenance, for safeguarding this right against encroachments of every kind, and for the protection of workers from the hardships of enforced unemployment.

For suitable provision for the old age of the workers and for those incapacitated by injury.

For the principle of conciliation and arbitration in industrial disputes.

For release from employment one day in seven.

For the gradual and reasonable reduction of the hours of labor to the lowest practicable point and for that degree of leisure for all which is a condition of the highest human life.

For a living wage as a minimum in every industry, and for the highest wage that each industry can afford.

FINDS DOROTHY ARNOLD VICTIM OF WHITE SLAVERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] In a talk on "white slavery" at the Metropolitan Temple James Lees Laidlaw, the banker, mentioned Dorothy Arnold and stated that the Arnolds realized "the worst" had happened to her.

Laidlaw explained today that he had mentioned the case of Dorothy Arnold's disappearance as an illustration of what he believed to be the fact that white slavery might come home to any family in New York, no matter what its financial or social position. He knew the Arnolds believed Dorothy had been kidnaped by white slavers and was done to death by them.

John S. Keith, attorney for the family, said also the family believed white slavery was at the bottom of the kidnaping.

BRIDE KILLS THE WOMAN WHO CALLED HER UGLY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LOGANSPORT (Ind.) Dec. 3.—Elizabeth Lang, bride of one day, tonight shot and killed Mrs. Mary Copple, who at the wedding supper last night is alleged to have told other guests the groom had selected an ugly and worthless woman for a life partner. Mrs. Lang was arrested shortly after the shooting and the police say she made a full confession and expressed pleasure that she had stopped slanderous remarks.

In her confession, as reported by the police, Mrs. Lang said:

"Yes, I shot Mrs. Copple. I shot her down as her two little children stood beside her, holding to her skirts. I killed her because she said no man ought to marry me, and that my husband would repent.

"She said I was ugly. She said I was old. I killed her for that, and I am not a bit sorry for it. She was jealous of me and would have made my life unhappy."

The shooting followed a conference of Mrs. Lang with a woman friend, also a wedding guest, who had repeated the reported remarks of Mrs. Copple. Mrs. Lang went to the home of her father, told him the story and telephoned for the police.

She regained consciousness only long enough to say that her assailant was a negro.

NOW FOR PERSONAL GUILT.

[New York World, Dec. 3:] Three years after Edward H. Harriman's death the United States Supreme Court pronounces his most ambitious achievement unlawful and orders the dissolution of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railway mergers.

When Harriman defied the law in this matter he did so with the court's interpretation of it in the Northern Securities case before him.

As in the Northern Securities, Standard Oil and Tobacco proceedings, if this action had been under the criminal sections of the Sherman law there would have been an affirmation of personal guilt and somebody would now be on his way to the penitentiary. How many warnings like those of the Federal Building and Loan Association, receivers for Hartley F. Peart, Gus Eisenberg and Charles Buttet of San Francisco, and George F. Hatton, former Southern Pacific attorney, appointed before Superior Judge Welch today entered a denial of most of the allegations of the complaint, will be heeded by the lists covets the distinction of being the first to go to jail?

State Board Adjudicated Accident Damages.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—On the ground that the Legislature deprived minor children of their rights of infancy and of inheritance when it passed the employers' liability act, sometimes known as the Roseberry liability act, the constitutionality of that statute was attacked here today in a suit brought in the Superior Court.

On September 13 William C. Selfridge met death in an industrial accident. He left a divorced wife who had married again, a daughter by that wife, and his widow of a second marriage. In the divorce decree the custody of the child was not specified.

The company employing Selfridge has accepted the provisions of the employers' liability act and, when his widow failed to file application for damages with the State Industrial Board, the company itself petitioned the board to adjudicate its liabilities to the widow.

Under the act, its beneficiaries must have been living with the person deceased or directly dependent on him or her at the time of death. Esther Selfridge, 12 years old, the child of the first marriage, was living with her mother at the time of her father's death. Therefore, the mother, contending that the act bars the daughter from her rightful inheritance in her father's estate, is attacking the liability law and the State Industrial Board, which has authority under the law.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Dec. 3.—Charles Hermann, a keeper in the local zoo, had a terrific fight with a golden eagle in the eagle's cage today.

Hermann entered the cage to feed the birds when the largest of the captives swooped down upon him and fastening its talons in his head began to peck at him around the eyes.

With blood streaming down his face the keeper fought his way to a room which was in the cage and succeeded in beating back the bird at making his escape. His eyes were not injured, though his face was badly lacerated.

LUCILE CAMERON NEGRO'S BRIDE.

"JACK" JOHNSON IS MARRIED TO WHITE GIRL.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] Lucile Cameron, a pretty-faced 18-year-old white girl, today sacrificed much that is dear to the girl—home, a loving mother, pride, friends of her race—to win, as the wife of "Jack" Johnson, negro champion pugilist of the world, jewels, fine clothes and life's luxuries.

They were married in the parlor of the Johnson home, No. 3344 South Wabash avenue, on the arm of the champion. Outside, a crowd of whites and blacks had gathered. The girl could hear the jeers above the cheers as he covered her hand in his at the order of the Rev. H. A. Robinson, negro pastor of St. Mark's African Methodist Episcopal Church.

Chief of Police McWeeny had detailed policemen and detectives to prevent possible trouble and to drive away moving picture photographers.

The white persons at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Sigk Hart, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Wilson, Mrs. Laura Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Danielson.

The bride formerly lived at the Danielson home. After the ceremony, Johnson presented his bride with a $2500 diamond ring. A feast was then spread for the guests. In the center of the table was a big wedding cake on which stood two figures in white sugar, representing the white bride and the black groom.

The marriage of the negro to the white girl will not affect the government's case against Johnson, as he faces trial on indictments based on the charges of Bell Schrieber, another white woman he is alleged to have brought to Chicago for immoral purposes.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—"Nothing but a hole in the ground," was what John M. Henderson of Waterbury, Ct., saw when he visited the Temagami-Cobalt mines, one of the properties promoted by Julian Hawthorne and others on trial for using the mails to defraud.

Henderson, a mechanical engineer, so testified today, stating that he had paid $480 for 1250 shares in Temagami-Cobalt, and had also subscribed for 1200 shares of Elk Lake Cobalt, another Hawthorne property. The witness said he visited the Temagami mines in June, 1910, and found that work had ceased and all the mining machinery was being packed ready for shipment.

OBITUARY.

Edward A. Skinner.

WESTFIELD (N. Y.) Dec. 3.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] News was received here tonight of the death at St. Petersburg, Fla., of Edward A. Skinner of Westfield for the last thirty years Supreme Treasurer of the Royal Arcanum.

Harold Willis Powell.

WORCESTER (Mass.) Dec. 3.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Harold Willis Powell or "Montana Harry," as he was better known throughout the country, believed to be the last surviving scout who was with Custer at the battle of the Little Big Horn, fell dead in a hotel here today. Powell, who was 64 years old, was the holder of several gold medals of honor from the government bestowed for bravery in the field. On his breast was found a gold medal awarded for bravery at Pine Ridge, January 1, 1891.

Alfred Johnson.

NEWARK (N. J.) Dec. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] Alfred Johnson, 79 years old, who in recent years had acquired a reputation as a "Globe Trotter," is dead at his home following a brief illness. Mr. Johnson was one of the forty-niners who joined the rush to the California gold fields.

FAVORS BRITISH LAW.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Capt. Robert Dollar of San Francisco, before a Senate Committee today recommending changes in the seamen's involuntary servitude act, declared his steamship company, American-owned, operated under the British flag 40 per cent. cheaper than it could under the Stars and Stripes because England's laws were not so stringent.

Death Penalty.

GRANGE SCORES WALLACE'S ACT.

Condemns His Commutation of Wife Murderer.

Favors Capital Punishment to Protect Society.

Urges Johnson to Enforce the Death Penalty.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Lieut.-Gov. A. J. Wallace is roundly scored in resolutions adopted by the Sacramento County Pomona Grange for commuting the sentence of the wife-murderer, George Figueroa, from death to life imprisonment, while he was acting Governor.

The resolution further asked Gov. Johnson to rescind the action, if that were possible, and placed the grange on record as favoring capital punishment.

The resolutions read in part:

"Resolved, by Sacramento County Pomona Grange, No. 2, that we do most emphatically condemn the action of Lieut.-Gov. Wallace in commuting the death penalty pronounced against the said George Figueroa to life imprisonment: and be it further resolved, that we request Gov. Johnson, if he has the authority to do so, to revoke the commutation granted the said George Figueroa by Acting Gov. Wallace; and be it further

"Resolved, that we most emphatically protest against the commutation of the death sentence pronounced by proper authority upon all murderers in California, unless sufficient mitigating circumstances are discovered since and not known at the time of the trial; and be it further

"Resolved, that we are in favor of capital punishment in the State for wilful murder, believing that innocent members of society are entitled to such protection of their lives as only the proper enforcement against all convicted felons will give."

PLANS TO RAISE FUNDS FOR HOME.

NEW BUILDING NEEDED FOR RESCUE WORK.

Facilities of Crittenton Institute Inadequate for Present Needs in Caring for Unfortunates—Additional Room to Solve Problem Presented to Board of Managers.

The pressing need of a new and more adequate building for the Florence Crittenton Home, No. 1632 Santee street, has induced the management of the institution to attempt to raise funds at least for a start on a new structure. With this purpose in view a public reception and bazaar will be held Friday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock. The character of the work done at this home is such as to enlist the good will of all charitably inclined and the management looks forward to a large attendance.

During the past year the home provided shelter for forty-nine young mothers at different periods. With the present facilities, however, it is impossible to accommodate more than twenty girls at one time. The hospital is so inadequate to the needs that only six patients can be cared for there.

The most marked disadvantage and one that is sought to be overcome by providing more ample quarters for the unfortunate girls who are brought to the home, is the fact that the present cramed, quarters will not permit the children being left there while the mother goes out to work. This condition necessarily means that the unfortunate mother must leave her baby at the home or permit it to be adopted in order that she may board elsewhere and find work. With plenty of room such as would be provided in a new structure the mother could board at the home with her infant and work where she pleased.

In this way one purpose of the institution would be carried out. The mother would not be separated from her child and they would remain under the influence of the home for several months until strong in health and purpose. At present the home is harboring twenty young women and fifteen children. One of the mothers is but 13 years old.

The rescue work of the city which has culminated in the Florence Crittenton Home in name and association with the national chain of these institutions, began twenty years ago. During the past four years it has prospered greatly. The Board of Managers is comprised of women with an advisory board of business men. During the past two years Mrs. Frank Stoddard has been president of the Board of Managers. Twenty-three years of charitable and benevolent work has eminently qualified and fitted her for the position she holds and there is a strong disinclination to accepting her resignation which she has talked of handing in at the close of her present term of office.

The annual reception Friday will be on the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard. Already a nest-egg for the new home has been set aside and it is hoped a substantial start will be made toward the necessary sum Friday. The financial statement of the home shows that $9046.84 was expended in good work in 1911. The present assets of the home are estimated at $17,661.34.

How to Look Years Less Than Your Age

(From the Dermatologist.)

The most aged face will look years younger after the use of ordinary mercolized wax for from ten days to two weeks. This remarkable substance, because of its peculiar absorptive power, actually removes the thin veil of faded or withered outer cuticle, a little at a time. Gradually the fresher, more youthful skin underneath is revealed. This absorption process being a purely hygienic one, an entirely natural complexion is acquired—quite different from the artificial complexion, which appears anything but girlish, though often bearing painful evidence of childishness. An ounce of mercolized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is sufficient to rejuvenate any complexion. It is put on like cold cream at bedtime, and removed mornings with warm, sudsy water.

To eradicate such age marks as wrinkles and furrows, make a wash lotion by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel. This has wonderful astringent and tonic properties. It quickly effaces all kinds of wrinkles, no matter how caused, making the skin firm, smooth and young looking.—[Advertisement.

ASK PERMANENT TARIFF BOARD.

National Commission Will Hold Convention.

Plan to Urge Action by New Administration.

Advocate Schedule Revision by Non-Partisans.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The board of directors of the National Tariff Commission Association instructed today its Executive and Legislative Committee to arrange for a national convention of the association to be held soon after the next Congress convenes for the purpose of urging upon the new administration the establishment of a permanent tariff board, responsible to the President and Congress. It is probable the convention will be held in Washington next April. The directors in adopting the report of President John Chandler Cobb of Boston, reaffirmed their previous advocacy of tariff revision schedule by schedule, based upon reports of a non-partisan board authorized by Congress to gather statistical facts and pertinent to the schedules to be revised.

ARCHBALD SITS AT SENATE BAR.

JUDGE HEARS HIMSELF HELD UP TO PUBLIC SCORN.

Counsel for Member of Commerce Court Makes Emphatic Reply to Terrific Arraignment by Representative Clayton of Alabama in Impeachment Trial.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3. — Judge Robert W. Archbald of the United States Commerce Court sat before the bar of the Senate today and heard himself referred to as one who had "prostituted his high office position to personal profit," who had "commercialized his potentiality as a judge," and who "had degraded his office and destroyed the confidence of the public in his integrity."

To this arraignment by Representative Clayton of Alabama, representing the House of Representatives in the impeachment proceedings against the jurist, Judge Archbald's chief counsel, A. S. Worthington, made an emphatic reply. He declared the House had brought proceedings against Judge Archbald upon facts that, properly analyzed, showed the jurist's motive to be unquestionable.

"I do not like to think that any man can be brought into a court of justice anywhere and made to answer charges so vague and indefinite," added Mr. Worthington.

Judge Archbald sat with his attorneys at the right of the bar.

Representative Clayton, making the opening statement for the House, declared the facts showed in the investigation of Judge Archbald's business relations with coal companies and railroads that his sense of morality had been deadened; and that he had used his official position to induce officials of railroads that were or might be litigants before his court, to grant him favors or to consent to business deals.

EMPHATIC REPLY.

Judge Archbald's attorney replied to all of the impeachment charges made by the House, declaring that the witnesses summoned in behalf of the accused jurist would substantiate their claim that Mr. Archbald had been guilty of no wrongdoing, and that his relations to certain coal land deals had been open.

The first witnesses will be summoned before the Senate court of impeachment tomorrow.

The trial is expected to center about the testimony of witnesses as to Judge Archbald's connection with the purchase or attempted purchase of certain refuse coal dumps.

Judge Archbald and his attorneys entered the chamber promptly, as did the House members. The court adopted formal orders, setting the hour of meeting daily at 2 o'clock and providing that the opening statements of the case should be made by one person on each side.

The court then took a brief recess.

THE NINTH TRIAL.

This is the ninth time in its history that the Senate convened as a high court of impeachment. There are thirteen separate charges alleged to constitute "high crimes and misdemeanors." Counsel for the judge has admitted commission of all the acts alleged but denies that any was improper.

ENGINE GOES THROUGH COACH.

Seven Killed, Five Fatally Scalded and Three Others Hurt in Ohio Railroad Collision.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ZANESVILLE (O.) Dec. 3.—Seven persons were killed and eight injured, five of whom probably will die, in a railroad collision near Dresden, O., tonight.

A Cincinnati and Muskingum Valley passenger train was following a Cleveland, Akron and Columbus division passenger on the single track between Trinway and Zanesville. The engine of the latter broke down and a trainman was sent to flag the Muskingum Valley train but the latter was too close.

The engine polwed through the rear coach and completely demolished it. The dead and injured were all in this coach. Several persons escaped by jumping. The five who were fatally injured were scalded by escaping steam.

PAMPERING CAUSES CRIME.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Prof. Allen Cohen, of the department of sociology of the University of Chicago, speaking before a woman's club here last night, on the subject: "The Home as a School for Citizenship," declared that the pampered boy of today is the grafter of tomorrow. "Too often," he said, "a policeman is pointed out to a child as the one who will punish him if he does wrong. The policeman should be looked upon by the youth as a sort of 'daddy at large.' I think every young man, on reaching his majority, should be compelled to take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States."

LONG HUNT FOR BEAR.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

IDAHO FALLS (Ida.) Dec. 3.—R. L. Scott, a farmer living near here, has succeeded in killing a bear that he has been pursuing for seventeen years. Scott's first encounter with the bear came over seventeen years ago, when he set a trap for the animal, which had been raiding his larder. One morning Scott found the toes of a bear's hind foot in his trap and some time later noticed the tracks of the wounded bear in the snow. The bear remained in the neighborhood and became known as "Old Clubfoot." Scott has made many hunting trips after the bear and finally succeeded in killing him last Sunday. The carcass weighed 1280 pounds.

MARQUETTE AS NAVIGATOR.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Historical accounts of Father Marquette's journey up the Des Plaines River in 1673, and La Salle's explorations in 1679 are to be used by the government as evidence that the stream is navigable, in an injunction suit before Federal Judge Landis to prevent the Economy Light and Power Company from building a dam in the river at Dresden Heights. Although the river has not been used for big boats since its discovery, the government contends that it was at that time, and still is, navigable and that such an obstruction would hinder navigation upon it.

FIGHTS TO ESCAPE DUNGEON.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Dominico Modesto, under sentence in Italy to life imprisonment in a dungeon, for the murder of Francesco Maleto in January, 1904, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Foote yesterday, for extradition. The murder is alleged to have been committed after an argument in a card game. Modesto had been in America and returned to his native country. While there, the crime is said to have been committed. He escaped to America and is fighting extradition on the ground of being an American citizen. A decision will be given in the case Friday.

Sixty-second Congress.

WARNING NOTE IN MESSAGE.

America's Foreign Relations Taft's Sole Topic.

Congress Urged to Banish Partisan Questions.

Points With Pride to Great Trade Expansion.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—A note of warning to European powers which by indirect means continue to discriminate against American trade; a strong appeal to the Congress to uplift the great foreign policies of America above mere questions of partisanship; a triumphant vindication of the diplomacy of the administration, which is characterized as that of "dollars versus bullets;" a masterful pride in the enormous expansion of American trade as a result of the foreign policies of his administration, and an earnest appeal for joint action by Congress and the Executive to open new markets for American industries—these are the more striking features of President Taft's fourth annual message sent to Congress today.

The message is the first of a series of such communications which he will make to Congress in the early days of the session and deals entirely with the foreign relations of the United States. Beginning with the usual reference to the existing good relations with foreign powers, the President adds that these have been strengthened by "a greater insistence upon justice to American citizens, or interests, wherever it may have been denied, and a stronger emphasis of the need of mutuality in commercial and other relations."

FAVORED NATION.

For the first time in its history, says the President, the State Department has obtained substantially the most favored nation treatment from all of the countries of the world. Therefore, he says that it is only natural that competitive countries should view with some concern the expansion of our commerce. Hence the warning: "If in some instances the measures taken by them to meet it are not entirely equitable, a remedy should be found."

To this end the President strongly recommends the enactment of the bill recommended by Secretary Knox last December, permitting the government, instead of imposing the full maximum rates of duty against discriminating countries, to apply a graduated scale of duties, up to that maximum of 25 per cent.

"Flat tariffs are out of date," says the President. "Nations no longer accord equal tariff treatment to all other nations, irrespective of the treatment from them received. It is very necessary that the American government should be equipped with weapons of negotiation and adapted to modern economic conditions."

A NEW ORGANIZATION.

The State Department, "an archaic and inadequate machine," at the beginning of this administration, the President says, has become a new organization, with highly specialized bureaus and experts dealing with every phase of American trade and diplomacy. Holding that the essence of this reorganized service is found in the merit system, which President Cleveland is credited with having introduced, President Taft makes a strong appeal to Congress to make this machine permanent by giving the force of statutory law to the executive orders governing admission to and promotion in the diplomatic and consular services.

To show that these appointments are already largely non-partisan, the President points to the fact that three of the present Ambassadors are holdovers; that of the ten he has appointed, five were by promotion from the rank of Minister; that of the thirty ministers appointed, eleven were promotions, and that in the consular service no less than 55 per cent. of the consuls appointed by him were from the Southern States.

"The diplomacy of the present administration has sought to respond to modern ideas of commercial intercourse," says President Taft. "This policy has been characterized as substituting dollars for bullets. It is one that appeals alike to idealistic humanitarian sentiments, to the dictates of sound policy and strategy, and to legitimate commercial aims."

MODERN DIPLOMACY.

The President adds that "because modern diplomacy is commercial, there has been a disposition in some quarters to attribute to it none but materialistic aims."

"How strikingly erroneous is such an impression may be seen from a study of the results by which the diplomacy of the United States can be judged," says the President.

He mentions the arbitration treaties with France and Great Britain, which failed of confirmation in the Senate; the successful tripartite mediation of the Argentine Republic, Brazil, and the United States, between Peru and Ecuador; the arbitration of the Panama-Costa Rica boundary dispute; the intervention between Haiti and the Dominican Republic on the verge of war; the suppression of the Nicaraguan war, the halting of internecine strife in Honduras, the adjustment of the celebrated Tacna-Arica dispute between Peru and Chile, and the adjustment of the Peruvian-Ecuadorian boundary issue.

INTERNATIONAL TENSION.

In consequence of these things, says the President, there has been a general easing of international tension on the west coast of South America. He also adds that the diplomacy of the United States is active in seeking to assuage the remaining ill feeling between this country and Colombia.

Taking up some of the details of the year's diplomatic work, the President refers with expressions of pride to China, where, "the policy of encouraging financial investment to enable that country to help itself has had the result of giving new life and practical application to the open-door policy." The consistent purpose has been to encourage the use of American capital in China, says the President, to promote the reforms to which that country is pledged by treaty with the United States and other powers. There has been a vigorous assertion, also, he says, of the equal right of the United States to a voice in all questions pertaining to Chinese loans and developments.

President Taft makes the direct charge that the terrible events recorded in Nicaragua recently, the useless loss of life, the devastation of property, the bombardment of the principal cities, the killings and the tortures and suffering, "might have been averted had the Department of State, through approval of the loan convention by the Senate, been permitted to carry out its now well-developed policy."

"In Central America the aim has been to help such countries as Nicaragua and Honduras to help themselves," says President Taft.

While they are the immediate beneficiaries, the profit to the United States is two-fold, he adds. The Monroe doctrine is more vital in the neighborhood of the Panama Canal, and such countries should be relieved of the jeopardy of heavy foreign debts likely to provoke international complications.

The financial rehabilitation of these countries by American bankers and the protection of their customhouses from being the prey of would-be dictators, says the President, would remove the menace of foreign creditors and revolutionary disorder. Furthermore the United States would profit largely in a business way through the development of the great natural resources of Central America.

MEXICO.

Commending the successful results of the application of the new neutrality laws to Mexico and other troubled countries, the President suggests that means be found in addition to prevent the professional revolutionists from making American ports "foci" for revolutionary intrigue. He reiterates his determination to adhere in the case of Mexico to the "patient policy of non-intervention, steadfast recognition of constituted authority, and the exertion of every effort to protect American interests."

Other paragraphs of the message point to the increase of American domestic exports by $200,000,000 during the past year, making the greatest total ever known, $2,200,000,000; to the agricultural credit system which he thoroughly indorsed, to the probable necessity of an amendment of the fur seal act to permit limiting killing of seals; to a meeting of the arbitrators in Washington next year to adjust the pecuniary claims between Great Britain and America; to negotiations with Mexico for the distribution of the waters of the Colorado River in the Imperial Valley section; and to the financial rehabilitation of Liberia.

There is merely historical reference to the Chinese revolution; to the San Domingan troubles, the rebellion in Cuba and the Balkan war developments, in which it is said the United States is not involved.

The message concludes with an earnest appeal to Congress to cooperate with the executive in its efforts to apply the old principles of diplomacy which have served the country, to the momentous new situations of today, when America finds itself at the threshold of her middle age as a nation; "too mature to continue in its foreign relations those temporary expedients natural to a people to whom domestic affairs are the sole concern."

NAVAL REORGANIZATION.

A BILL BY PADGETT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—A bill that would reorganize the personnel of the naval establishment and the marine corps was introduced today by Representative Padgett, chairman of the House Committee on Naval Affairs.

The bill is the result of a series of investigations by the Democrats of the Naval Affairs Committee and prescribes an involved system of maintaining the quota of naval officers on a basis proportionate with the tonnage of the navy.

The measure also would change the requirement for the age limit for admission to the naval academy. The new measure would admit appointees only between the ages of 15 and 18.

At the instance of the Navy Department, Senator Perkins today introduced a bill to increase the number of enlisted men in the navy from 52,500 to 53,500 and to increase the enlisted strength of the marine corps 20 per cent., bringing the number up to 10,500.

ONE CENT POSTAGE.

FREE MAIL DELIVERY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—One cent postage within a city where mail is first deposited would be provided by a bill introduced today by Senator Penrose. The measure would extend the 1-cent rate now applying in towns that have no carrier delivery to all cities, restoring the general "drop-letter" rate.

A bill that would establish a free mail delivery service in cities having second and third-class postoffices was introduced today by Representative Griest of Pennsylvania. The bill limits the expenditure in each city to $1800 a year.

PRESIDENTIAL RETIREMENT.

Retirement of the President of the United States as Commander-in-Chief of the army at $10,000 was proposed in a bill today by Senator McCumber. It also will pension widows of former Presidents while they remain unmarried at $5000 a year.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

A REGULATIVE BILL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON (D. C.) Dec. 3.—An amendment offered by Republican Leader Mann, proposing a rigid regulation of the issuance of stocks and bonds, prevented passage by the House today of the Adamson bill that would authorize a special commission to ascertain the physical valuation of railroads and other inter-State carriers, with the view of aiding the Interstate Commerce Commission in fixing equitable freight rates. After an extended debate on a point of order against the amendment, the matter went over until Thursday by unanimous consent.

Mr. Mann's amendment would prescribe in detail how an interstate carrier should incur indebtedness, and would prohibit the issuance of stocks, bonds or notes except in return for money or other consideration approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

With a permanent corps of experts inquiring into the value of carriers' property, the proposed law would make it possible for the Interstate Commerce Commission to fix rates on the basis of profits to be realized on actual investments, instead of on paper valuations.

Take This Man's Advice

Try the Great Kidney Remedy

It always gives me pleasure to recommend anything that is right, and so I feel it my duty to herald the praises of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

For years I was troubled with kidney disease, and it was so intense that I was bedridden for days at a time. I gave up all hope and doctors for miles around gave me no help. Incidentally I tried several patent remedies, and at last tried Swamp-Root. From the first it gave me relief, and it was no time before I was able to be up and around, and now I am perfectly well and able to work as I used to before my terrible sickness.

So now let me thank you for your wonderful discovery, and take this opportunity to recommend it to all who suffer from kidney troubles.

Yours very truly,
WALTER SHIRVER.

Wife of the Slayer of Stanford White Denies Under Oath That She Has Any Children.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw this afternoon denied under oath that she had a child. The question was asked at her examination in the City Court, where Judge Lynch was trying a suit for $2041, brought by the Goram Company against the wife of Stanford White's slayer.

"What does your family consist of?"

"Why, what do you mean? Just Mr. Thaw and me," answered Mrs. Thaw.

"Any children?"

Mrs. Thaw lowered her eyes. "Certainly not," she replied in an embarrassed tone.

Marion Club May Oust Beveridge if He Persists in Further Fighting Republican Principles.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Marion Club, Indiana's most powerful Republican organization, has it on its cards to oust all Progressives, including former Senator Beveridge, defeated Progressive candidate for Governor, even though they still call themselves Republicans.

There appears to be even greater reluctance since the election, than before, on the part of Beveridge and other Progressives to drop the name of Republicans but the Marion Club will insist that those who are working against Republican principles must seek other political affiliations.

UPSET, BILIOUS, SICK? "CASCARETS"

No Headache, Biliousness, Lazy Liver or Constipated Bowels by Morning.

Are you keeping your bowels, liver and stomach clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway through these alimentary or drainage organs every few days with Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters?

Stop having a bowel wash-day. Let Cascarets thoroughly cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the undigested, sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken or cause any inconvenience, and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never had Headache, Biliousness, coated tongue, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated Bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.—[Advertisement.

RYAN LETTERS PRECEDE "JOBS."

President of the Union on Witness Stand.

Tells What He Meant by Cryptic Phrases.

Protests That His Office Had Been Robbed.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Dec. 3.—Letters written by Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers, were read in connection with dates of explosions in the cross-examination of Ryan by the government at the dynamite conspiracy trial today.

Ryan testified that his knowledge of numerous explosions which had occurred after he had written a letter from New York was gained entirely through newspaper accounts. He said newspaper accounts of explosions on non-union jobs often were enclosed in letters as news.

Extracts from the New York letter, which Ryan testified he wrote on April 27, 1910, as head of the union, to Secretary John J. McNamara and the explosions which the government cited as having occurred later were:

"Let Legleitner take care of the jobs in his district."

Henry W. Legleitner, now of Denver, was then a member of the executive board, stationed at Pittsburgh. An explosion occurred at McKees Rocks, near Pittsburgh, in July, 1910.

"Let Hockin arrange for Cleveland, Cincinnati and Detroit jobs."

"Davenport, Iowa, and Peoria can be handled by Hockin." Explosions occurred at Davenport and Peoria on June 4.

What did you mean when you said: "Let Legleitner and Hockin take care of these jobs?" asked Dist.-Atty. Miller.

WHAT HE MEANT.

"I meant for them to use every legitimate means to have union men put to work," answered Ryan.

Before an explosion on a bridge at Dayton, O., which Edward Clark, union official at Cincinnati, confessed to have caused, Ryan said he sent Hockin to Cincinnati. Clark in his confession said Hockin furnished him with the dynamite for the explosion.

Ryan asserted he gave no instructions to Hockin about dynamite.

"How soon after an explosion on a bridge in Cincinnati in May, 1909, did Clark call you up?" Ryan was asked.

"Possibly a few days, but he gave me no details about an explosion."

Asserting he had no intention that violence should be used, Ryan said, through a request from W. Bert Ryan, a union business agent, he sent Hockin to Kansas City, prior to an explosion on a bridge there in August, 1910.

In explaining a letter to Michael J. Cunnane, business agent at Philadelphia, giving instructions to handle a non-union job "in any way that will delay or add to the cost of it," Ryan said his only purpose was to have union men taken off other jobs in construction by the same contractor. The government read a letter written from Dallas in 1910, to McNamara by Phillip A. Cooley, New Orleans, who is charged with having urged that explosions take place in the South: "I agree with you to postpone the proposition so I can get some pointers from you, and there will be no after effects."

"Did you receive letters from Cooley about arrangements to blow up jobs?" asked Mr. Miller.

"I never received a letter from Cooley about blowing up anything," answered Ryan.

ANOTHER EXPLANATION.

Asked what was meant when Frank C. Webb, New York, wrote him, "Your confidence in me you may never fear for I don't believe in talking too much in cases of this kind," Ryan said it only referred to arrangements for unionizing jobs in New York.

Ryan admitted he had acknowledged the receipt of a newspaper clipping from John Golden, president of the United Textile Workers of America, about an explosion on a bridge at Fall River, Mass., in 1908 and had replied he "read the clipping with interest."

He said the ironworkers furnished $10,000 bond for George O'Donnell, who was accused of the dynamiting, and that the union also paid O'Donnell money after he had been convicted.

"We sent him about $1000, because we considered he was being persecuted," said Ryan.

"Did you ever make an investigation of the Los Angeles Times explosion in which twenty persons were murdered?" asked Mr. Miller.

"And yet you re-elected J. J. McNamara as secretary of the union after he was arrested?"

"Yes."

"And you had Hockin as secretary until yesterday?"

"Yes."

Ryan's cross-examination will be resumed tomorrow.

CALLS IT ROBBERY.

Ryan said his office was "robbed" by detectives when J. J. McNamara, the secretary, was arrested in April, 1911.

Ryan, asserting he had no suspicion McNamara had stored explosives at the union headquarters, said he protested when officials of the National Detectors' Association joined detectives in searching the files. While he was absenting to furnish the combination of the safe, he said, a cracksmen was needed to drill the lock. Meanwhile McNamara was being hurried to California.

During the search of the premises, Ryan said, he sent for his attorney and compelled the authorities to produce a search warrants.

Eighty-two quarts of nitroglycerine were found in the vault.

Ryan also denied, as had been charged, that as early as 1906, W. T. Burns, then District Attorney of New York, had given warning that explosives were being done by the iron-workers.

Cross-examined, Ryan was asked what he meant in writing from New York in April, 1909, to union headquarters, "I w... this month. N... not be referred ... The governm... head of the un... York was direc... other cities 'ab... up.

While he was attempting to furnish the combination of the safe, he said, a cracksmen was hired to drill the lock. Meanwhile McNamara was being hurried to Indianapolis.

During the search of the premises, Ryan said, he sent for his attorney and notified the authorities to procure search warrants.

Sixty-two quarts of nitroglycerine were found in the vault.

Ryan also denied, as had been testified that as early as 1906, W. T. Rose, then District Attorney of New York had given warning that explosives being done by the ironworkers.

Before adjourned, Ryan was asked to submit in writing from New York in April, 1909, to union headquarters, "I will not have a report this month. Nearly all my work cannot be referred to."

The government charges that as head of the union, Ryan from New York was directing union officials in other cities about jobs to be blown up.

"I meant by that I was trying to settle disputes among the ironworkers in New York," answered Ryan, "and I did not think it wise for members in other cities to know there was so much dissension in the ranks."

Ryan added he gave little attention to the $1000 a month used by McNamara and for which no accounting was required.

STORM DAMAGES LINER.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] The storm which damaged so many vessels last Friday was encountered by the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria of the Hamburg-American line, which reached port today with one dead, two injured and part of her rail missing as a result of the encounter.

When the sea was highest, twenty passengers were standing on the port side watching the heavy combers rushing by. A steward warned them to the starboard side and a few minutes later a big wave tore onto the deck, sweeping the port rail away and crashing through the partition between the first and second cabins.

One man in the steerage, Meyer Goodman of Budapest, dropped dead from heart failure, according to the doctors, but, according to passengers, death came from fright. Two seamen were knocked down. Franz Josefite was flung against a stanchions and his leg was broken, while Herman Wolse was caught up and tossed against a rail, breaking three ribs. The storm lasted twenty-four hours.

SICKLES SALE OFF FOR GOOD.

AGED VETERAN IS RECONCILED WITH HIS WIFE.

Pathetic But Joyous Meeting at Fifth Avenue Home Amidst Heaped-Up Confusion of Pictures, Statues, Rugs and Hangings Prepared for Auctioneer's Hammer.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The much-postponed sale of Gen. Daniel E. Sickles's relics to satisfy his debts, which was to have taken place tomorrow, but which Sheriff Harburger has adjourned to December 12, is called off for good. The long-separated general and his wife have made up and she has promised to pay the $5000 which Gen. Sickles owes the Bank of the Metropolis. It was said tonight that she had already handed $3500 to the bank officials and offered to cable to Madrid for the rest.

HEAPED-UP CONFUSION.

Gen. Sickles, now 92 years old, stood today in his home at No. 23 Fifth avenue, surrounded by heaped-up confusion. His pictures had been taken down, his statues removed from their pedestals, his rugs and hangings had been rolled, numbered and tagged for the sale. To every question as to whether or not his wife had finally effected a reconciliation and averted the catastrophe, he replied:

"No, no; I won't have it. That is charity. I will accept no charity."

But an attorney for the Bank of the Metropolis said tonight that the basis of an agreement had been reached and that there would be no sale. The explanation was made by an old friend of the general.

KISS AND MAKE UP.

"On Monday night," said this friend, "Mrs. Sickles, with her son, Stanton, called on Gen. Sickles at the general's request. When she stepped into the hall there was the general, balancing himself on his crutches. He cried, 'Carolina, oh, Carolina,' and embraced and kissed her on both cheeks. She told him she was prepared to shield him from every trouble due to his tangled business affairs. This morning she drew $2500, her entire balance, from her bank and put it up as an earnest of her intention to pay off the judgment due the Bank of the Metropolis. The property in Gen. Sickles's house has been conveyed to her, so there is no longer any danger that the general will lose it."

Mrs. Sickles said that in the Monday night interview Gen. Sickles asked their son Stanton to call again this morning. It was said tonight that Stanton kept the engagement and that Gen. Sickles repeatedly expressed delight over the reconciliation and felt that his troubles were ended.

Congressman Introduces Resolution Instructing Secretary of Treasury to Deposit Fifty Millions in Banks.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—A resolution to direct the Secretary of the Treasury to deposit in national banks $50,000,000 to relieve the "sharp and active demand for money," was introduced today by Representative Levy of New York who declared it was prompted by the apparent lack of ready money in banking circles throughout the country.

The Comptroller of the Currency has issued a call for a statement of the condition of all national banks in the United States at the close of business on Tuesday, November 26.

Public hearings on tariff legislation probably will be arranged at a meeting of the Ways and Means Committee Monday.

Congressional investigation of the recent raid of the Postoffice Department of doctors, druggists and others charged with improper use of the mails has been asked of the House Committee on Expenditures in the Postoffice Department by the druggists' organization of Ohio.

Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it. [—Advertisement.

of pardon. I am proud of my record."

BALDWIN VS. SHAFROTH.

The address of Gov. Baldwin of Connecticut, followed an address by Gov. Shafroth of Colorado, in which Gov. Shafroth advocated leniency to criminals and cited his own State as an example where this system had worked well.

Gov. Shafroth declared severe punishment had proved no deterrent to crime. Certainty of punishment, in his opinion, with an opportunity to shorten the sentence through the labor and good behavior, not only punished the criminal, but served alike as a deterrent against future crimes as an incentive to reform.

He advocated the system in vogue in Colorado, under which gangs of fifty men, worked without guards save at nights, on the public roads and expressed the hope that the time was near when the State could do more than this and pay the convicts a nominal wage for the work he performed

DEATH PENALTY.

Gov. Donaghey of Arkansas declared for a severe penalty for lynchers. No punishment save death, he said, would deter murderers from their crime.

Every court of appeal should be abolished in the opinion of Gov. Eberhart of Minnesota. The jury system, he thought, was responsible for the frequent miscarriage of justice. Nowadays, he said, a man could plead guilty to many varieties of insanity and escape the consequences of his crime. Under the present jury system, he added, it was almost impossible to select intelligent men for jury service.

Flogging, in some cases, for children; the whipping post for violators of certain laws, and sterilization of assailants of women, were advocated by Gov. Baldwin. In his speech Gov. Baldwin declared that he was more in sympathy with the "classical school of penology" than the "new or noisier one, mainly made up of sentimental humanitarians or theoretical psychologists."

The former school, he said, maintains that criminals should ordinarily be punished by subjection to some form of suffering; the other that they should ordinarily not be made to suffer for their misdeeds except as nature forces it upon them through the mind, but that their treatment by the State should be aimed primarily at their moral improvement.

A DAILY TERROR.

"There is a certain crime of which one seldom speaks," Gov. Baldwin continued. "Its very name has come to be banished from our newspapers. Yet the thought of it is a daily terror to every woman in the South and brings a sense of uneasiness and constraint into the life of her northern sisters. It is the cause of most of those lynching cases which disgrace our civilization. It is to be kept down only by the severest methods.

"It is too much to say if the courts are not ready to deal effectively with this crime the people will.

"The people who may thus bring some ruffian to his death will not be the best people in the community. They may occasionally seize the wrong man. But has a conviction ever yet been had in the United States of any one of a mob of lynchers for hanging a negro thus accused?

"That crime does a wrong to a woman which many of them have deemed worse than death. Such a man is no fit subject for an indeterminate sentence. He has proved his inherent weakness of will power. In every clear case, in my judgment, there should be an operation of sterilization."

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

Perpetuation of the Governors' conference as a permanent organization was advocated by Gov. Norris of Montana.

Gov. Mann, in his welcoming address, touched upon what he termed the need for a uniform divorce law.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Woman suffrage caused a close vote. By 9 to 8 it was decided to have the Arrangements Committee determine whether or not Dr. Anna Shaw should address the conference Thursday. Gov. Harmon, acting chairman, cast the deciding ballot in favor.

The Governors present were: O'Neill of Alabama, Donaghey of Arkansas, Shafroth of Colorado, Baldwin of Connecticut, Gilchrist of Florida, Brown of Georgia, Hawley of Idaho, Plaisted of Maine, Foss of Massachusetts, Norris of Montana, Oddie of Nevada, Dix of New York, Kitchin of North Carolina, Harmon of Ohio, Blease of South Carolina, Spry of Utah, Mann of Virginia, McGovern of Wisconsin and Carey of Wyoming.

GRAND OPERA IN ENGLISH.

Company to Be Formed to Give New York Production Staged at Manhattan Operahouse.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] New York is to have grand opera in English staged as lavishly and as well sung as any of the productions at the Metropolitan Operahouse. Probably the Manhattan Operahouse will be used for the productions.

Articles of incorporation will be filed in a few days at Albany for a company with a capital stock of $200,000. The directors of the company are said to include a United States Senator, a director of the Standard Oil Company and other rich men. The corporation will be called the English and American Grand Opera Company.

American singers will be given preference. Every effort will be made to develop American operatic talent and composers and singers alike are to benefit through the new organization. Special translations of the standard operas will be made. The first productions probably will be staged this spring.

MAY STOP CONFIRMATIONS.

President Sends in Two Hundred Recess Appointments and Democratic Senators Get Busy.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—President Taft sent more than 200 recess appointments to the Senate today and immediately indications of a movement among some of the Democratic Senators to prevent their confirmation became evident. Senator Gore, it was said, would have the active support of several colleagues in heading the movement.

The campaign is directed especially against nominations which, it is said, have been proposed from time to time, thus bringing the new terms close to the beginning of the Democratic administration. Democratic Senators claim the President already has deprived the Democrats of the privilege of appointing 50,000 postmasters by placing them within the civil service law by a single order.

Among the reappointments was that of Edgar E. Clark of Iowa as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The President also sent to the Senate the nomination of John R. Chase to be postmaster at San Jose, Cal.

The President signed the commission of the Rev. William H. Ketcham, director of the bureau of Catholic Indian missions, as a member of the Board of Indian Commissioners to succeed Cardinal Gibbons, who resigned from the board on account of inability to devote time to his work.

KILLS HIS SON TO SPITE WIFE.

Jumps With Boy in Front of Moving Train.

Angered Because Woman Had Repulsed Him.

Curio Dealers Must Stamp Worthless Bills.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, Dec. 3.—C. A. Johnson, a stationary engineer, who for the past eight months had quarreled repeatedly with his wife, sought a reconciliation this morning and, being finally repulsed, took his 6-year-old son, Douglas, to the Oregon and Washington Railway yard and, clasping the boy in his arms, ran before the locomotive of an approaching passenger train. The boy was instantly killed, the body being carried 100 yards.

The father was tossed aside with a broken leg and cut forehead and probably will recover. The family came to Seattle from Idaho last September and Johnson had repeatedly left his wife, always taking their boy with him. In October Johnson went to Montana, taking the boy. Three days ago he returned and sought a reconciliation.

This morning Mrs. Johnson told her husband that she had found employment and would not live again with him. When Johnson and the boy went away she begged the father to be good to Douglas. They went direct to the railway track.

SNEED'S HAT IN THE RING.

Texan Is Acquitted of Killing Father of Man Who Had Eloped With His Wife.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FT. WORTH (Tex.) Dec. 3.—J. B. Sneed was today found not guilty of the murder of Capt. Al. G. Boyce, Sr.

Sneed shot Boyce to death on January 13 in Ft. Worth soon after Sneed had returned from Winnipeg, Can., with his wife, with whom Al. G. Boyce, Jr., son of Capt. Boyce, had eloped.

Sneed alleged self-defense and also a conspiracy on the part of the Boyces to rob him of his wife. Al Boyce, Jr., was killed by Sneed in Amarillo September 14 last. Sneed will be tried on this charge in February.

The families involved in the two tragedies are well to do and have had prominent parts in the upbuilding of Texas. After the elopement Sneed spent $20,000 in a chase across the continent to find his wife.

Sneed's first trial on the charge of killing Capt. Boyce resulted in a disagreement.

The demonstration by Sneed and his attorneys over the verdict was spectacular. Walter Scott and W. P. McLean, Jr., defense lawyers, were fined for throwing their hats over the chandeliers in the courtroom.

Sneed emitted a cowboy yell, but the court refused to censure him or to fine him.

TO STAMP WORTHLESS BILLS.

Federal Grand Jury Recommends that Legislature Pass Law Governing Curio Store Dealers.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, Dec. 3.—The arrest of twenty-seven young men in the past year and a half in and near Seattle charged with passing worthless bank bills which they purchased from curio stores led to the Federal grand jury today adopting a memorial to the Legislature asking for the passage of a law requiring dealers in Confederate and other worthless bills to mark them. Three members of the next Legislature were called by the grand jury and they promised to introduce and advocate a measure requiring curio stores to stamp their antique currency "worthless."

MADISON (Wis.) Dec. 3.—An "arson trust," which is charged with having caused the destruction of $1,000,000 worth of property, has been discovered by Wisconsin State Fire Marshal Purtell he said today. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of several of the principal alleged offenders, most of whom the State officers said lived outside of Wisconsin. Investigation of a hotel fire in Waukesha last winter is said to have exposed the alleged offenders.

CONVICTS APPLAUD MOVIES.

Joliet Prisoners Laugh Like Children When as Reward of Merit They See Motion Pictures.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

JOLIET (Ill.) Dec. 3.—Convicts laughed and applauded like children today, when the first series of motion picture entertainments was given at the State prison by Warden Murphy. Two comedies and one Alpine scene were shown.

Only a few of the prisoners had seen a motion picture, many of the spectators being long term men who had spent years behind the bars before "little theaters" came into vogue.

Similar entertainments will be given weekly. Only prisoners with good records will be permitted to view the pictures. All films will be censored and none dealing with crime will be shown.

WHY TRUSTS ARE FORMED.

National Packing Company Organized to Negotiate Ninety Million Dollar Loan in New York.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 3.—The National Packing Company was formed in 1902 by Charles Armour. Edward Morris and Gustavus F. Swift in order to negotiate a loan from Kuhn, Loeb & Co., to meet an obligation of $8,000,000 due to the First National Bank of New York City, and total outstanding debts of $15,000,000, according to the argument made today by Ralph Crews of Chicago, counsel for the packers at the hearing of the State's suit to oust the St. Louis Pressed Beef and Provision Company and the Hammond Packing Company of St. Joseph, alleged to be parts of the National Packing Company.

Crews admitted that all the stock of the National Packing Company was purchased at the time of its formation by the Armour, Morris and Swift interests, but said the packers purchased as individuals.

Before the formation of the National, Crews stated, the Chicago packers had planned a $90,000,000 loan from Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and finally had decided on a $60,000,000 loan from Jacob Schiff, but Schiff refused at the last moment to grant the loan.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Denial of the recent report that Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt had promised an endowment of half a million dollars for the "big sisters" movement for the care of wayward and homeless girls, was made today by the "Big Sisters" organization.

It was declared that Mrs. Vanderbilt had been carrying almost the entire financial burden of the movement from its start, and that instead of expecting further large gifts from her, the "Big Sisters" proposed to obtain what further money was needed from other sources.

The action of the commissioners followed a conference of the Spokane officials to consider an investigation of the performance staged Friday night at the "Spokane Diggins," a reproduction of an early day mining camp, arranged for the entertainment of the delegates to the American Mining congress.

How to Make Better Cough Syrup than You Can Buy

A Family Supply, Saving $2 and Fully Guaranteed.

A full pint of cough syrup—as much as you could buy for $2.50—can easily be made at home. You will find nothing that takes hold of an obstinate cough more quickly, usually ending it inside of 24 hours. Excellent, too, for croup, whooping cough, sore lungs, asthma, hoarseness and other throat troubles.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, then add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

This is just laxative enough to help cure a cough. Also stimulates the appetite, which is usually upset by a cough. The taste is pleasant.

The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe is now used by thousands of housewives throughout the United States and Canada. The plan has been imitated, but the old successful formula has never been equaled.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Railroad Record.

DISSOLUTION CAUSES CHAOS.

Railroad Men Cannot Agree on Tentative Plan.

Union and Southern Pacific Consider Problem.

Officials Say Court Order Will Be Obeyed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Not even a tentative plan to divorce the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railways in conformity with the Supreme Court's dissolution order, was evolved at a protracted meeting of the Union Pacific executive committee today, according to Chairman Lovett of the Harriman lines.

Banking interests in the Harriman properties as represented by President Vanderlip of the National City bank, and Mortimer L. Schiff of Kuhn, Loeb and Company, attended the meeting, but declined to enter into any public discussion of the court's decree, except to say that the mandate would be carried out within the time prescribed.

CONTROL CENTRAL PACIFIC.

It is taken for granted that the conferees devoted much of their time to that part of the Supreme Court's decision wherein it is intimated that Union Pacific might so readjust its affairs as to retain control of Central Pacific. This part of the decree is almost the one crumb of comfort vouchsafed the Union Pacific, although it is realized that such a plan is sure to meet with strong opposition on the part of the independent Southern Pacific shareholders.

Steps in behalf of Southern Pacific stockholders were taken today when, according to announcement, a committee consisting of James N. Wallace, chairman; Henry Evans, J. and Albert Wiggin, was formed to protect the interests of the stock of the Southern Pacific Company in the hands of the public.

This committee, it was said, will "make further public announcement" of the stockholders.

INCREASES OFFICE COST.

A phase of the situation to which the high officials of the Harriman system are giving consideration, is the increased cost of administration, which even a technical dissolution of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific will involve.

Today's stock market was largely governed by the merger decision. Wall street seemed unable to arrive at a definite conception of the importance of the decree.

Bringing of Lower California Pearls Into This Country Nets Government Considerable Revenue.

Emilio Sandoval of this city, and his brother, Alfredo Sandoval of San Diego, owners of the International Fisheries Company, were fined $300 each by Judge Rudkin in the United States District Court yesterday. The money was paid.

The Sandovals were indicted by a Federal grand jury on three counts charging them with bringing pearls into the United States without the payment of the duty. On a plea of guilty to the first count, involving sixty pearls, the other two were dismissed.

It was charged by the government that the Sandovals received the pearls through Emilio Garnot, their representative at Mazatlan, who in turn gave them to Capt. Eladio Quevedo of the ship Manuel Herrerias, plying between Mexican ports and San Diego. Some time ago Capt. Quevada was fined $200 by Judge Wellborn. Garnot is outside the jurisdiction of the Federal government.

In presenting the case to Judge Rudkin it was stated in behalf of the Sandovals that the pearls had been sent to the what the divers had of Lower California of Magdelena Bay worthless, and had Angeles merely as a of the pearls to be waters. It was also Sandovals had only violation of law in stance and that it

DISSOLUTION CAUSES CHAOS.

Union and Southern Pacific Consider Problem.

Officials Say Court Order Will Be Obeyed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Not even a tentative plan to divorce the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railways in conformity with the Supreme Court's dissolution order, was evolved at a protracted meeting of the Union Pacific executive committee today, according to Chairman Lovett of the Harriman lines.

Banking interests in the Harriman properties as represented by President Vanderlip of the National City Bank, and Mortimer L. Schiff of Kuhn, Loeb and Company, attended the meeting, but declined to enter into any public discussion of the court's decree, except to say that the mandate would be carried out within the time prescribed.

CONTROL CENTRAL PACIFIC.

It is taken for granted that the directors devoted much of their time to that part of the Supreme Court's decree wherein it is intimated that the Union Pacific might so readjust its affairs as to retain control of Central Pacific. This part of the decree leaves almost the one crumb of comfort which softened the Union Pacific, although it is realized that such a plan is sure to meet with strong opposition on the part of the independent Southern Pacific shareholders.

Proxies in behalf of Southern Pacific stockholders were taken today by a committee, according to announcement, a committee consisting of James N. Wallace, chairman; Henry Evans, J. and Albert Wiggin, was formed to protect the interests of the stock of the Southern Pacific Company in the hands of the public.

The committee, it was said, will make no further public announcement" to the stockholders.

INCREASES OFFICE COST.

One phase of the situation to which the high officials of the Harriman lines are giving consideration, is the increased cost of administration, should even a technical dissolution of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific dissolve.

Today's stock market was largely governed by the merger decision. Wall street seemed unable to arrive at a definite conception of the immediate of the decree.

Emilio Sandoval of this city, and his brother, Alfredo Sandoval of San Diego, owners of the International Pearl Company, were fined $200 each by Judge Rudkin in the United States District Court yesterday. The fines was paid.

The Sandovals were indicted by a federal grand jury on three counts charging them with bringing pearls into the United States without the payment of the duty. On a plea of guilty to the first count, involving one pearl, the other two were dismissed.

In presenting the case to Judge Rudkin it was stated in behalf of the Sandovals that the pearls in question had been sent to them as samples of what the divers had found in the Gulf of Lower California, in the vicinity of Magdelena Bay; that they were worthless, and had been sent to Los Angeles merely as a specimen of some of the pearls to be found in these waters. It was also set out that the Sandovals had only been guilty of a violation of law in this single instance and that it was unintentional.

TO SENTENCE SMUGGLERS.

J. W. and T. G. McGarvin of Long Beach, will come before Federal Judge Rudkin for sentence this morning, following their plea of guilty to Chinese smuggling. Wong Wing, the Chinese claimed to be involved in the same enterprise, will have his trial begun at the same time. The alleged smuggling was that done by the launch America. Ray Ownbey and William Balluff, two of the crew, have already pleaded guilty and served County Jail sentences. D. A. McGarvin pleaded guilty and was fined $25. The prosecutors believe that Ed Carpenter, also charged with smuggling, will plead today.

IN FOREFRONT LAW LIBRARIES.

COUNTY INSTITUTION ONE OF BEST IN AMERICA.

By Acquisition of Twenty-nine Hundred Volumes It Takes Rank Among First Twenty—Nothing More Practical in Great Britain, Say Expert—Its Worth.

By the purchase yesterday of 2900 volumes of American statutory law, representing a value of approximately $9000, the Los Angeles County Law Library advances to a ranking with the twenty finest law libraries in the country. This is the statement made by F. E. Chipman, representing the Boston Book Company, from which the volumes were purchased.

There are already 1400 volumes of statutory American law in the library. The total collection, 4300, has no equal in the State. There will be 30,000 volumes in the library, after the new purchase arrives, the value of which is estimated by Chipman and Librarian Robinson at $75,000. To this Robinson adds $15,000 as the value of briefs and transcripts, making a total valuation of $90,000.

During the past year 3000 volumes have been added to the library, costing $12,000. The funds to purchase these are appropriated under State law from the filing fees of cases heard within each county. Among them are rare volumes that are never put in circulation, even on payment of the fee required of attorneys who wish to take books home for reference. Others are sought for. For example, there are lacking volumes 13 to 24 of the New Zealand reports, rare, which cannot now be procured.

"You have one of the best practical working libraries in the country here," said Chipman yesterday. "Among the big bar libraries on a par with it, or into whose class it may be said to have advanced, are the Social Law Library of Boston, the Baltimore Bar Library, the Philadelphia Law Association Library, the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Brooklyn and St. Louis law libraries, and the Chicago Law Institute.

"There are the university libraries, of course, which are fine. Those at Harvard, Columbia, Northwestern and Chicago are especially good. In New York, Boston and other places the bar associations have what are, in effect, private libraries, which should not be considered in the same category with yours.

"There is not a more practical working law library in Great Britain and Ireland than in this county. Some of them have a good deal of English and continental law, but not very much American. Yours is better than at Cambridge University. The books on American statutory law, pieced out by those ordered today, brings that collection up to the first twenty in this country."

Chipman has been with his company eighteen years and has traveled over most of the world. He shows a remarkable familiarity with the great libraries, which are mainly his headquarters when in any city. Librarian Robinson said yesterday a complete finding-list of the books under his care has been prepared and is about to go to the printer.

One of the features of the Los Angeles library is the collection of transcripts and records of cases on appeal, comprising about 75 per cent. of all such cases since the beginning of American jurisprudence in California. Only one other collection was better, that in San Francisco, which was largely wiped out by the fire. The collection in the State Library at Sacramento approaches it in perfection.

Private Citrus Estate Thrown Open

Haven't you always wanted an orange or lemon grove, providing you could get it under just the right conditions?

Here is just what you've been looking for.

The owners of the Sunny Slope Rancho, George H. and William S. Ennis, offer to sell a limited portion of their own private citrus estate, in order to develop the balance of their property. With QUALITY their aim, they have developed this ranch, not for promotion purposes, but for their own permanent investment.

They will sell you a young orange or lemon grove, and will agree to care for it, (if you desire it,) as a portion of their own estate. They will charge you your pro-rata cost, plus a small fee for management.

You realize that the amount of profit in oranges or lemons depends on the quality of your grove. A Sunny Slope grove will produce the highest quality of fruit for the following reasons:

The SOIL, WATER and FROST CONDITIONS are ABSOLUTELY PERFECT. We have "Sworn Statements" from the most successful fruit men regarding these essentials. The adjoining groves are concrete evidence of what may be expected. The PEDIGREED NURSERY STOCK, together with SCIENTIFIC CARE AND MANAGEMENT given the groves, mean the ultimate realization of the aim of the Ennis Brothers, which is to grow the fanciest oranges, lemons, and grapefruit on the market.

Sunny Slope has a most scenic location overlooking one of the largest and most beautiful cities in Southern California.

The original cost of these groves is no greater than the cost of the ordinary promotion schemed citrus proposition, but the profits will be far greater, because of the difference in quality.

Frankly now, if you could really be sure that you could get a young grove under such ideal conditions, wouldn't you be interested?

We realize that anyone can make strong statements in advertisements, but here is a property that is better than it's advertised.

You will appreciate our "Sworn Statements," which give only the absolute facts regarding this property. This is a personal typewritten document, sworn to before a Notary, and vastly different from the ordinary literature.

We especially invite investigation by experienced fruit men, also by the most conservative investors. PRATT SALES SERVICE, 709-710 Title Insurance Building. Phone F4271. Selling Agents for Sunny Slope Rancho.

"Standard Building" Stock Advances 20 Per Cent Within a Few Days

$100 invested now will show you $20 profit in a week, buying outright

$100 invested now will show you $200 profit in a week, buying on terms

And remember this point, Mr. Investor, this raise is backed by a real reason. It's simply a case of "have to:"—the assets behind this stock compel an advance.

Now then—let's figure a little. The price advances from 50 cents to 60 cents within a few days—that's 20%—$20 profit on every $100 you invest if you pay all cash. But suppose you make your money go further by paying only 10% down—5% per month. Then $100 will swing 2000 shares and the profit on a 10 cent advance on 2000 shares is just $200. $200 made in a week on a $100 investment.

Our prosperity compels this increase in price—and as we continue to make good watch for a further advance. You'll see "Standard" stock at $1.00 before long. There's a straight tip from the inside. Today we number nearly 800 stockholders and we own 3 big tracts in Los Angeles and one in San Diego.

Now as for our assets—what really stands behind this company. A half hour's investigation will tell you the whole story. We're run on the daylight plan, you know. Drop into our office—you'll see what the "Daylight Plan" means. Books, balance sheet, salary lists, tabulated assets, everything will be thrown wide open. Size up the whole proposition—then draw your own conclusions.

Our 2 Unique Features

Originated by us. 1. You can apply our stock on the purchase of any of the real estate owned and offered for sale by the company receiving full benefit of all value increase in the price of your stock. 2. If you buy a home from us you may at any time exchange your cash equity for fully paid-up stock in the company.

FOR SALE— Suburban Property.

FOR SALE—

THREE ACRES.

PANAMA ACRE TRACT.

Some nice bungalow homes already built close by and district growing by leaps and bounds. Gas, electricity and cars close by and water piped. Two corners of an acre and a half each.

$2300 FOR THE 3 ACRES.

One-fifth or more cash, balance any reasonable way covering two or three years' time. Near to and just west of Athens-on-the-Hill. An unusually fine and attractive investment opportunity, and a most beautiful site for a home, or, in fact, a number of homes.

It's on high ground, fine soil, the price is one-third the price recently offered for [illegible] age not far away, and I can show you how it happens.

We were fortunate in making a very low priced contract with owners who had held the land for about 25 years and we got a great snap. You're in on it if you step lively. The tract is nearly sold out.

WARREN F. M'GRATH,

211 South Hill street.

With Strong & Dickinson. Main 1272; 60125.

RAMONA ACRES.

Adjoining the

NEW "MIDWICK" COUNTRY CLUB.

Own one of these splendid acres. Build your home here and enjoy real California residence, away from the dust, noise and inconvenience of the crowded city, 20 minutes from First and Main sts. Gas, water, electricity, cement walks and curbs, graded and oiled streets and tree-lined parkways.

$750 AN ACRE AND UP.

EASY TERMS.

TO GO: Take car marked "Covina Line" in Pacific Electric Bldg., or anywhere on Main st. to First and get off at Garfield ave. Salesman will meet you there with automobile to show you the property. Or, come to this office for free transportation. Look for the big red sign on tract office. Our agent is on the tract from 8:30 a.m. until arrival of car leaving the city at 4 p.m.

FOR SALE—
CHEAPEST RANCH IN POMONA VALLEY.
The property here described has just been placed in my hands for immediate sale; believe here is the best ranch for the money now on the market in Pomona Valley. Located about four miles from Pomona. Condition of property, soil and water supply the best. The owner, a widow lady of means, owning considerable other real estate, with a view of relieving herself of the care incidental to running a ranch, has made the price so extremely low that the sale should be effected quickly. Only $32,000—one-half down, balance easy annual payments. Positively no trade considered. Consists of 15 acres in oranges, 10 acres about 10-year-old navels; 5 acres about 5-year navels and Valencias, in good condition; heavy crop now on the trees; 25 acres in alfalfa, good stand; 8 acres fine fruit or alfalfa land now vacant; 8 acres fine fruit or alfalfa land now vacant; 8 acres fine fruit or alfalfa land now vacant; 8 Improvements—modern 5-room bungalow, nearly new; good barn.
Water supply—Good well and pumping plant equipped with new 40-h.p. engine, throwing 75 inches water; also stock in irrigating company.
Anyone looking for a DECIDED BARGAIN in ranch property better see me at once.

FOR SALE—

DO NOT OVERLOOK THIS.

We have the exclusive sale of one of the most beautiful furnished apartment houses in the city. It is located in the best residential districts and is arranged in 2, 3 and 4-room apartments. It has a large lobby, sun parlor, amusement room, dining room and kitchen in the basement, servants' rooms, vacuum cleaning, hardwood floors in halls and rooms. The furniture and furnishings are the best that money can purchase. Oriental rugs in lobby and parlor. Lease is for ten years at $7 per room. This is a good business proposition and a delightful home. $10,000 will handle this house.

90-ROOM COMMERCIAL AND FAMILY HOTEL.

This hotel is located within 3 minutes' walk from Broadway. West side. Has a ground-floor lobby, elevator, steam heat, hot and cold running water in every room, a goodly number of private baths, high-grade furniture and an established trade that will net 20 per cent. on the investment. The present owner will prove this by his books. The lease is for 7 years at $2 less per room than anything in the same class in the city. If you are in the market I would like to show you this bargain.

BUREAU OF INFORMATION.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Morris Goldstein, Stand Up.

C. White Mortimer, British Vice-Consul, has been asked by Mrs. R. Spector of London, the locate her brother, Morris Goldstein, as she is very anxious to hear from him. He is requested to send his address to Mr. Mortimer. There are three men of this name in the city directory.

Library Association Meeting.

The Southern California Library Association will meet in Symphony Hall on Thursday morning. The address of welcome will be made by Mrs. Shelley Tolhurst; J. L. Wheeler will speak on "Public Libraries and the Business Man;" E. R. Perry, on "The Need of a Library Training School in Southern California."

Delegates to Convention.

The following have been appointed as delegates to represent the Chamber of Commerce at the Sixteenth Annual convention of the California Miners' Association, which is to convene in San Francisco December 9 to 11: H. Z. Osborne, J. F. Lucey, James Irving and Arthur G. Munn.

Lecture on Explosives.

James L. Taylor, special representative of the government bureau for the safe transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles, will lecture next Monday evening in Y.M.C.A. Hall on that subject. It is the function of the bureau to assist railway employees and others in obeying laws governing such transportation.

Great Library Circulation.

The report of the librarian of the Public Library, made last night, shows quite a remarkable record for the month of November. The circulation for the month was 94,797 volumes, as against 78,910 for the same month last year. The chief items in the detailed report were 22,621 volumes of English fiction and 10,782 volumes of English non-fiction. The biggest day of the month was 5929 volumes, the smallest, 2562.

Civil Service Examinations.

Examinations will be held for teachers in the Philippines, December 27 and 28; chemists for the Philippine service, December 30; Immigrant Inspector, qualified in the Finnish language, for Quebec, January 8; mechanical assistant in agricultural technology, in the Bureau of Plant Industry, and Laboratory Apprentice Department of Commerce and Labor, January 8. Information can be obtained from the Secretary of the Commission, this city.

Frankel Funeral.

Funeral services for Samuel Frankel, who died Sunday at his residence, No. 961 Elden avenue, will be held this morning at the Dexter-Samson undertaking parlors. The body will be cremated at Rosedale. Frankel was a retired merchant and a resident of Los Angeles county for sixty years, coming to this country from Bohemia at the age of 15. He leaves a widow, two sons, a daughter and two sisters.

Action Postponed.

The Vernon City Trustees, at their meeting yesterday afternoon, postponed action in regard to the Vernon Country Club until Saturday, when a special meeting will be held in order to determine whether Baron Long shall be allowed to keep the place open. A strong effort is being made to have it closed because of the number of persons killed and injured in automobile accidents while returning from there to the city.

Steers Him Wrong.

William Gibbs, a cowboy motion-picture actor for the Universal Film Company, was severely injured yesterday when he was dragged from his pony, sustaining a bad scalp wound and three fractured ribs. He was removed to the quarters of the company near Griffith Park. Gibbs was attempting to rope a steer in front of a motion picture camera when the animal became unmanageable and jerked vigorously at the lasso around its horns. Gibbs was unseated, and thrown with unusual force to the ground.

UNDERWRITERS MEET.

Officers of the Life Underwriters Association of Los Angeles were elected for the ensuing year at the annual meeting of the organization at Christopher's last night. Bishop Conaty was one of the pricipal speakers.

Frank E. McMullen, general agent of the Massachusetts Mutual, was elected president; Walter E. Webb, special agent, Pacific Mutual, first vice-president; Arthur P. Chipron, special agent, Equitable, second vice-president; William M. McClelland, special agent, Equitable, secretary.

McMullen was president of the National Association in 1907, and he organized the Rochester (N. Y.) branch.

In co-operation with the National Association the Los Angeles Underwriters have appointed a committee on publicity to carry on an educational campaign in 1913 through the medium of schools, universities and the public press.

POTATO PRICES REACH BOTTOM.

NO FURTHER DECLINES ARE EXPECTED HERE.

Market Is Over-Stocked and Decided Changes Are Not Looked for in the Near Future—Product Has Been Selling Cheaper Than in Year—Big Crops All Over.

Potato prices have apparently reached a low ebb and are not expected to decline any further this season. River stock has been weak, was quoted down about 10 to 15 cents per hundredweight only last week. This makes the present market jobbing rate 75 to 90 cents a hundredweight and in carload lots potatoes have sold as low as 65 cents a hundred.

The low prices will probably continue with slight variation for some time. A prominent dealer says that there are plenty of potatoes in the river section to last until about April.

At this rate potatoes promise to sell at a lower rate than for many years past during the winter months. They are now about 50 per cent. cheaper than they were last year at this time. The reason why the prices are not expected to go lower is because they are down so low that it hardly pays the growers to dig and sack the crop.

The production all over the country has been large and has prevented the making of shipments to outside points. It is estimated that the total crop of the United States is 414,289,000 bushels for the year as compared with 292,737,000 bushels last year and 389,195,000 bushels in 1909, the largest crop until this year.

The average farm price for this year's output has been correspondingly low—45.5 cents per bushel, as against 76.2 per bushel last year. The yield per acre all over the country has been more than thirty-one bushels higher than in 1911, and about eighteen higher than in 1910. The excess production in all sections has been quite a material factor in forcing prices down here, and in keeping them down.

Probably in sympathy with the lowering of prices on river potatoes Lompoc stock also declined about 10 cents on the hundred last week, so that the low jobbing rate now touches $1.40.

There is little difference in the onion market. Prices have been weak for several months, and will apparently continue to be. Declines of 5 cents a hundred occurred last week, and although some dealers were quoting their stock a little higher yesterday, this seems to be of little significance on the market as a whole. The supply is plentiful and the incoming shipments still maintain a very high average. Onions have been selling for less than half the price they brought last year at this time.

Although there has been a slight tendency toward an easing off in the onion market of late, there is apparently reason to believe that it will continue pretty firm, and advances are expected probably within a month or so. On the average beans are about 90 cents higher than they were at this season last year.

QUESTION OF JURISDICTION.

Whether an offender can be prosecuted and punished by the State authorities and subsequently prosecuted again by the government will be put up to Atty.-Gen. Wickersham for decision. The point came up yesterday at the arraignment of four Chinese in the United States District Court for having opium in their possession, an offense for which they had already been fined by the State. Judge Wellborn is on record as believing that one punishment is enough for one crime and Judge Rudkin is inclined to agree with him.

OLD MAN MUST TESTIFY.

Ambrosio Apapas, credited with 115 years on earth and with being the oldest man on the Coahuilla Reservation, must testify in the habeas corpus case instituted by the alleged slayers of Indian Agent Stanley. Judge Rudkin so decided yesterday, although the patriarch's deposition as to the alleged citizenship of the defendants was taken some months ago. The crux of the case is whether the Indians shall be tried in the Federal courts as wards of Uncle Sam or in the State courts as American citizens.

VOTERS, AROUSED, ROUT GOO-GOO GANGSTERS.

Unwept; Unsung.

VOTERS BURY LISSNER CHARTER TWO TO ONE.

Goo-Goo Clique Swept Off Their Feet by Landslide Against Municipal Freak—Would-Be Bosses Lose Their Own Precincts—Free Lunch Wins and San Pedro Goes Decisively Wet.

THE proposed new charter framed by the Lissner-Eddie clique was overwhelmingly defeated at the polls yesterday by a vote of 33,711 to 15,702 with eighteen of the 454 precincts in the city still to be heard from. The proposed ordinance abolishing free lunch lost by a vote of 31,939 to 15,052. San Pedro went wet by 272 votes.

The defeat of the Lissner-Brundige-Eddie concoction came like a bolt out of the blue to the Good Government and Bull Moose camps. In the opinion of close political observers, it sounds the deathknell of the Goo-Goo outfit in Los Angeles.

The vote cast against the evil creation came as a surprise even to the leading business and professional men who fought the vicious document during the strenuous pre-election days. The anti-charter leaders were in some doubt as to the ultimate outcome, but they never faltered in their fight to rid Los Angeles of the Lissner-Eddie pest. To the public-spirited men and women of the city belong the credit and glory for the smashing the iniquitous near-new charter.

The pro-charter leaders made a terrific fight to carry their pet "commission" plan and spent over $20,000 in desperate efforts to shove it through. Despite twenty automobiles, hundreds of paid workers and tons of literature extolling the alleged virtues of the proposed charter the voters of Los Angeles went to the polls and smashed it to a pulp.

GENERAL LANDSLIDE.

That the anti-charter sentiment was not confined to any particular section of the city is indicated by the returns. Of the vote in 432 precincts which were delivered to City Clerk Handley last night, only nine were found to have voted in favor of the Lissner-Eddie document. The strong Good Government and Bull Moose precincts voted against the charter, showing that the men and women of those organizations are beginning to see through the shams and hypocrisies of the alleged civic and moral "uplifters." The Socialists voted for the charter in large numbers, but even the united support of the clan failed to carry any of the precincts carried by Harriman in the last Mayoralty election.

The voters in Hollywood, San Pedro and Wilmington rolled up big majorities against the charter. The vote in Hollywood, which has always been looked upon as a Good Government stronghold, came as a surprise to the Lissner-Eddie outfit. San Pedro went against the charter by over 2 to 1.

VOTING IS LIGHT.

The women also voted in large number against the charter and scores of them labored all day as volunteers, passing out literature at the polling places in their efforts to defeat the scheme to gain absolute control of the municipal government.

The polls downtown presented the busiest scenes during the day, the heaviest vote coming in the outlying districts before 10 o'clock. Approximately 50,000 votes were cast out of a total registration of 166,000, or less than one-third of the entire vote of the city. The special and useless election cost the citizens and taxpayers of the city over $40,000.

The ordinance prohibiting the serving of free lunches in the saloons was defeated by almost as decisive a vote as that cast against the new charter. The liver and "hot dog" still reign supreme at the mahogany counters.

"NOTHING TO SAY," IS LISSNER'S COMMENT.

"I have nothing to say," was all Meyer Lissner could enunciate last night concerning the causes responsible for the overwhelming defeat of the proposed new charter. Lissner admitted that he had heard the fate of his pet scheme, but appeared peeved when asked what had contributed most to its defeat.

Dr. John R. Haynes, another one of the freeholders, at a late hour last night attributed the defeat of the proposed charter to fear of public ownership on the part of so-called big business. The activity of the liquor interests opposed to the adoption of the proposed charter and the interpretations placed on its various provisions by the press were responsible, to a large extent, he averred.

William F. Bryant advanced it as his

IN THE GOO-GOO STRONGHOLDS.

Guy Eddie's precinct, No. 6, cast 107 votes against the charter and 94 in its favor.

Dr. John R. Haynes, who was chairman of the Board of Freeholders that drafted the attempted charter, was repudiated by his own precinct, No. 410, by a vote of 73 to 54.

Harley W. Brundige, another member of the Board of Freeholders, was unable to carry his own precinct, No. 142, where the vote is 85 to 57 against the charter.

Meyer Lissner, also a Freeholder and who, with Haynes, was the power behind the throne, managed to scrape together 69 votes for the charter in precinct No. 120, where he lives. The vote against the charter here was 147.

In Mayor Alexander's precinct, No. 407, the charter lost by a vote of 150 to 85.

How a "Skied" Residence Gets Even.

This is the home of G. W. Smith, No. 349 North Vendome avenue, indicating the manner in which the landscape was cut away from in front of it to help make a fashionable residence section of the neighborhood and how a tentative checkmate was applied.

Votes' Verdict Victory.

"THE TIMES" THANKED FOR CHARTER'S DEFEAT.

W. G. THORPE, chairman of the League of Real or Personal Property Owners organized to conduct the fight against the charter, made the following statement last night:

"We wish to extend our most sincere thanks to The Times for the manner in which it has conducted the campaign and for the great good it has done the citizens and taxpayers generally by giving them true facts concerning the charter, and pointing out all its iniquities, thus making possible its defeat.

"The Times was one of the first to recognize the great danger to the city if the charter became a law, and one of the first in the field afgainst it. Too much cannot be said in thanks for the way in which it carried on the work.

"The Times, we believe, was instrumental more than any other one agency in bringing about the defeat of the measure. The whole city is deeply indebted to the newspaper.

"Our pleasure over the result of the election can scarcely find expression in words. We began our campaign almost at the eleventh hour, and at a time when, because of the ignorance of the people concerning the real intent of the charter, it seemed certain that the measure would carry.

"Taxpayers and citizens in general are to be congratulated and complimented for the good judgment they showed in voting as they did, for the result of this fight means much to every person in Los Angeles.

"While a light vote was cast, the majority shows overwhelmingly in favor of the people really ruling. Our voters also have shown that they believe in the principles of self-government, and that they are not willing to place the entire interests of the municipality in the hands of four unknown men.

"We realize there is a necessity for a new charter, as the old is inadequate, but it is vastly better than the one which was today voted down. We hope the business, professional and working men of the city will see to it that when the next charter is drawn it will be short and to the point, leaving out technicalities so far as possible, and giving to the people an instrument that will be just and equal to all concerned."

UP in Black Clouds.

DARK REVENGE FOR THE THEFT OF HIS SCENERY.

TO HAVE one's house forcibly removed from its setting is not entirely without precedent, even since the year of the big wind, but to have the setting removed from the house and the latter left high and dry, many feet above the surrounding topography, may be considered sufficiently unusual to justify a picturesque and crushing r-revenge against the authors of the landscape kidnaping.

At least so it appeared to G. W. Smith when he put up a large and flaring sign outside his near-stranded house at No. 349 North Vendome avenue, declaring it for sale "to negroes only." Located in what is planned to be made a fashionable residence section, the house became thus for vendue exclusively to members of the colord race only after a big chunk had been chopped out of the landscape in front of it, leaving the cottage perched fifteen feet above the street grade.

Smith is said to contend that the sole object in reducing the grade fifteen feet, by direct cut in the earth, was to enhance the value of certain adjacent real estate belonging to a local firm. He believes his own property has been damaged to a great extent by the work, because of its lofty position above the level of traffic.

The firm in question, it appears, owns enough lots in the block lying immediately north of Temple street, on Vendome, to represent a majority of property holders, and thus, by going through with the required legal procedure, to secure the desired changes in the thoroughfare, regardless of the wishes of the minority. This is what was done.

Smith objected strenuously to the cut in the street, but his objections availed nothing. He owns the only house in the block. The argument that if that particular neighborhood was beautified and made into one of the finer-residence districts of the city his lot would increase in value, did not appeal to him. Apparently he was of the belief that being so high above the street the cottage, which has been his home for several years, would be worth less, rather than more.

The evident intention of the majority holder of real estate to raise the value of surrounding land by bringing in people of the best class inspired Smith with an idea. He might not be able to control the mobile geography of the neighborhood, but he could dictate the kind of residents, at least in his own part of it.

Acting on the inspiration, he had the sign painted and erected. On Dillon avenue, immediately behind Smith's place, are five modest cottages owned by persons of moderate circumstances. It occurred to the latter that with negroes living at No. 349 Vendome the value of their property would decreashe.

INQUEST UNNECESSARY.

The Coroner's office decided yesterday to hold no inquest over the body of E. R. Dart, who was burned to death in his house, No. 4961 Pasadena avenue, late Monday afternoon. A certificate of accidental death was signed. The body is at the Bresee mortuary. Dart was a civil engineer and lived alone. A coal-oil lamp exploded. Dart was overcome by smoke when he ran into his bedroom to save some personal effects.

COUNCIL WHETS HEAVY BROADAX.

Civil Service Commission's Ordered Investigated.

Citizen Committee of Three to Wield Knife.

The Civil Service Commission, headed by Dr. John R. Haynes, is about to be investigated by a citizens' committee, in spite of a ruling by City Attorney Shenk, establishing the commission as a power unto itself and not amenable to Councilmanic suggestion. The Council disregarded this yesterday and voted for the investigation.

The Civil Service Commission has been called during the charter campaign the "bulwark of our liberties," but L. A. Gary, A. T. Stewart, F. A. Hoff, F. G. Whitney, J. Lynn Ryder and W. A. Loomis, signers of petition No. 2371, praying for an investigation of methods and inspiration back of the commission's work, are of the opinion that the bulwark is wobbly.

These petitioners are of an investigating turn of mind and want to find out, if possible, what makes the curious convolutions in the civil service midst. Councilman Topham was curious, too, and introduced his investigation resolution November 26. It came back yesterday morning with a report from the City Attorney to the general effect that Council is without any authority to direct or interfere with the commission's method of conducting its examinations, and that while Council may investigate until elephants are pink it has no power to direct or control the actions of the commission.

The issue is forced at this time because of the pertinent, or impertinent, questions asked by the petitioners relative to the exclusive rating of Paul J. Ost of San Francisco for the job of superintendent of the fire alarm and police telegraph bureau. Ost happened to be the only applicant out of eleven presumably competent experts who took the examination who came anywhere near satisfying the examining board and the commissioners that he is qualified for the position.

CHARGE GRAVE VIOLATION.

In the petition it is charged that the spirit of the civil service act was most flagrantly violated. The document then proceeds to demand an investigation as to whether or not this charge is founded on fact, and as to whether the methods employed were in reality prompted by ulterior motives inimical to the intended purpose of the statute.

As partial evidence supporting the assertion that the civil service board of examiners conducted the examination with a view of returning but one candidate previously selected and with the designed intent of assuming the prerogative of the Mayor and the City Council, the petitioners further represent that sixty points of the necessary 100 were rated after the board knew the identity of the candidates, and that the degree of efficiency and general fitness was so markedly in favor of the returned applicant and so unfavorable to the rejected applicants as to demand an official investigation.

The petitioners found difficulty in understanding how the general fitness rating could be so accurately established after an average interview with the candidate of fifteen minutes as to so impress the board with the abilities of the successful candidate that he was given a rating of 95 per cent, as against 50 per cent. to his nearest competitor.

These candidates who refuse to stay "put" also charge that practically 50 per cent. of the written questions called for an expression of personal opinion, thus placing an additional arbitrary power in the hands of the examiners. They can't restrain their curiosity to discover how it is, as they say, that at least three of the rejected candidates have previously passed practically the same examination with high averages, and yet with added years of experience are now derated.

Council asked the Civil Service Commission to exempt the office of superintendent of the fire alarm and police telegraph bureau, and the reply of Secretary Spalding of the commission contains the only attempt at a defense of the unusual result of the examination.

In refusing the request of Council, Spalding said that the examination was conducted by the board's examiner, F. M. Dee, assisted by Prof. C. L. Cory of the State University, and E. F. Scattergood, the questions being prepared by the latter. The examining committee consisted of Commissioner Stephens, C. E. Kolner, E. F. Scattergood and F. M. Dee, who participated in the oral examination, which Spalding says was practical and designed to secure the best service. Council then requested a legal opinion on the exemption request, and it appears that in this particular, as in all others, the Civil Service Commission is upon a pedestal practically beyond the reach of the men and women who foot the bills.

In his opinion the City Attorney says in effect that the exemption of the office is not inconsistent with the charter provision if it is made in accordance with the charter; namely, at the request of the head of the department, by order of the board and approved by Councilmanic resolution passed by a two-thirds vote of all its members, but the power of the commission to order such exemption is discretionary with that board, and its action in reference thereto (in this case a refusal) is not subject to supervision or revision by Council.

In the face of the City Attorney's

TODAY'S DEDICATION.

"The Times" Anniversary and Restoration—Public Celebration Today.

Opportunity will be given to the public to inspect the new Times Building today from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., and from 7:30 p.m. till 10 o'clock p.m., when the formal dedication will take place. The following is a general invitation for this affair of today:

"Anniversary and Restoration Day Celebration.

"The Times-Mirror Company (with accompanying appropriate salutations) has the honor to hand you this particular invitation to be present at the Dedication of The New Times Building on the fourth of December, 1912, day and evening, one or both."

TIMES' HOUSEWARMING.

The official opening of the new Times Building, erected on the self-same spot where stood the original structure, destroyed by dynamite and fire, October 1, 1910, began last night and will be continued today. It is expected that thousands of friends will visit the modern structure and inspect its various departments.

The entire building, from the roof to the sub-basement, will be open to the public, this afternoon and evening, as announced.

Last night numerous invited guests partook of a spread and enjoyed an informal reception. Gen. H. G. Otis, general manager and editor of The Times, and his associates received the guests and escorted them over the building.

Gen. Otis made a brief address, in which he referred to some of the principles upon which The Times had its bedrock foundation and thanked the friends of the proprietors and their associates for the hearty response to the invitations.

In the unavoidable absence of Rev. Dr. Robert J. Burdette, his address was read by George Burton, a member of The Times editorial staff.

GEYSER ON BROADWAY.

Workman Puts a Pick Through Water Main and Street Is Drowned in Twenty-foot Fountain.

Those who doubt the pressure in the Los Angeles water mains had an impressive object lesson, when yesterday they saw a geyser shoot suddenly out of a trench on Broadway, near the Mason Operahouse, after a workman for the Economic Gas Company had driven his pick through the iron pipe.

The spout came out at an angle, like the Fountain geyser in the Yellowstone Park, shooting twenty feet upward and eastward into the street. Vehicles were drenched; and for a time passengers in street cars experienced the odd sensation of a momentary summer shower, drumming on the roof and windows harder than any rainfall every beat down, as the cars were hastily shot through the water. Luckily, the stream was diffused enough not to shatter the windows.

Just as passersby had discovered a rainbow in the vapor, one of the workmen threw a board over the stream, spreading it fan-like on the horizontal and drenching eager persons craning their necks on the sidewalk. The men hurriedly threw up temporary dams in the trench on either side of the break, diverting the stream into the gutter. There it bubbled and muttered like the mud geysers in Firehole Basin, tossing gobs of clay out into the air and sweeping in a rush to the sewer inlet at Second and Broadway.

FORGETFUL BUT OBLIGING.

Man Who Can't Establish His Own Identity Acts as Purchasing Agent for Prisoner.

Police Judge Chambers, two desk sergeants, several patrol wagon men and half a dozen patrolmen tried in vain yesterday, in and out of court, to establish the identity of a man registered on the desk sergeant's blotter in one place as John McClain and in another as John McClellan.

He tried to identify himself—tried hard. But it wasn't in him, apparently. Not the identity, but the ability to give his own Bertillon. The more he tried to explain just who he is, and why, the more muddled he became, and the more perplexed those who were trying to solve the enigma with him.

In his examination the police apparently found a new species of miscreant, a composite of burglar, thief, pickpocket, drunk roller, yegg and plain vagrant.

Half an hour later, again hopelessly intoxicated, he was rearrested by Patrolman Childers. Searched by the desk sergeant, personal property claim checks belonging to three other prisoners were found in John's pockets. Also some personal effects of a prisoner named Baker.

"Baker gave me his ticket and told me to get him $5 worth of groceries," explained John.

"Baker evidently expects to pass the winter with us," mused the court.

"I bought him two mince pies, some tobacco, socks—"

"Lock him up for three days," ordered the court. "By that time he'll probably be sober and can establish his identity and give us some information as to how he came by Baker's belongings and the other property claim checks."

William L. Hubbard,

Shuttle.

CAGED BAILIFF NEW FINNEGAN.

WHOPPER WHIZZES FROM SKY TO EARTH AND BACK.

Two-Hundred-Pound Court Man Is Jailed in Runaway Elevator Whose Blame' Buttons Give Him Bad Half Hour as Automatic Contrivance Races All Over Shop.

Breaking the speed laws, tearing across intersections, running against traffic signals, reckless driving and operating an elevator without a license are a few of the law infractions that William L. Hubbard, clerk in Police Judge Rose's court at the Central Station, may have to answer to when the City Prosecutor's office gets the time, and shows an inclination to investigate the matter.

Hubbard weighs about 200 pounds. He has the habit of using an elevator, when possible, in preference to climbing a flight of stairs.

Yesterday he sought to patronize, unassisted, the automatic hoist at police headquarters. He tripped lightly into the case, closed the door and gently placed a stubby finger against button No. 2.

Up shot the elevator, and stopped at the second landing. Hubbard was in a quandary, as well as in the cage. He couldn't unlock the door for he had no key.

Hubbard pushed the button to descend. Down shot the hoist.

"Ouch!" said Hubbard when the cage struck bottom in the basement. His whole system was shaken by the jolt. The automatic machinery of the elevator system got a jolt also. The next moment it ascended of its own volition.

Then the lights in the cage went out. Hubbard was in inky darkness. He didn't have a match in his pockets, so he began to experiment with the push buttons in the hope of eventually stopping somewhere.

The more buttons Hubbard pushed the more rapidly did the cage race up and down the shaft, ignoring floor interestions and commands from jail officials to "stop 'er."

"Stop 'er yer self; I can't," yelled Hubbard from out of the darkened recesses of the car as he shot by the first floor where Jailer Shand stood.

"Jump when you hit the basement," roared Shand.

"Can't; ain't got a key to open the door," came the voice from the inside of the hoist as it raced up towards the roof again.

The jailer ran to the basement, opened the door to the evelator shaft, and when the cage ran down, jumped in before Hubbard had a chance to jump out.

Both men grunted when the cage struck the bottom, and before either could catch their breath, up went the cage. Before it descended again, some one closed the basement door. For ten minutes thereafter the cage was carrying more than 400 pounds of human beings up and down the shaft.

The more that Shand pushed one button and shoved another, Hubbard helping him as best he could, the more regularly did the cage run from the basement to the roof, and back again.

Finally Jailer Shand yelled to the crowd on the third floor:

"Shut off the juice, boys; shut 'er off quick; we can't stop 'er on the inside."

The elevator made three more round trips before a man could run to the basement engine-room and pull the plug. Then the car slowly settled to the basement. Jailer Shand unlocked the door and he and Hubbard walked out.

"Never again for me," said the court official as he slowly and laboriously climbed the stairs.

A New Account Every 3 Minutes

THIS is a recent remarkable record of the Security Trust & Savings Bank—to the best of our knowledge the most remarkable record ever made by any bank in this section.

Think of the significance of this fact—3481 new accounts in one month—over 91 a day—19½ an hour—practically one every three minutes.

It is the strongest tribute ever paid to the superior efficiency of any bank.

It has been under practically the same management for nearly a quarter of a century.

It makes no loans to any officer, director or employe.

It has total resources of over $47,000,000.

Capital and Reserve, $3,300,000.

4% Interest on Term Accounts
3% On Ordinary Savings Accounts

EACH MAN HIS OWN ENTITY.

LIFE WORTH MORE THAN ALL WORLD'S BUSINESS.

Author of "In His Steps" Says That All the Industries of the Globe Are as Nothing Compared to the Value of the Soul of the Little Street Urchin.

The value of a human life was discussed by Dr. Charles M. Sheldon of Topeka, author of "In His Steps," at a meeting of the Men's Brotherhood in the Y.M.C.A. last evening.

This value cannot be measured in dollars and cents, he asserted, for even the ragged urchin in the gutter is worth more than all the commercial enterprises and industries of the universe.

"That wonderful picture, the Mona Lisa, which recently was stolen, gained its chief intrinsic value through the fact that it was the only one of its kind in the world," said the speaker. "That is just why every human being is so immensely valuable. He is the only one of his kind in the world.

"No two persons can make finger prints exactly alike. Just so can no two persons have personalities that are exactly alike. Since the beginning of time no man has lived with finger prints like mine. Since the world began no man has lived with a personality like mine. And so it is with every person.

"All the business and all the industries of the world are worth nothing as compared to a little child, no matter from what humble circumstances that child may spring. If I do not do my work, if you do not do your work, something will be lacking from the world.

"Common people is a term without meaning. There is no such thing. Every man here tonight is uncommon. Even if you feel discouraged now, life is infinitely worth while for what it holds for you in future. A regeneration is possible through the chemistry of God. The powers of development in every human being are so wonderful that no one can realize them. Each of us is a creature of infinite possibilities. There is unseen beauty and power in every life.

"Look upon the man who appears to be below your level not as he appears now, but as he may appear some, if he makes the most of powers Providence has given him. We cannot truly see ourselves or others except as we look through the eye of God.

"Help others; make the most of their lives. Look below the surface and try to realize the possibilities existing there. Help bring them to the surface. Induce a man to lead a Christian life. This will do more than anything else to bring out his personality, his individuality, and to lead him into ways of living that will result in his making the most of the powers that lie within."

BRAVERY RECOGNIZED.

Men Who Planned and Effected Capture of Dynamiter to Receive Medals—Commendation.

The prospective presentation of medals to Detective Sam Browne of the District Attorney's office, Detective Hosick of the city secret service, and Patrolman Fitzgerald is set forth in resolutions adopted yesterday by the Board of Supervisors to give official recognition to the courage of the men who were instrumental in the capture of the dynamiter, Carl Rudelbach, alias Warr, at the Central Police Station, November 19.

It is also resolved that the minutes of the meeting at which the men were recently of their experience with Rudelbach be sent to the Carnegie Hero Fund Committee without recommendation or comment, and that suitable copies of the resolution be presented to the other men engaged in Rudelbach's capture, who do not receive more substantial recognition. These are highly commended for their courage.

The committee that drafted the resolutions was made up of Distributy. Fredericks and Supervisors Neilis and Butler. Nellis said yesterday that he and Butler favor the presentation to Browne, Hosick and Fitzgerald of a sum ranging from $500 to $1000 each. Other members of the board, however, made the objection that there "wouldn't be anywhere to stop," in awarding the emolument, and the plan received its quietus.

The resolutions give credit to Hosick and Browne for the planning and execution of the final coup, applauding Fitzgerald's ready co-operation as he realized what has happening. The inscription to be placed on the medals of Browne and Hosick reads: "Presented to Samuel Browne and James Hosick for brilliancy and courage in planning for, and risking their lives in executing, the capture of Carl Warr, dynamite fiend, at the police station in the City of Los Angeles, the nineteenth day of November, 1912." The inscription for Fitzgerald's medal will be mainly the same, differing, however, in that it says: "—for bravery in assisting Samuel Browne and James Hosick in the capture of Carl Warr ——," etc.

Beau Brummel Bandit Who Assaults Two Men Believed to Be One Who Shot Chauffeur.

The well-dressed, kid-gloved, gentlemanly highwayman who shot and robbed Edward W. Daneler in the latter's taxi Sunday night at Manchester Place and Figueroa street, is suspected by police detectives of being the man who assaulted and attempted to rob C. C. Gilner of No. 443 Vernon street and Abraham Harris of No. 907 West Forty-seventh street, Monday night.

The description given by the three victims of their assailant tallies closely, answering well the Sunday-night bandit. He is described as about 35 years old, 5 feet 8 inches tall, weight about 160 pounds, is fashionably dressed, wears a derby hat, kid gloves, well-polished shoes and black mustache.

Gilner says he was attacked about midnight near Vernon and Crocker streets. He shouted for help when commanded to hold up his hands, and the highwayman struck him and ran. In front of his own home Harris was halted by a slap in the face. The blow was evidently intended to render Harris unconscious. He gasped for breath and then called for help. The first cry the unmasked highwayman ran.

EACH MAN HIS OWN ENTITY.

LIFE WORTH MORE THAN ALL WORLD'S BUSINESS.

Author of "In His Steps" Says That All the Industries of the Globe Are as Nothing Compared to the Value of the Soul of the Gutter Urchin.

The value of a human life was discussed by Dr. Charles M. Sheldon of Topeka, author of "In His Steps," at a meeting of the Men's Brotherhood of the Y.M.C.A. last evening.

This value cannot be measured in dollars and cents, he asserted, for even the ragged urchin in the gutter is worth more than all the commercial enterprises and industries of the country.

"That wonderful picture, the Mona Lisa, which recently was stolen, had its chief intrinsic value through the fact that it was the only one of its kind in the world," said the speaker. "That is just why every human being is so immensely valuable. He is the only one of his kind in the world.

"No two persons can make finger prints exactly alike. Just so can no two persons have personalities that are exactly alike. Since the beginning of time no man has lived with finger prints like mine. Since the world began no man has lived with a personality like mine. And so it is with every one.

"All the business and all the industries of the world are worth nothing as compared to a little child, no matter from what humble circumstances that child may spring. If I do not do my work, if you do not do your work, something will be lacking in the world.

"Common people is a term without meaning. There is no such thing. Every man here tonight is uncommon. Even if you feel discouraged life is infinitely worth while for what it holds for you in future. A regeneration is possible through the ministry of God. The powers of development in every human being are wonderful that no one can realize. Each of us is a creature of infinite possibilities. There is unseen energy and power in every life.

"Look upon the man who appears to be below your level not as he appears now, but as he may appear if he makes the most of powers which science has given him. We cannot truly see ourselves or others except as we look through the eye of God.

"Help others; make the most of your lives. Look below the surface and try to realize the possibilities existing there. Help bring them to the front. Induce a man to lead a Christian life. This will do more than anything else to bring out his personality, his individuality, and to lead him into ways of living that will result in his making the most of the powers that lie within."

VERY RECOGNIZED.

The prospective presentation of medals to Detective Sam Browne of the District Attorney's office, Detective Hosick of the city secret service, and Patrolman Fitzgerald is set forth in resolutions adopted yesterday by the Board of Supervisors to give official recognition to the courage of the men who were instrumental in the capture of the dynamiter, Carl Delmach, alias Warr, at the Central police station, November 19.

It is also resolved that the minutes of the meeting at which the men recently of their experience with Delmach be sent to the Carnegie Hero Fund Committee without recommendation or comment, and that suitable copies of the resolution be presented to the other men engaged in Delmach's capture, who do not receive more substantial recognition. They are highly commended for their courage.

The committee that drafted the resolutions was made up of Dist.-Atty. Fredericks and Supervisors Nelson and Butler. Nellis said yesterday that he and Butler favor the presentation to Browne, Hosick and Fitzgerald of a sum ranging from $500 to $1000 each. Other members of the board, however, made the objection that there "wouldn't be anywhere near enough" in awarding the emolument, and the plan received its quietus.

The resolutions give credit to Hosick and Browne for the planning and execution of the final coup, applaud Fitzgerald's ready co-operation when he realized what has happening. The inscription to be placed on the medals of Browne and Hosick reads: "Presented to Samuel Browne and Jeremiah Hosick for brilliancy and courage in planning for, and risking their lives in executing, the capture of Carl Delmach, dynamite fiend, at the police station in the City of Los Angeles, the 19th day of November, 1912." The inscription for Fitzgerald's medal will be mainly the same, differing, however, in that it says: "—— bravery in assisting Samuel Browne and James Hosick in the capture of Carl Warr ——," etc.

AND RUNS AWAY.

Dare-devil Brummel Bandit Who Assaulted Two Men Believed to Be One Who Shot Chauffeur.

A well-dressed, kid-gloved, gentlemanly highwayman who shot and killed Edward W. Daneler in the latter's car last Sunday night at Manchester avenue and Figueroa street, is suspected by police detectives of being the man who assaulted and attempted to rob C. Gilner of No. 442 Vernon avenue and Abraham Harris of No. 907 West Forty-seventh street, Monday night.

The description given by the three victims of their assailant tallies closely, covering well the Sunday-night bandit. He is described as about 35 years old, 5 feet 8 inches tall, weight about 160 pounds, is fashionably dressed, wears a derby hat, kid gloves, polished shoes and black mustache.

Harris says he was attacked about 10 o'clock near Vernon and Crocker streets. He shouted for help when ordered to hold up his hands, and the highwayman struck him and ran. Gilner, out of his own home Harris was felled by a slap in the face. The blow was evidently intended to render him unconscious. He gasped for breath and then called for help. Get Your Stomach Under Perfect Control

Instant Relief for Indigestion and Stomach Troubles, May Be Relied Upon by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is no occasion to suffer from indigestion or any similar stomach trouble when you can so easily get Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is scarcely a well stocked drug or general store in the United States but what considers these tablets part of their staple stock.

You Can Travel Anywhere and Eat Anything They Serve, If You Have Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets With You.

Millions are used every year—and when every other man or woman you meet recommends them to you if you will but inquire—why do you continue to suffer from stomach trouble?

The reasons why Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are such a widely used remedy are very easy to understand. These tablets contain almost the same elements as the gastric juices of the stomach. And when your stomach is sick and not working just right, it does not give out enough of the natural digestive juices to properly take care of the food you eat. So if you will only give the stomach a little help by using a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet after meals you will relieve the stomach of its chief duty and allow it the rest it needs to recuperate. One grain of the active principle in a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet digests 3000 grains of food, whether you place it in a glass jar with cooked food or in your stomach after you have eaten the food.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and once you try them you will never again wonder what to do for a disordered, weak, sour, gassy stomach—50 cents a box—[Advertisement.

opinion that the Civil Service Commission is not amenable to investigation the Topham resolution prevailed by a vote of six to two, Councilmen Whitsett and Lusk voting in the negative. Councilman Reed voted for the investigation but took occasion to defend the commission and the successful applicant. In this defense Reed declares that he has noticed what seems to be an inclination on the part of public officials to embarrass the civil service and "suspects that it comes from a desire on the part of public officials to dispense the patronage of political appointments. Civil service in this city," he says, "has been almost starved into inactivity by the refusal of the Council to allow it money to carry on its work."

It is not known just what may result from the investigation to be made by the Citizens' Committee of Three to be appointed by the president of the Council. The committee will certainly delve into the details of the examination for the fire alarm bureau chief, a position which involves the handling of $500,000 during the next five years, and will also take up other matters in connection with the operation of the Civil Service Commission which may be brought to its attention. If irregularities are found, the seat of the trouble may be reached by way of a grand jury investigation.

ESPEE SUITS AGAIN.

Charles R. Lewers of San Francisco, representing the Southern Pacific Railway, reached Los Angeles yesterday to be present at the taking of evidence for the defense in the action brought by the government against the railroad company to invalidate certain patents to supposed oil lands in the Elk Hills country, which begins today before Special Commissioner Longley in the International Bank building. The examination of witnesses, about sixty in number, will continue about two weeks.

SICK WIFE'S APPETITE.

Although R. C. Lane of Elizabeth Lake, said he had bagged the birds as food for his sick wife, Justice Reeve fined him $25 yesterday for having in his possession a dozen quail out of season. The court stated that the bag looked more like provision for a hotel than for a single invalid.

SOCIETY

Miss Marian Winston,

COMPLIMENTING Miss Marjorie Ramsay, who made her first formal bow to society Friday last at an elaborate ball given by her mother, Mrs. William E. Ramsay of Western avenue, at the Alexandria, Mr. and Mrs. E. Avery McCarthy gave a dinner and dance last evening at their winter home, No. 457 Norton avenue. About a dozen couples were bidden. The home was enlivened with quantities of Scotch bloom and ferns.

Pleasant Motor Trip.

A motor trip of ten weeks has just been concluded by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Knight Hindge, who traveled eastward for the football season. They visited at the home of the Misses Marian and Florence Shimer of Milton, Pa., and also passed some time with Miss Hazel Myers of Asland, O. The three young women will be remembered as maids at the Hole-Ridge wedding.

Sewing Club Honored.

Mrs. Woodbury C. Pennell, No. 2726 Harvard boulevard, entertained with a luncheon recently, having as guests members of a sewing club to which she belongs. Fancy cards marked covers for Mrs. Willard Kennedy, Mrs. C. Davis, Mrs. Leland Weeks, Mrs. Delos Castle, Mrs. Karl Fishburn, Miss Ethel Joyce, Miss Ada Grove, Miss Geneva Tuthill, Miss Ethel Olson and Miss Helen Mack.

Miss Marcher Entertains.

Sixty young persons responded to invitations extended by Miss Berenice Marcher for a dancing party last evening at her new home, No. 1527 Fourth avenue. The drawing-room was elaborate with pink carnations and ferns, while a yellow scheme prevailed in the dining-room, where hundreds of shaggy yellow chrysthemums were effective. Miss Marcher was assisted in entertaining by the Misses Helen Judson, Florence Howard, Henderson, Cora Bloetcher, Juanita Lane, Stella Lane, Mrs. Bluebell Drew, Mrs. Allington Hemming and Mrs. H. Gordon Bayless.

At the Rex Arms.

Mrs. T. Billington, who has been visiting at Arrowhead for some time, has returned to this city and is domiciled at the Rex Arms.

To Issue Invitations.

Mrs. Dan Murphy, No. 2076 West Adams street, will issue invitations in the near future for a tea party to be given the afternoon of the 17th inst.

Home from Orient.

Mrs. Walter B. Cline and her daughters, the Misses Alice and Constance, have returned to their home at Adams and Figueroa streets after a month's trip to the Orient. Miss Helen Montague accompanied them on the journey.

Invitations Extended.

Capt. Adolphus de G. Sutton, R. N. and Mrs. Sutton, No. 1203 Fourth avenue, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss May Godfrey Sutton to Thomas Clarke Bundy. The service will be read the evening of the 11 inst. in Christ Episcopal Church.

Wedding Announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Forthmann formally announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Nora to Charles A. Meyer. The service was read by Rev. Father Glass last Saturday in St. Vincent's Church.

Afternoon Musicale.

The Misses Hilda and Viona Nolte presided last Sunday at an afternoon musicale given at their home, No. 1623 Cherry street. The affair was enjoyed by friends from this city and out of town. The programme was presented by Miss Hilda Nolte, Mrs. Alberta Janson and Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Robinson.

Johnson-Crawford Wedding.

Miss Anna Johnson and P. M. Crawford were united in marriage Thanksgiving evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Johnson, No. 2729 San Marino street. Rev. J. M. Schaede of the Pico Heights Congregational Church performed the ceremony. Miss Johnson was attired in white charmeuse with trimmings of pearl. This was made en-train and veiled with chiffon. A bouquet of lily of the valley completed her attractive attire.

Miss Minnie Johnson assisted her sister as maid of honor and was attired in white and gold embroidered farquisette made over apricot messaline. She carried an arm cluster of Killarney roses. Frank Johnson was best man. Miss Ruth Johnson and Miss Postma rendered a musical programme during the service. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford will pass their honeymoon in San Diego and on their return will occupy their home in the Eagle Rock Valley.

Mrs. Beswick Honored.

Mrs. Gertrude Beswick was the honored guest Tuesday evening at a reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Everett R. Perry, No. 720 Kingsley drive. Mrs. Beswick was greeted by many friends, who expressed pleasure in welcoming her home from Germany, where she passed the summer with Mme. Schumann Heink.

Betrothal Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hawks, formerly of this city, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Edith Mildred, to Raymond M. Strassel of Louisville, Ky. The wedding will be an event of early January.

Another Reception.

Another reception and tea will be given this month by Mrs. William A. Spalding and the Misses Spalding, No. 134 North Gates street, who will entertain at the Friday Morning Clubhouse. The guests will be entertained next Monday afternoon, and Mrs. William Dennison Spalding will be the complimented guest. The hours will be from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Stag Minstrels.

The members of the Stag Minstrel Club gave an interesting entertainment last evening at the home of Percy Halbriter, No. 501 Kingsley drive. During the first part of the evening the guests were regaled by song and dance skits, which will be put on by various members of the club at the first regular minstrel entertainment of the club, to be given at the Gamut Clubhouse the evening of the 12th inst. The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing.

The guests included Mrs. Herbert Newhouse, Mrs. John Reynolds, Miss Eva Bragg, Miss Alma Flemming, Miss Ruth Grant, Miss Ruth Holmes, Miss Edith Gillette, Miss Lucielle Gillette, Miss Rowena Lehman, Miss Gertrude Cornell, Miss Ethel Forsythe, Mrs. Hal Holland, Miss Averill; Messrs. Ralph Young, Herbert Newhouse, John Reynolds, Frank Reynolds, Charles Reynolds, Arthur Gillette, Wesley Ruggles, Lawrence Flatau, Fay Halbriter, Walter Ogden, Roy Miller, Alden McBride, Hal Holland; George Whitman, Ben Rooks, Harry Chamberlin, Richard Alter and Thomas Donahue.

Woman's Athletic Club.

Since the Woman's Athletic Club opened its new rooms in the Los Angeles Investment building, many membership applications have been received. It has been found necessary to maintain daily office hours to meet the inquiries regarding the plans of the club and the regulations governing membership applications.

The consummation of the plans for the erection of the club building on the Hill-street lots has evoked interest in women who desire membership in a centrally located club with the same appointments and conveniences exclusively for women that the most exclusive clubman enjoys. The officers of the Woman's Athletic Club are confident the membership roll at the time of opening the club's own building will be in excess of all anticipations as to the number in the club at the time it was first organized.

WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY SYDNEY FORD.

Mrs. Willoughby Rodman has returned from her fourteen-months' journey round the world brimful of ideas—ideas for the civic and commercial betterment of Los Angeles. Yesterday morning she held the unwavering attention of as many women as could possibly crowd into the committee-room of the Chamber of Commerce, while she told the Civic Association, of which she is ex-president, about the world as she saw it. In the beginning she reiterated the sentiment of most globe trotters that the best part of the trip is the getting home and her final words—after an address that occupied nearly an hour and a half—were of the same import.

"I just love Los Angeles more than ever," she declared, "but it might be improved. I just ached to bring back with me some of the civic improvements I saw abroad; let's tear down a lot of things and make a park right in the center of the city; we don't understand the commercial value of beauty as other nations do. Our pitiful little Sixth-street Park is the only one we have in the heart of the city. Over in the Orient they have big, open fields right in the middle of the city—in Calcutta and all the great cities in the Far East the play fields are not away out in the suburbs, but right in the center where everybody can get to them."

Brought a Barrel of Literature.

Mrs. Rodman says she brought home with her a barrel of literature, beside all her own ideas gathered from minute and detailed inspection of play grounds the world around. She went armed with a big government document, adorned with the seal of the great and glorious State of California, and this gave her open sesame everywhere. She had but to display this big, golden seal and gesticulate from it to her and, no matter what the language, color or state of mind of the foreign official, he immediately succumbed and threw down all bars and cut off all red tape.

She discovered that, in the eyes of foreign nations, there are two dominions in this country—the United States and California—and the latter has rather the best of it. In Kyoto she was the guest of the Governor of the province for a week and she came into close touch with the women of Japan—the educated women—one of whom is a graduate of Vassar and a teacher in Miss Denton's school at Kyoto; in Singapore she helped plan the equipment of a Roman Catholic school, spending two days in consultation with the priest at its head; she spent a month in Siam, where she saw the coronation of the King of Siam—a young man educated at Oxford and who, while he refused to follow former precedent by marrying all of his half-sisters, nevertheless was crowned with great eclat by his subjects; she described the wonderful pageant with 40,000 soldiers marching in review before the King, and the boats built like swans on the river, and all the oriental splendors attendant upon the crowning of a monarch. In order to witness this ceremony, the Rodmans endured the almost unbearable heat and the mosquitoes of Siam for four weeks waiting for the coronation date. But three Americans witnessed the unusual sight. Again in India at the Durbar they saw the coronation ceremonies for King George and Queen Mary.

Gems Big as Your Fist.

"The oriental splendor of a coronation display," said Mrs. Rodman, "is beyond anything of which America knows the beginning. I saw diamonds and rubies and emeralds as big as this," and she held up her fist, "and all real—not anything tawdry or tinsel about it. Everything was genuine. Our men in their plain, dark clothes, were blots on the landscape compared with the gorgeous and brilliant attire of the Indian men. The Durbar marked an important event in the life of the women of India who, for the first time in their history, came out in public to see the pageant. A special stand was built for the purpose and a gauze curtain suspended in front of it, and on this stand the women sat, with veiled faces, and beheld the gorgeous spectacle. Never before in India had such a thing been permitted. And they went a step further—the children were out in front of the stand openly seeing the King. This was a great forward move. In Japan I attended a banquet and was the only woman at the table with a company of thirty men. The Japanese women were there, but they never sit at table with their husbands."

Rode an Elephant Every Morning.

As the guest of a Maharajah in India, Mrs. Rodman took a regular morning constitutional on the back of an elephant; she visited Mandalay and sailed down the Irrawaddy River, and spent a day in a boys' school in Rangoon, and visited the Y.W.C.A. in Madras and saw the sun rise on Mt. Everest, and spent several days viewing the Taj Mahal, which she unhesitatingly declares the most perfect thing in the world. She was in Rome at Easter and had an audience with the Pope and walked in his garden; she was at Mentone at the carnival of flowers, and inspected the Montessori School and the Dalcroze Institute and—well, if there's anything in the wide world that Mrs. Rodman didn't see, just try to name it.

Her address was graphic and delightful from start to finish and she has come home so saturated with beauties abroad that she is bubbling over with enthusiasm to see Los Angeles take a long step forward till she reaches the front rank among the beautiful, as well as prosperous cities of the world.

Plymouth Church Bazaar.

The women of the Plymouth Congregational CHurch will have their annual supper and sale at the church, Twenty-first street and Lovelace avenue, on Thursday. Supper will be served at 6 and there will be an entertainment in the evening, a feature of which will be a humorous debate on the subject: "Resolved, That Santa Claus is an unnecessary evil."

State Tea at Y.W.C.A..

At the membership tea on Thursday afternoon at the Y.W.C.A., the guests will be segregated according to the States they represent and the State having the largest representation will be on the honor roll. At the committee tea on Friday afternoon, the various committees of the association will come together and exchange ideas and plans of work.

The Hermosa Club has adorned the foyer of the building with gorgeous red banners announcing their Christmas bazaar, which comes off on Thursday.

To Interest the Boys.

The women of the Union Avenue Methodist Church are planning a big bazaar and festival to come off the last three days of this week, beginning Thursday afternoon. Supper will be served at 6 o'clock on Thursday and Friday nights and a large number of Christmas gifts will be displayed for sale, the proceeds going to benefit the special work for boys being undertaken by the pastor, Rev. R. J. Coyne, who has established a reading room and library, which is open every evening.

THIS CITY IS MAGNET.

Attracts Retired Merchant, Who Passes Summers in London—Other Places Fail to Please.

"No place like it in the world," said John Bacon of London, yesterday who for years has been coming to this city for the winter. He is a guest at the Alexandria. He spoke of this city, its improvements and rapid strides in every direction and then told of the Los Angeles he knew fifteen years ago.

Bacon was for fifty-one years a dry goods merchant of Louisville, Ky., and in all of those years his establishment remained in the same spot. He retired nearly ten years ago and after touring the world decided on London and Los Angeles as the two cities for him.

"You may wonder why I chose London and compared it with Los Angeles," he said, "particularly since the two cities differ so widely in climate. I need cool and even cold summers to enjoy good health and I find them in London. Extremes of heat subject me to physical pain and I figure it is time to rest and enjoy life, so I have been traveling back and forth every year."

He told of his endeavor to make Florida take the place of California, of trips to the Riviera of Italy, to Egypt and other more out of the way places, and always a longing to get back to this city after having visited here one winter. "Some of these long trips I have cut in two to get here," he said.

EARLY MORNING BLAZE.

The residence of E. V. King, No. 1123 North Ardmore avenue, was damaged by fire shortly before 6 o'clock yesterday morning. The damage to the furniture was $500.

FIREMAN IS BURNED.

Frank McCormick, a member of Hose Company No. 3, sustained burns on the right hand yesterday while fighting a fire at No. 1606 East Twentieth street. The building was occupied by M. A. Green, who estimated his loss at $500. An overheated gas heater caused the blaze.

A BEAUTIFUL LOT, OR $650 CASH FOR A NAME FOR OUR TOWNSITE

Your Chance to Get a Most Substantial Christmas Gift. Contest Closes Dec. 18th. Awards to Be Made on Dec. 24th.

If you want a substantial Christmas Gift—a choice Lot in the most beautiful section suburban to Los Angeles—or $650 in cash should you prefer it,—send in your idea of what the name of this townsite should be.

Get it located firmly in your mind. Go and see it. Note its wonderful scenic beauty, its strategic position from a business and residential viewpoint, the richness of its soil, the wonderful view it commands—enjoy the delightfully pure air and the delicious "woodsy" smells, its picturesque canyons exhale.

Then put your ingenuity to work and suggest the name you think such a superb property ought to have. Use this Coupon, for unless you send your name in this way it will not be considered.

The Holmes-Walton Company have taken this unique method of finding just the right name for their tract on the beautiful Verdugo-La Crescenta Mesa. They are laying out, under the direction of competent landscape architects, a complete, ideally planned town—with a high class, carefully restricted business district, and a thoroughly protected, highly improved residence section.

The tract is being laid out in winding drives, with fine street work, parkings and sidewalks. Provision is being made to care for all parkings and all vacant lots so that the unsightly appearance of the ordinary, uncared-for tract can never exist. The town will have its own beautiful Club-house adjoining the Verdugo Boulevard. A splendid water system, with abundant water, is now being installed, as are electric lights.

This property is not yet on sale, so further details will be given later. But you must see it if you would appreciate its beauty and get the enthusiasm its picturesque sightliness will bring to the most cold-blooded city resident. Get this—and you'll be able to find a name to please you. If it pleases the Judges of this contest best—then you'll get the prize.

This committee of Judges will be made up of representative Los Angeles business men, whose names will appear in a later announcement. No contestant can send in more than one name, but of course every member of his family can participate, each sending a name. No person connected with the Holmes-Walton Company or interested in the property in question can participate in the contest. If more than one person selects the name chosen for the tract, all the successful ones will be notified, and the method of awarding the prize to one of their number will be determined by them. This means that just one prize will be given and that the prize will be awarded to just one person—positively the prize will not be divided in any way.

Contest will close December 18th. If your letter is postmarked on the 18th, it will be considered, even though it comes in several days after—but all letters must be mailed before midnight of December 18th.

Winner will be announced December 24th—for it is the idea to make the award as a Christmas Gift to the person who sends the name selected.

Here is the Townsite

AUTO ROUTE.

Take Sunset Boulevard to Vermont Avenue, thence North on Vermont, turning East on Los Feliz Road to Glendale, thence North on Glendale Avenue and Verdugo-La Canada Boulevard to the property.

Or you can go by North Broadway and San Fernando Road to Glendale, if you prefer. The property is located four miles North of Glendale, adjoining the Sparr Ranch.

Tract is distant 13½ miles from First and Broadway. Its average elevation is 1550 feet. To the North is the Sierra Madre Range, to the Southwest the beautiful Verdugo Mountains. The ocean is visible from several places on the tract.

How to get There! This property will soon have adequate car service. Just now you should go to Glendale by street car, then taking the Verdugo Park car to the end of the line, where an Auto Stage meets you. Get off at the Sparr Ranch.

To be considered, names must come to us on the Coupon—and in no other way. Do not write letters—just fill in the Coupon and mail it to us. CLIP THE COUPON NOW. Remember, your answer must be mailed on or before December 18th. See the property if you would select a name wisely—for remember, only one Coupon will be received from each contestant.

Builds Muscle and Tissue For Your Child

—Every mother should be well informed about the bread her children eat. The child can only get out of the bread the nourishment it contains.

—If you'll inform yourself about "Bradford's" you'll learn that it is made from flour rich in protein, gluten, and containing the highest percentage of nourishment. You'll learn that it is the cleanest bread you can buy, the most appetizing, and a bread that is made from the highest quality of materials.

Bradford's Cream Bread

BIEN JOLIE GRECIAN-TRECO

Demonstration

The well dressed woman is sure to appreciate the fashionable uncorseted effect obtained through the wearing of a Bien Jolie Grecian-Treco Corset.

Recommended by fashionable New York Modistes, because being almost boneless, the Grecian-Treco is as soft, pliable and comfortable as one's flesh—maintaining graceful figure lines without the least suggestion of rigidity. In every way a beautiful and healthful corset. Priced $3.50 to $10.

FACTS, FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN AND MEN BY OLIVE GRAY

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: A most efficacious a… cream for the complexion is made by a local beaut… cream contains no lanolin or other deleterious fat, … fore cause a growth of hair upon the face.

In a family all members of which believe in Santa Claus, they keep what they call a "Christmas ledger." The book is kept up throughout the year and each member of the family has a space in which he or she writes under title of "I've always wanted," the names of things which they would like to have.

Sometimes the articles noted down are surprisingly remote from what one would naturally suppose. For instance, there is mother's list: Instead of comprising such useful and prosaic articles as carpet sweepers, fireless dusters and vacuum cookers, it is therein transcribed that mother wishes theater tickets for cheerful plays about once a month; that she has always wanted" a pair of those silly embroidered Chinese slippers; that her heart yearns for a frivolous little ermine scarf; that she has always wished for enough joss sticks and other incense that she might keep such fire burning constantly in the living-room and in her own sleeping-apartment.

On the other hand, the younger daughter—surfeited perhaps with pretty things—"has always wanted" one of those double omelette pans of aluminum, to use for theater suppers; she yearns for a set of best steel tools to use in making odd furniture for her own room; and that a pair of high mountain boots would simply delight her, if placed in her Christmas stocking. One of the boys confesses to having "always wanted" a great pile of embroidered pillows for his couch; declares his desire for a real lamb's wool comfort for his bed, and a fur rug to place in front of his dresser. Another young man in the family has written legibly under the "always wanted" column, "a navy blanket for use in auto and on the beach;" "thermo bottle," "electric spot light," and "camera."

"Dad" was the last one to jot his wishes in the "always wanted" ledger, and finally he began to see the value of such a list and his list is most interesting. He has a fad and so it is easy for him to have "always wanted" at hand. His fad is trout fishing and his list runs: "One new quart flask to fit in his hip pocket ("saw handle flat and curved to the body" is an enlightning note under this item) one pair waders; one pair wool stockings; one gross hackle No. 2; one book (long and narrow with oiled leaves;) one gross mist colored flies for two flies." Upon suggestion from one of the girls that "Dad might as well attach a few leaves from a catalogue of trout fishing tackle" his list was here cut short. At anyhow, you see, do you not, to advantage of an "always wanted" list?

Useful Glove Certificates.

The manager of a high-class Broadway house showed me the new-fangled glove certificates which are the most tasteful I have ever seen. "Wouldn't you know," asked the lady who has this branch of the great store's activities in charge, "that these certificates came from ——'s even if you did not see the name? You'd know it just because they are so modestly elegant, with their gold monograms and their high quality of paper and envelopes" and she handled them with becoming pride.

When you come to think of it, what is better than a glove certificate? It attests your regard; it makes a truly useful gift and there is no false pride about the giving of such a present. You do not try to make the recipient feel that perhaps you may have paid more for your gift than did she for the one exchanged especially. The value is confessed when you have taken it for granted that the favored one knows what she wants better than you know it for yourself. And when the certificate is for glove by one of the known best and for such articles, you have only a quota to the value of your gift.

Boxed Candy.

One of the best confectionery places on Broadway has placed on sale certificates for candy. The certificates themselves are pretty and cheerful, and finished as they are with the dancing form of ye dear little whistler as well, you know. They couldn't help but him to a Christmas bird, just because you want to buy Christmas candy, could they? But anyhow, isn't a certificate of candy value better than a box of chocolates or fudges or "Turkish delights," received just when they have been overwhelmed with candy on account of a visit from that very far-away suitor? With the certificate snugly tucked away in your purse you can stop in any time, when the candy feeling comes over you, and you need not wait to count up your allowance and to cast up accounts as to how much you must save for the next wedding gift, or for anything.

Fun With the Tent's Contents.

If you are one of those who always wait until the last minute before buying gifts and then hustle around for just the daintiest pocket handkerchiefs, only to find that the stores are all gone, I hope you noticed the big display of the arrival of a new kind. It was one of the clever advertisements! There was a gay encampment made by tents made of snowy kerchiefs. And this was a hint of the beauty of the handkerchiefs themselves. After all the best patterns are gone and you must take what are left.

Would show them that a high-class store is one which has the most correct modes and materials as well as exceptional line of imported goods also sell at prices as low as possible, that exclusive women's wear on Broadway is holding its proper excellence, with prices

Handbags de Luxe.

De luxe in quality, in style and in faddishness is that line of new handbags at one of the big stores; but not de luxe in price. There are many strictly novel pieces such as a long, flat purse bag in turquoise leather, one of the pointed and plaited bags in royal purple, an Hussar bag with a long hand strap and side flaps like the Hussar harrersack, and an adorable little one in pin seal treated to a varnishing process which gives a most unique appearance. Any of these would make a fine gift for a girl or a woman and none is at all extravagant in price.

• •

Boxed Style.

Jabots are always an acceptable gift for women and some of the dry goods houses, recognizing this fact, have placed charming lace ones in gay boxes all be-ribboned and with cards attached, so that the man who has that gift-searching look will observe this all-ready-to-send gift and buy quickly as best suits him to do. He will be safe in such buying, too, for he will have chosen something for which the fair she will be grateful.

For the Bath.

A mother, who has taken me into her Christmas secrets is assembling for her daughter's gift everything luxurious for the bath. There are the best of bath salts in a big bold bottle, sachets with which to soften the water, powder to use when emerging, all kinds of fine soaps, toilet water, sponges, wash cloths, perfumes and the many articles and preparations needed or rather wanted in the making of a fine toilet. Many such things come under the head of the "have always wanted" with most persons, and when giving presents those are just the best kind to give.

Fashion's Frillery.

Bags of the coming season are to be much smaller and rectangular in shape. The cordelier is not in fashion now.

Combinations triumph in evening gowns. One side of the bodice will be cream tulle and the other of raspberry velvet.

Among the latest fashions in mantles and fur wraps, the three-quarter and short lengths seem to be most popular.

Curious embroideries and brocades of all styles and colors adorn furs, velvets, satins and the most delicate fabrics.

SKIN TROUBLE IN SPOTS OVER ARMS

Scratched, Then It Burned. Itched So Could Not Get Much Rest. Used Cuticura Remedies. In One Month Was Entirely Cured.

Kalilotus, Wash. — "My trouble commenced by itching in the joint of the elbow, caused by pimples. I scratched, then it burned. When I got warm, it was worse. It was in spots all over my arms. It was in sores, and itched so bad that I could not get much rest at all. I used everything I could think of, but got no relief till I found Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment.

"I washed my arms with Cuticura Soap twice a day, and then applied the Cuticura Ointment on a piece of cloth and put it on my arms and that gave me relief right away from that itching. I used two boxes of Cuticura Ointment, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Resolvent and in one month I was entirely cured. I have never been troubled since. It cured me and it will cure others. I also use Cuticura Ointment on my baby's head for the hair, and recommend it for sore hands." (Signed) Mrs. Lillie Goblet, Dec. 26, 1911.

If you wish a skin clear of pimples, blackheads and other annoying eruptions, hands soft and white, hair live and glossy, and scalp free from dandruff and itching, begin to-day the regular use of Cuticura Soap for the toilet, bath and shampoo, assisted by an occasional light application of Cuticura Ointment. No other method is so agreeable, so economical, and so often effective. Cuticura Soap (25c.) and Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

A WIDE WELCOME.

Now arrives in large numbers the freezing tourist from the frozen East. Back there the fields are white with snow and here they are white with bloom. It is the pleasure of California to light the welcome of its guests with winter roses.

THEY NEEDED IT.

Perhaps it is a good thing for Turkey that the armistice between itself and the Balkan allies is to endure for eight days. It will require about that long for the Turkish statesmen to read the list of demands which their combined conquerors have made.

IN NEED OF HELP.

Kansas has a school for brides with an enrollment of nearly 900 young women who are preparing to become good wives. The least the Legislature of that State can do for its bachelors is to provide them with military escorts or license them to carry arms.

GREATEST OF SCIENTISTS.

Women are all scientists, specializing biology. They study men and babies and they learn a lot more about them than the men and babies ever learn about women. The men and babies do not object. It is a fine thing to be preserved, if only as specimens.

OPPOSITION.

Nothing is so helpful as the thing that gets in the way. The goal is most apparent when most obscured. Opposition is a sort of hurdle calling out to a man, "You have only to leap me to be in the clear." It is really our enemies who cut out our work for us.

A NEW ARTICLE.

We never were quite sure what the new woman would lead us to. We now see that she has invented a new kind of ransomry or highway robbery. A fair brigand in the East caught the son of a certain rich man, married him and held him in hostage until his father put up $50,000 for his release. This is a very safe plan, as the young men can be returned to their homes and no questions asked.

WILL IT WORK?

One way to recall a Mayor is by not doing so. The stupidity and inefficiency of the present administration of Los Angeles require neither proof nor argument, but the recall as an extravagant public blunder is equally as obvious. It is too bad that so fair a city should be required to face the odium of either bad management or recall. We have one and we have had a narrow escape from the other. Is a word to the wise sufficient? Will the Mayor admit what all the public is ready to admit and step down and out in favor of some capable business executive and so spare the public any further share in his humiliation?

BEING NATURAL.

A lot of rot is preached nowadays about the regulation of marriage, the alleged need of more liberal divorce laws and freedom in love-making. All of this sort of thing is really not as bad as it is stupid. Eagles, ostriches and turtles for the most part live longer than men and are perfectly respectable monogamists. They do not complain about the marriage laws in order to spend half of their lives trying to get married and the other half in trying to get out of marriage. They mate once and that is for life. Perhaps they live long and prosper because they are so clean. If they have no morals they at least have no immorality. Men and women who love one another enough often become mates and when they do they stay married. Those who strain to establish a relationship which violates nature pay the price with heartaches and separation. Those who look before they leap have no quarrel with the laws of God or man with regard to the sacred institution of marriage. The cry of the libertines for liberty deceives nobody but themselves, and even they know they are lying.

NO OLD FIDDLES ALLOWED.

The Chicago Federation of Labor declines to accept any compromise of the fiddle question. Any member of it who makes his appearance in the orchestra with a Stradivarius, or a Cremona, or other violin which cannot have a union label, because the maker of it shuffled off this mortal coil several hundred years ago, will be fired from the federation. And any trombonist, flutist, bass violinist, or pounder of the big or little drum who is found guilty of being a member of the same orchestra with the Cremona man will be warned, and fined, and called a scab, and maybe dynamited if he persists in disregarding the orders of the federation.

When a possessor of a $750 Stradivarius was ordered to drop it he remonstrated, "How can I put a union label on it when the maker of it is dead?" said he. "You could not put one on if Strad were living," was the reply. It is a cardinal proposition of our grand labor union that no man shall be permitted to do a better job than another, and the superior workmanship of Stradivarius, and Amatis, and Cremona would cause their expulsion from the union.

"So lay down your fiddle and your bow,
Or out of the union you go."

The violinist had musical talent. He had also a family. So he gave way to a man from Peoria with a $3 union fiddle, and accepted employment as a white-winged sweeper of street garbage.

THE THIRTY-SECOND MILESTONE.

Thirty-one years ago the Los Angeles Times was born. The narrative of its growth and material prosperity in circulation, in patronage, and in all those things which go to make up a great journal has been told heretofore and is graphically retold in its extraordinary issue named "Nation-wide Free Industries Number of the Los Angeles Times, the foremost defender of the faith in the high cause of Industrial Freedom." The greater story of its life never has been and never can be told in words, yet it rests in the memories and thoughts of the hosts of men and women who read it, and who know, whether they agree with it in all things or not, that its views are honest views, fairly expressed, and that there is not money enough to buy nor influence enough to control it, nor power enough to menace it. Its course on all public questions has ever been taken without considering whether such course was or was not "popular;" whether it was in accordance with the clamor of the hour, or not. It has stood—

"For the right that needs assistance,
For the wrong that lacks resistance,
And the good that it can do."

It has unfailingly advocated reverence for the Constitution and obedience to the laws. For these it will ever stand, though the waves of popular clamor should roll and roar around it as the ocean roars around the stubborn rock.

It has opposed slavery in all its forms and oppression in all its aspects. It has never "bowed the knee to Baal." It concedes to all men what it demands from all men—the right to regulate its own affairs in its own way, always in accordance with the laws of the country. It claims for every employer the right to select his own workmen when they themselves are willing, without submission to the orders of any labor leader or any labor union, and to bargain for the services to be rendered with the workman himself and not with a walking delegate. It claims for the worker the right to labor, or to remain idle, as he chooses, and to work for such wage as he can fairly agree upon with his employer; the workman himself choosing his employer without dictation from anybody on earth.

The Times has not hesitated to condemn incompetent or dishonest public officers and to approve those who have shown themselves to be honest and competent. It has favored those laws and policies in nation, State and municipality that it believed to be for the best interests of the people. It takes a just pride in its achievements, and promises that what it has been in the past, that it will be in the future—only more so.

THE DEFEAT OF THE CHARTER.

It was no surprise, but a great gratification to The Times, that the pernicious city charter was defeated yesterday. For weeks The Times battled single-handed against it and had the pleasure of seeing the people become aroused to its dangers.

Clothed in all its ambiguities, with its concealed traps and jokers, with its numerous potentialities for evil, this proposed charter was the most audacious scheme for fastening a crushing grip on taxpayers that a rapacious political ring ever devised. If the charter had been carried, taxation for the support of grafters and loafers would have amounted to confiscation in many instances.

The Eddie-Brundige-Lissner ring, drunk with success and power, became too bold. They imagined vain things. Some of the gang actually thought they could convert the city's rooms to their own base personal uses. They were confident that they could delude the people into voting to perpetuate their control of the city by means of this power. But the people have seen a great light. The hypocrites are unmasked and undone. No, "you cannot fool all of the people all of the time." Yesterday's vote in Los Angeles is of great significance. It is the headlight of returning sanity.

The Eddie-Brundige-Lissner ring sought to carry the charter by advancing the argument for it that "The Times is against it—nuff sed." Their literature bore that slogan in black type.

Very well. Let it go at that. "Nuff sed!"

TROUBLE AMONG SUFFRAGETTES.

The National Woman's Suffrage Association has, by a vote of 371 to 38, exchanged the liberal purse, the brains and social and personal influence of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont for the oratory of Miss Jane Addams.

It has been the policy and the practice of the National Woman's Suffrage Association ever since its organization to have its officers maintain a non-partisan attitude toward political parties in States in which women had not received the right to vote. The wisdom of this policy was unquestionable. Advocacy of the candidate of one party by an officer of the association, or by one prominent in its councils, would, in the nature of things, tend to array voters of the other parties against the woman-suffrage movement. This rule of non-partisanship was laid down by Susan B. Anthony, one of the earliest and wisest of the leaders of the woman-suffrage movement. It was obeyed for forty-three years implicitly, until it was violated by Miss Jane Addams, who, although vice-president of the National Association, canvassed several States for Roosevelt. She did not carry them for the Bull Moose leader, but she did by her action succeed in defeating woman suffrage in those States.

It was proposed at the recent meeting of the association to make the rule which Miss Addams had violated a part of the constitution of the association. This was resented by the adherents of Miss Addams as a slap at her, and by a vote of 371 to 38 the amendment was voted down.

Mrs. Belmont then expressed her desire to withdraw from the association if she could do so gracefully. Her withdrawal would be a great loss to the finances of the movement. She has more than once rescued it from insolvency, and even after the vote indorsing Miss Addams Mrs. Belmont contributed $1000 toward paying its debt.

Miss Addams was not alone in trying to use the association for partisan purposes. Two Socialist members of the official board were shown to have sent out in the official literature of the association stickers urging support for Ettor and Giovannitti, the alleged murderers in the Lawrence, Mass., strike riots.

The political suffragists, under the lead of Miss Addams, seem to have steered their craft into troubled waters.

Phoenix-like in a Blaze of Glory.

STEALING CURRENCY AT PAR.

The brand new Chinese republic has adopted a currency system that is—as the Boston girl said of Niagara Falls—"simple, but sufficient." It is not in consonance with the higher ideals of republican government, but it is remarkably effective. The government details a company of soldiers to march up and down the business streets, and if an instance is adduced of a merchant, or any person, refusing to receive government currency at par he is arrested, marched to jail and incarcerated for his crime.

China is not the only country where the value of the currency sometimes cuts an important figure in determining the grade of crime. In the olden Territorial days of sun-kissed Arizona a thief extracted sixty dollars in national bank notes from the vest pocket of an inmate of a lodging house. The sleeping man awoke and chased the robber down street where both were taken into custody—one for grand larceny, the other for appearing on a public street clothed only in his chastity and an abbreviated undergarment.

The grand jury was in session, and the thief was indicted for grand larceny for "stealing, taking and carrying away" sixty dollars lawful money of the United States. If convicted the punishment might extend to fourteen years in the penitentiary. A young lawyer who was appointed to defend the prisoner raised the point that, while United States notes were a legal tender, national bank notes were not. That national bank notes were worth but 80 cents on the dollar in gold, which was the common currency in Arizona; that the $60 stolen was worth but $48, and as the amount taken was less than $50, the crime amounted only to petty larceny, the extreme penalty for which was six months in the County Jail.

The judge sneered at the plea and intimated that in the hour of the nation's peril a man who was not willing to steal national bank notes at par was a most disloyal citizen. But the jury disregarded the suggestion of the judge, and found the defendant guilty of petty larceny. He was sentenced to six months' imprisonment. After a week's confinement the sheriff put him at work on the county road. He was an inartistic shoveler and on the third day was run over by a mule team. He was sent to the County Hospital where, when he was partially recovered, he was made assistant to the cook. The cook sent him to the grocery store with $4 to buy butter. The grocery store was near the railroad depot and a train was just departing for Nogales. He used the $4 to buy a second-class ticket to the line and that was the last that was heard of him.

SAVE THE RED-HEADED MAN.

When the boat at the seaside resort was upset and its inmates were thrown into the water a rescue crew started from the pier to save those who were battling with the waves. A frantic man stood upon the stringpiece of the wharf and shouted, "Save the red-headed man; oh, save the red-headed man!" "Is he your brother or your father?" inquired a sympathetic bystander. "Oh, no, he is no relative," was the reply, "but he owes me eighty-six dollars."

Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg, who represents nominally the government, but actually the Rothschilds and their coadjutors in the Reichstag, made a speech on Monday last in which he frankly stated that Germany, like several other great powers, "was interested in preserving Turkey as a powerful economic factor." Sure. "Save the red-headed man, he owes me eighty-six dollars."

Roumania has taken no part in the conflict between the Balkan states and Turkey. She has contributed not a man, or a gun, or a dollar to help Bulgaria, or Servia, or Montenegro, or Greece in the conflict. But now that the fight is practically over Roumania demands a share in the partition of Turkey "as a reward for her neutrality." "Every Roumanian," say the dispatches, "feels that his country is entitled to claim some advantage as a result of the partition of Turkey. If these wishes are not satisfied Roumania will proceed with military intervention."

Against whom or in whose behalf the "military intervention" will proceed is not stated. If Roumania intervenes in behalf of Turkey and attacks the Balkan states because the Balkan states will not share with her the fruits of a conquest Roumania did not help to achieve she may, as a result, lose a portion of her own territory instead of gaining a portion of her neighbor's. As for "intervening" against Turkey now, it is too late. The Balkan states have won their fight without her and they will be apt to share the results without her.

The sympathies of the world on this side of the Atlantic are with the gallant Balkan states. They have practically smashed the half-civilized, inhuman, despotic government of the Sultan and driven it out of Europe. That, as a consequence, the billions of the money changers of London and Vienna and Berlin may be depleted is a result that will produce no anguish of mind on this side of the Atlantic. We do not in the least care whether the red-headed man shall be saved or not.

PRAYER IN COURT.

The woman jury in Kansas who began and concluded their deliberations with prayer reminds one of how Elder Snowberry won the case of Grimes vs. Snowberry before a Yankee justice of the peace. The evidence was in, and the attorney for the plaintiff had made his opening argument. "Your Honor," said Snowberry, "I am no orator like this young man. I am accustomed to speak only in prayer, and if Your Honor will permit me to address the Throne of Grace in your presence I think I can clear up some things in this case."

His Honor granted the needed permission. Elder Snowberry knelt, His Honor knelt, most of the spectators knelt; warning glances indicative of the course of public opinion compelled opposing counsel to kneel; and Elder Snowberry addressed the Lord of Hosts. "Thou knowest, Lord," said he, "that in this case the plaintiff Grimes has disregarded Thy teachings and violated Thy commandments. He has coveted his neighbor's goods and borne false witness against his neighbor. Thou knowest, O Lord, that in his efforts to despoil me he has, in the language of the ungodly, lied from soto to hoc. I pray Thee, O Lord, to defeat his evil purpose and inspire the heart of Thy servant who sittest upon the bench of justice to do justice in this case and send the iniquitous plaintiff spinning out of court like a cotton-tail rabbit before a faithful hound."

The "servant on the bench" was convinced by the prayer and gave judgment for Elder Snowberry.

SMALL GOVERNOR OF A BIG STATE.

[Brooklyn Eagle:] There is no Governor in any of the other States of this Union who loomed so large at the outset of the late canvass and who loomed so small at its close as this California Executive can be said to have done. Why, he even came to New York and had the nerve to tell our people to give his side a majority. Sardonically enough, our people gave to his side a bad third place, and a very bad pain in the little middle kingdom, which is getting no better very fast, all the time. In point of fact we believe Gov. Hiram Johnson was the first and the loudest of the Seven Governors who morally coerced Mr. Roosevelt to break his word and to run for a third term. Five of those Governors lost their States, and if six of them should be the number declared, Hiram W. Johnson is the sixth. Among all the upward sizzling rockets that illumed the sky he was the reddest, and among all the descending sticks that badly perfumed the atmosphere, he is the blackest and most malodorous.

THE ORDINANCE HABIT.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

This ordinance habit is really getting exciting. It is a game with endless possibilities. Why stop at smoking? Let's ordinance all our neighbors' bad habits out of him.

And let's start with the non-smoker. The average one of him is an awful prig. Smug, self-righteous, touchy, tiresome to a degree!

Now there must be quite a majority of us who are convinced that smoking is good for a man. Makes him more tolerant, kindly, sociable. Helps him to think things out calmly, to judge fairly, to do as he would be done by. Very well, then. Why not pass an ordinance enforcing smoking? Smoke is wholesome, smoke is pretty, the right kind smells good, and it can lend benignity to the meanest of men. And when you come to think of it, benignity is an urgently needed attribute. I would not stop at the men either. Positively nothing could have such a more improving effect upon some women I know than an occasional cigarette. Their virtue needs just that soupcon to make it palatable. Like the onion in the salad, you know! Virtue, like porridge, is an excellent thing, wholesome and desirable in every way, but it does need a little something to make it irresistible. Shenstone tells us that "the best cure for a bad woman is the society of a good one. And the reverse is also true." Well, I would not go as far as that, but possibly the cigarette, now . . .

But in any case, I am sure we should not let her chew gum. There is no woman good enough in all the world to be allowed to chew gum. Gum-chewing should have an "anti" ordinance right away. When I sit on a street car I hardly notice the sinful masculine smokers but I suffer agonies from the execrable female chewers. It exercises a ghastly fascination for me as I watch the revolting wad gyrate in those nasty mouths. It is the most nauseating thing I can think of—even spitting is no worse. Yet, believe me, it has never occurred to me that I had a right to complain. I honestly imagined that I was expected to put up with other people's little idiosyncrasies in view of the fact that I probably had a few of my own.

But now I know better. Why should I put up with anything I don't like? The non-smokers will taboo the smokers, the non-gum-chewers must taboo the gum-chewers. How dare such people frequent the street cars?

Then there are the candy-munchers. Nasty, greedy, disgusting habit. How dare people munch candy on the street cars to the discomfort and covetousness of other people? Candy is extremely bad for them, anyway. Likewise it is expensive, and if that money were put into something for her husband and family instead of being spent in such a useless, harmful, greedy manner there would be a good deal more happiness in the world. At least, I think there would.

I can truthfully say that the sight of a candy muncher distresses me miserably. Why should I be distressed in this way? Let's have an ordinance prohibiting candy munching on the cars.

Large hats are another objectionable habit. How can anyone be so selfish as to wear a large hat on a street car, taking up a good deal more than their just share of room, poking people in the eyes, shutting out nice fresh air, blocking the view and setting a very bad example to growing girls. Oh, it is horrible. Even as I write I can frame the most stringent ordinance against such things. And think of the awful waste of money. If only half that money went into socks and pajamas for hubby and the boys think how much pleasantter life would be—and healthier and cleaner and all that sort of thing.

And the parcel carriers. Oh, we must certainly prohibit the parcel carriers from using the street cars. Could anything be more trying to the non-parcel carriers than to be crowded on account of some other passenger's parcels? Why should we endure it? Some of us, people like me, never dream of carrying parcels. Nice methodical souls who do their shopping well in advance in order that it may be delivered in the proper manner. People who would shudder at the mere idea of carrying a parcel. Why should these unfortunates be forced to "move up" because some feckless individual prefers to do his or her shopping and carry the things home with him? Why should we put up with the smell of his horrid coffee, his strong cheese, his odorous fish as each and all of these emanate from his basket?

To a person recently dined, or too dyspeptic to dine, or too impecunious to dine, nothing could be more distressing than these same effluvia. Off with their heads—er, I mean, let's frame an ordinance!

While we are about it I feel sure we ought to prohibit babies from the street cars. Babies are a bad habit that quite a number of women indulge in, to the evident distress of other people. How dare they intrude their babies on the public street cars? To the lady who has never had and never wants a baby, thank you, to the bachelor of esthetic tastes, to the average "leader" of society, to many artists and quite a number of novelists, to a certain number of clubwomen and to the average theater proprietor babies are a genuine trial. Why should babies be inflicted upon them in the street cars? Babies are an expensive habit, too, and a very selfish one. Babies, your babies, can be no sort of pleasure or interest to the average fellow-traveler on the street cars. On the contrary. At the best he has to give you his seat and help you in and out; and at the worst—well, almost any mother who spoke honestly could a tragic tale unfold. Just because a few people happen to like babies it is no reason why all the other passengers should be called upon to suffer. For my part I have had my hat grabbed, my new white suit irrevocably stained, my pet lace jabot torn, my new white gloves ruined forever, my hair pulled, my purse thrown on the floor and various other distressing incidents in connection with other people's babies. Hitherto I have smiled bravely and pretended I liked it.

Never again!

We ordinance all that sort of thing out, nowadays.

HOW TO WORK ALL THE TIME.

My rules for being able to work all the time are:

Sleep all that is possible.
Get rid of all physical ills.
When one interest flags find a new one.
Always keep on hand a supply of motives or desires.
Never learn by a roundabout method what can be learned directly.
Never allow the mind to dwell on a subject that may not be useful.

The country will know just what an "unwieldy" majority is when that Democratic Congress, with a big surplus of votes, gets to work next year.

The friends of the public schools can hardly take the chance of their destruction by voting for the new city charter. Let the public schools alone.

We suggest that the next Congress open with a snatch of the well-known song, "We shall meet; but we shall miss him; there will be a vacant chair," etc.

Aguinaldo is again active since the election of Wilson. It is bringing all of the old insurrectos, both in the United States and elsewhere, out of their holes.

Another good thing that Col. Bryan has missed. He won't get a chance at that annual allowance of $25,000 given by Congress for the benefit of our ex-Presidents.

In only a distinctly unessential way has President Taft been defeated. How splendidly he is bearing himself! There is something big about a man who refuses to sulk.

Four of the alleged dynamiters on trial in Indianapolis have been released, but as there are forty-one still remaining there will be a carload for some perfectly good penitentiary.

A Presidential pension bill has been introduced into Congress. This is an improvement on the plan to make our ex-Presidents dependent on the swollen Congressional fortune.

With the action of President Taft in increasing the excepted classes in the government service a lot of "original Wilson men" will be knocked out. There won't be jobs enough to go around.

One billion dollars is the estimate of the cost of conducting the affairs of the country during the coming fiscal year. And it is worth all it costs the greatest nation that the sun shines on.

It has been discovered by archeologists that the high cost of living was a burning question in Theadelphia, a city in Egypt 1800 years ago, and that it had no President Taft to blame, either.

If Judge Rudkin should declare the Indians on the Coahuilla Reservation to be American citizens they will probably plume themselves in "the hands of their friends" for some of the offices in Riverside county.

Lessons in story-telling are given in Los Angeles. It is only by being carried back into the romantic, half-forgotten past that the imagination gets fair play. We are too prone to stuff the children's little heads with facts and to neglect the fancies. All these stories of the olden time, how they carry us back to the days when the world was young!

CALIFORNIA.

Lingers long in hope to gather e'en the dimmest little glow
Of thy Autumn's colors' splendor; of the ripple and the flow
Of thy limpid streamlets' wanderings; how to show to Eastern eyes
Half the glory of thy sunset, or the beauty of its rise.
To those lands beyond the Rockies, where King Blizzard holds his sway
I would waft an invitation from our fairest land today;
California's arms are open; Motherly breast is wide;
She can cradle all her children, and the Eastern sons beside.
Come, and warm your frozen fingers by the sunset fire's glow;

REAL VARIETY AT PANTAGES.

Show at Century Best Offered Thus Far by Manager Leowen. Specialty by Sis Mathews and New Costumes Features—Postponement of Opening.

A real variety bill is offered at Pantages Theater this week; one in which good music, lively acrobats, snappy song and dance teams and a comedy sketch have equal claim to lead the honors, and the vaudeville follower is sure to find more than one offering to hold his attention.

The three Kelcy sisters open the show with a dash, and one of them has some good Italian dialect songs. Yesterday's audience was what is commonly termed a dead one, but it simply had to come to life in spite of the shopping ennui, and those who were a bit slow about it at first, sat up and took notice when Charles and Madeline Dunbar tripped on with their "Animal Funology."

Charles, if one is to believe ones ears, is part dog and part cat, with a bit of cow on the side. Madeline essays a little kitten calling too, but she is far more feminine than feline. And then, right in the middle of the bill comes a music gem, the Philharmonic Four. They use a grand piano, harp and 'cello, and a first-class soprano. Their offerings range from "Mobile Bay" to a beautiful rendering of "The Rosary" on harp and 'cello, while the pianist doubles with the violin capitally.

The sketch is called "The Gold Cure." It is one of the "big time" sort, bristling with ludicrous situations. There is a little gown fitting scene, in which wife, husband, and hubby's friend, who is masquerading as a woman, appear, that is a scream. The Twin City Quartette renders a medley of songs, and the bill climaxes with the Ellis Nolan Troupe of acrobats in a hilarious comedy skit called "The Fire Fighters."

Century.

The big girl show at the Century this week is replete with surprises, and from every angle is the best production that Manager Leowen has staged thus far. It is all ginger, color and melody, and the big surprise is the debut of Sis Mathews as soubrette.

Miss Mathews attracted instant attention when she joined the company, and her work this week is more than justifying her selection to sing one of the song hits of the piece "Beautiful Doll, Good-by."

Second in the surprise line are the new costumes, just in from the East. They had been promised for some time, but now that they have actually arrived, they far surpass expectations, and make the big chorus doubly attractive.

Then there is Monte Carter, who as an English chappie, isn't a bit like his usual self. It is the first time he has had a chance to show his versatility, and he is making the most of it.

As usual, every song is a hit, but it remains for Vera Ransdale to lead Sis Mathews for first honors. Her "That Syncopated Boogie Boo," in chorus, clad in nighties, has not a note to do with making this song a genuine knockout.

NEWS NOTES.

The new Morosco Theater on Broadway will not open as previously announced on December 23. The fact was announced yesterday from the Morosco offices, when it was stated that the decorating would probably not be completed until after that date.

Although the house is now nearly finished, with the exception of the decorating, placing of seats and layings of carpets, etc., Manager Morosco has determined that the new house shall not be thrown open to local patronage until every last detail is absolutely finished, and this fact will probably delay the opening date for about two weeks.

It has just been discovered that Walter Edwards, who plays the role of Jim Joyce in "The Escape" at the Belasco Theater, is a playwright. Mr. Edwards is responsible for "The Sign of the Four," a version of the famous Sherlock Holmes stories, which is to be seen at the Lyceum Theater next Saturday afternoon, and which will serve for the first appearance of the leading man, Hirshall Mayall. Mr. Edwards wrote this version, which has been uncommonly successful, and Mayall starred in it in the East for two seasons. He is now lending his services to Manager Dick Ferris in this week personally conducting the rehearsals on the Lyceum stage.

William Faversham and his all-star company, including Frank Keenan, Tyrone Power, Julie Opp and other equally well known players in the mammoth revival of "Julius Cæsar," which has met with such success in New York City, is an early booking at the Majestic Theater.

The Sullivan and Considine actors of late have been of the most colossal proportions, this popular of vaudeville firm having within the last two weeks annexed a complete circuit of vaudeville theaters throughout the South.

Through the activity of General Manager Fred Lincoln, Memphis, Chattanooga, Little Rock, Houston, Fort Worth, Dallas and San Antonio have been added to the already long string of "S. & C." houses, while this firm has also taken a new house in Memphis and the Nixon-Wirdlinger houses in Philadelphia, and negotiations are now under way for new theaters in Pittsburgh, Wheeling and Wheeling, Pa.

The southern move is apparently to head off Martin Beck, who has recently announced his intentions of entering vaudeville into the South.

For the present season of "The Little Soldier" F. C. Whitney announces that he will send the comic opera to Mexico and South America, where it has not yet been heard and where one of his stars has succeeded in securing matinees to the extent of $100,000.

The Belasco company spent the greater part of yesterday doing the necessary pruning and fixing of "Marrying Bella," under the author's direction. This new comedy has been tested by the entire press a decided success. Although the players gave a very excellent performance of "Wedding Bella," last night, last night's performance was very much smoother, and safe to say—funnier.

ADVERTISING LECTURES.

Los Angeles Ad Club to Give a Course of Twelve at Y.M.C.A., Beginning Tonight.

The Advertising Club of Los Angeles will give the first of a series of twelve illustrated lectures on "Advertising," at the Y.M.C.A. auditorium tonight. These lectures are prepared by the educational committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America, and are intended to present not only a comprehensive review of advertising, but to be practical as an educative course. They will be given under the auspices of the local Ad Club and will be under the charge of its educational committee.

The lecture tonight is entitled "Preparing an Advertisement," and presents the subject from its structural side, its process, basis, purpose and action. The illustrations will consist of reproductions of advertising, together with a carefully prepared lecture by Gerald B. Wadsworth of New York City, who is president of the eastern division of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America.

CLOSING TESTIMONY.

Testimony in behalf of the government in the charge that the Rindge heirs violated a United States court injunction relative to the maintenance of a public road through the Rindge ranch is expected to close today, before Special Commissioner Leo Longley.

It has been alleged that after the court had issued its order, the road was changed by the defendants, who are charged with having directed it to the beach, with the result that tides washed the road out and it could not be used at all times by settlers who live beyond the ranch.

FORTY CASES TRANSFERRED.

Word was received from the Supreme Court yesterday that forty cases, appealed from the Los Angeles Superior Court, had been transferred to the District Court of Appeal for decision. None of the actions were of particular importance. The change was made to relieve congestion of the Supreme Court calendar.

UNDERGOES OPERATION.

belief that the lack of proper education of the voters was responsible. He insisted that they are not educated up to the commission form of government.

"We must all bow gracefully to the will of the majority," he said, "but I believe that the time will come when the voters will awaken to the necessity and advisability of a more centralized form of government."

SAN PEDRO WET.
INSIDE AND OUTSIDE.

After a red-hot campaign lasting for several weeks to determine whether or not a dry zone should be established at San Pedro and Wilmington, victory perched upon the banners of the wets yesterday. Out of a total of possibly 2000 votes cast in the territory, wets won by a majority of 272. San Pedro gave a majority of 138 against the proposed dry zone, Wilmington 117, and Terminal Island 30.

Clyde Johnston, president of the Harbor Dry Zone League, last night made the following statement:

"In view of all the conditions we had to combat and misrepresentations as to what the proposed ordinance meant, we made a good showing. We are going to continue the fight. We will go before the Council and request that the number of saloons in San Pedro be reduced to the same proportions as to population as exist in Los Angeles proper, and that those remaining be removed from Front street. If our request is not complied with, we will immediately circulate initiative petitions and will force a vote by the entire city on the dry zone question in the harbor districts. In fact, the fight has just started."

Out of a total vote slightly in excess of 2000 in the harbor district, indications are that the proposed charter has been defeated by a vote of 2 to 1.

BUT ONE WOMAN IN NINE VOTED.

That the lightness of the vote cast yesterday was mainly due to the apathy of women voters, is indicated by the exact figures compiled by the election officers of one typical precinct in which there are 600 qualified registrations. In this precinct 161 ballots were cast, of which 142 were deposited by men and only 19 by women. As 438 men and 172 women were represented in the registrations, it follows that two out of each five male electors did their duty at the polls and but one woman out of nine exercised the privilege for which they fought so earnestly a year ago.

Brock & Company—The Store for Unusual Gifts

It is doubtful if any store in the United States shows a greater variety of exclusive and distinguished merchandise than Brock & Company. The fact that we exclusively control the selling in Los Angeles of so many celebrated lines of jewels and art wares indicates our supremacy in the Southwest.

We have this year anticipated that this will be the greatest gift-buying season in the history of Los Angeles. We have made preparations as never before, to meet every demand of the discriminating buyer.

Whether you wish gifts of perfect diamonds, solid gold jewelry, fine watches or clocks, rare potteries, exclusive imported china, distinctive table silver, sterling silver toilet wares and novelties, unusual foreign jewelry, exquisite cut glass, or refined articles of leather—you will find here in every department, a wealth of suggestions to meet every requirement, and at a price to suit every purse.

We earnestly advise early gift choosing, while stocks are complete and selections may be made with discrimination. We cordially welcome you to come and spend as much time as you wish inspecting our wares.

FOR YOUR HAIR

When the roots of the hair are entirely dead and the pores of the scalp are glazed over, we do not believe that anything can restore hair growth.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed and will not gum nor permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it.

We lend our endorsement to Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and sell it on this guarantee, because we believe it is the best hair tonic ever discovered. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain it only at our stores—The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Portland, Seattle and Spokane.—[Advertisement.

COUGHED ALL NIGHT

Till This Recipe Was Tried. Cure Followed in Five Hours.

A prominent medical man who suffered with a severe cough and cold on the lungs, often being kept awake all night, and weakened by loss of sleep, finally discovered a simple formula which will cure any cough in five hours by the clock. It is a laxative tonic cough syrup which can be made at home by any one, and the formula is here given for the benefit of those who pass sleepless nights in painful paroxysms. Those who have tried it say it is magical and beats any high-priced, slow-acting cough medicine ever sold.

Mix in a bottle one-half ounce fluid wild cherry bark, one ounce compound essence cardiol and three ounces syrup white pine compound. Take twenty drops every half hour for four hours. Then take one-half to one teaspoonful three or four times a day. Give children less, according to age. This will tone up and rid the system of deep-seated coughs every time.—[Advertisement.

ORIENTAL RUGS at Auction NAME YOUR PRICE!

Biggest Collection of Rich Rugs Ever Gathered Under One Roof—Must Be Sold—Any Price Offered Takes Choice

This sale is imperative! It is not a trumped up sale of choice, but a matter of getting every cent of cash possible for my creditors. If it were possible to take every rug buyer in Los Angeles on the INSIDE of this business for a few hours, if it were possible to show you the confidential price lists of the importers whose rugs are going for many times less than cost in this immense sale; if we could only take you through our big ware-rooms and point out to you the hundreds of rugs which will probably be sold at this auction for less than a tenth of what they cost, you would THEN be able to appreciate the significance of this tremendous sacrifice.

ORIENTAL RUG MERCHANT COMES CLOSE TO FINANCIAL DEATH.

No more will the Oriental rug merchant, Nich G. Baida, stand at the door of his store, at No. 242 S. Broadway, and answer curious questions of school boys and girls concerning "the situation in the Far East." No more will he deal out to his customers bits of Oriental philosophy with every sale of a Persian rug or an Arabian carpet. For Baida has failed to make good. Not through any fault of his own, but through the misfortune which the Fates seem to have had stored up for him and which began with the destruction of thousands of dollars worth of his rugs in the Ocean Park holocaust.

Many of Baida's creditors are his personal friends, and they, together with hundreds of local business men, deeply regret the financial embarrassment of the genial merchant. However his store in this city has been placed in the hands of his creditors, who will probably dispose of the merchandise as soon as possible in order to recruit their losses as best they may. The doors of Baida's store are closed for the present.

Mr. Baida's friends are endeavoring to persuade him to remain in Los Angeles, where his reputation for fair dealing has made a fortune for him since 1888. It is possible that he will stay in this city and continue in his old business.

Easy Money.

WOULD ADOPT BIG SCRAPPER.

Woman Worth Millions Wants McCarty to Quit.

Would Make Ex-Cowboy Member of Family.

Big Fellow Undecided As to Future Course.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

That he may bring Luther McCarty into the heavyweight championship only to lose him before he has reaped the meed which is due a successful manager, is the fear that is haunting Billy McCarney.

It is not through ingratitude that McCarney fears he may lose his big protege. That is not one of McCarty's traits. There is danger that Luther may be weaned away from the ring by a wealthy widow, Mrs. Isabel Hartell, owner of Wildwood Crest, a fashionable resort situated between Atlantic City and Cape May.

Mrs. Hartell, who has a son and daughter, each about the age of McCarty, has taken a wonderful fancy to the aspiring heavyweight, and desires to adopt him. She met him at Wildwood before his fight with Stewart. The attachment was mutual. In a short time she was showing him the same attentions that she would a son, while he confided in her as he would in a mother. She did not look with favor on a ring career for Luther but became somewhat reconciled in the belief that he might retire when he reached the goal of his ambitions, the heavyweight championship.

WANTS HIM TO QUIT.

Only yesterday McCarty received a letter from Mrs. Hartell in which she endeavors to wring a promise from him to retire if he wins from Flynn and Palzer. McCarty has not definitely decided his future course. In fact, it would be useless for him to do so before his battle with Flynn. Any plans he would make would necessarily be subject to the outcome of this battle with the "hope destroyer."

Mrs. Hartell is wealthy. She owns real estate valued at $2,000,000. Should Luther consent to become a member of the Hartell household, lucre would be the least of his troubles. But the luxurious existence of the "idle rich" does not exactly appeal to him. Neither is he particularly fond of the fighting game. He entered the game because he felt that the white race needed a Moses to lead it out of the Queensberry wilderness. That was when Jack Johnson was reigning monarch. Since then, the black tyrant has been unsaddled. Now that he is started, however, McCarty will continue until he wins the title or is beaten in the undertaking.

M'CARNEY PLANS TOUR.

McCarney is endeavoring to wean him away from the retirement idea. He plans to tour this country and Europe with him, should he win the title and has pointed out to Luther the ease with which he could win a fortune with his fists in the next year. Should McCarty win the title there is no man in sight who figures to beat him, but there are a dozen or more aspiring heavyweights who have a hunch that they could, and securing matches would be the least of his troubles.

McCarney recently turned down an offer from Hugh McIntosh for five fights in Australia. His latest offer is from Dan McKetrick, who, acting for Victor Breyer, a Paris fistic impresario, guarantees McCarty $50,000 if he will fight Joe Jeannette, Sam McVey and Bombardier Wells. The personnel of the cast will have to be changed, however, before McCarney can consider the offer. Jeannette and McVey must be effminated. McCarney was one of the first to approve McCarey's stand against mixed matches in the future, and with him and McCarty the color line is still drawn taut.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME STILL IN DOUBT.

The championship game between Los Angeles High School and the team holding the championship of the north is still in the air. This is not through any fault of the local school as it has been keeping the wires hot trying to find out something about the situation up north and it begins to look as though we will know something definite today.

Coach Noble of the Hill-Toppers has wired Berkeley for a final answer and expects it this morning. He has also wired Palo Alto High asking that school if it has lodged any definite protest regarding the game with Berkeley, in which the latter scored the winning try after a whistle had been blown.

As the matter now stands, Los Angeles High is willing to play any team but prefers to meet the champion. The game will in all probability be played on December 14. If Palo Alto and Berkeley play their match ever again it will come off on December 7 and then the local team can meet the winners on December 14.

If Berkeley and Palo Alto do not play off, the game will still be played one week from Saturday, as it will give both teams a chance for a short rest. Los Angeles High is shot to pieces by the loss of Vard Conaway and Pike Brant from the backfield but even with this handicap it figures to repeat for the third successive time and get away with the bunting.

YOUNG IS CHOSEN AS FOOTBALL LEADER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 3.—Louis A. Young, who played left end on the University of Pennsylvania football team this season, was elected today captain for next year.

About $24,000, the proceeds of the sale of one-third of the tickets for last Saturday's Army-Navy football game, will be turned over to the relief of societies that look after the widows and orphans of men dying in the two services. The contributions to the two societies by the University of Pennsylvania as a result of the games played here now amount to more than $100,000.

The Last Battle.

QUAKER WARRIORS FIT FOR CLASH WITH MINES.

BY OWEN R. BIRD.

THE Whittier football team is ready to take its fling at fame this afternoon and, at that, has a fighting chance to nose out the mighty Colorado School of Mines team. The final game of the Southern American football season will be called today at 2:30 p.m. on Hadley Field, Whittier, and when it is over we will be able to class the Poets. If Whittier should win, the college will have a reputation hard to beat and will be a recognized gridiron power on the western football map.

In meeting the School of Mines, Whittier is undertaking a big thing, as the visitors have a team of seasoned veterans who are hard to beat. This will be doubly true this afternoon. When the Miners played Pomona last Saturday afternoon the team had just arrived after a long hard trip across the desert and after being held up more than ten hours by a freight wreck on the line. Naturally the squad was travel weary for the game and could not show its best form. Now the men have been working hard on the Y.M.C.A. field every morning, and claim to be in great condition.

The Whittier team has been in hard training for the past three weeks and last night the squad looked ready to put up the best game of the season. The ends were taking in the forward passes without the slightest trouble and the general spirit and dash of the eleven was that which points to a stirring contest.

Coach Wilson is still undecided as to the ultimate line-up of the Quakers, but will try to send in his strongest team at first, in the hope that the speed and open style, common to Whittier, will take the Miners off their feet during the first part of the game.

Many of the fans are troubling themselves over the question of how long the Poets will last. In regard to this matter there need be no fear, as the Quakers are good finishers. One has only to recall the Oxy-Whittier game, to be convinced of this fact. Here, after being played to a standstill during the first half, the Friends came back and made the Tigers look cheap.

If the Quaker defense can hold the plunging Miners, the local team will have a good chance to win, but if the team weakens before Harper's attack and the Miners are allowed possession of the ball during the greater portion of the game, the tide of battle is very likely to set against the home guard.

NEW AUTO OFFICIALS FINISH UP BUSINESS.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] Members of the new Executive Committee of the American Automobile Association today completed the business meeting of the annual convention of the organization.

Laurense E. Enos of Buffalo, elected president as the successor of Robert P. Hooper, was in the chair. He reappointed the chairmen of the four leading committees. William Schimpf of Brooklyn will hold over as chairman of the contest board; Howard Longsureth of Philadelphia will continue to guide the destinies of the touring board; George C. Diehl of Buffalo will look after the good roads interests, while Charles Thaddeus Terry of New York will again be the chairman of the legislative committee.

AFTER TIP O'NEIL.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Announcement of what action he will take with reference to the recent request for his resignation as president of the Western League will be made by "Tip" O'Neil on January 1. The veteran baseball player and executive made this statement today, but he declined to divulge the nature of his decision.

M'GOORTY AND GIBBONS READY.

His Opponent Has Already Beaten Two Champs.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 3.—[Special Dispatch.] Mike Gibbons and Eddie McGoorty, who look less like fighters than half the fighters and know more about fighting than the other half, will bring a long wait to an end tomorrow when they meet in a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden.

A rough estimate of the fighting merits of the two men gives Gibbons the better chance in a ten-round bout. He has no equal in ring science and can get away from the most dangerous punches. Although heavier than Packy McFarland he is equally as clever as the Chicago boy. Gibbons has decisively beaten Willie Lewis, Jack Denning, Sid Burns and many boys of more or less fame. Brain work has always played an important part in the work of the St. Paul phantom.

McGoorty has recently earned a the actual ownershi pof the middleof champions. His spectacular victories over Champion Dave Smith of Australia and Champion Jack Harrison of England brought him so near substantial reputation as a better weight title that a match with Gibbons was the only natural outcome.

MANY FIGHTS TONIGHT.

The weekly boxing card will be staged at Luna Park tonight. Mose Hunter of Venice will meet Jesse Patrick in a scheduled four-round go. Gene Brown, who knocked out "Fighting Duke" Humbolt, champion colored lightweight of the Pacific Coast last Thursday, will defend his title and the medal which went with it against "Battling" Brooks, a lightweight from Mississippi, and Bob Manly will defend his title against "Young" Johnson, featherweight. There also will be a double battle royal. In this there will be ten men in the ring at one time, and the fun will continue until one of them has subjected the other nine.

ANOTHER JINGLE

Everybody is writing jingles of Tonic Land, trying to earn some of that

$500.00 in Gold

to be given away in prizes by the MAIER BREWING CO., INC., to the AMATEUR POETS. We want to use these jingles in our advertising of

Maier's Select Malt Tonic

The King of all Tonics, which renews that youthful feeling—makes new, rich, red blood corpuscles, and tones up the run-down, weak, nervous folk.

There are several prizes—

1st prize, $100 in gold; 2nd prize, $75.00; 3rd prize, $50.00; 4th prize, $25.00; 15 prizes of $10.000, and 20 prizes of $5.00.

Can YOU Write a Jingle

The rules are simple. Send for the Maier Book telling all about the Tonic. Then write jingle, on plain sheet of paper, enclose two labels from two bottles of our Select Malt Tonic and give the name and address of the dealer or druggist from whom you purchased them, and mail to MAIER BREWING CO., Inc. JINGLE DEPT. LOS ANGELES, CAL.

Here is a New Jingle

"In Tonic Land, poor old Doc. Brown
An aged M. D. of great renown
Nigh starved for want of a single case,
No sickness or ailing in all the place,
The only 'case' Doc. e'er was called to see
Was a case of "Select" T-O-N-I-C."

A committee of business and professional men will pass on the jingles at the conclusion of the contest. No member of the firm nor any one employed by this company will be allowed to participate in the contest. We reserve the right to pass on the jingles selected by the committee, to satisfy ourselves they are suitable for advertising purposes.

FLYNN LOOKS LIKE LIVE ONE.

McCarty's Only Handicap Is Lack of Experience.

Should Ritchie Raise Weight He May Regret It.

BY DE WITT VAN COURT.

Jim Flynn says he intends to put on weight for his coming match with Luther McCarty. Jim at the present time looks to be carrying too much extra weight, but if he can carry himself as fast with the extra poundage it will be in his favor. In his workouts he appears to be faster than when he appeared here last and he has also developed a much harder punch. Jim's long suit is to get close to his man and mix things as fast as he can. He is handicapped in reach and would be at a disadvantage at long-range boxing with a big man like McCarty.

McCarty's age will tell against him in a long contest. He is just past 20 years of age and will develop for several years to come. Overgrown boys never have the stamina that fully-developed men have. Luther should be three times the man he is today in three years from now.

Should he defeat both Flynn and Palzer he will be the youngest heavyweight champion we ever had. Willie Ritchie is the youngest lightweight we have had in this country.

No professional boxer ever won a championship under six years of boxing that I can remember.

Flynn could not knock Carl Morris out in ten rounds and Luther turned the trick in less than half that time. But as different men will make different fights it is hard to judge from these showings.

Flynn will no doubt fight in his usual rushing style and should McCarty decide to stand off and meet him as he comes in he will have, in my opinion, a better chance to win than if he tries to carry the going to Jim.

Ad Wolgast was around town yesterday looking little the worse for his bout with Ritchie. While he was disappointed in Referee Griffin's ruling he was feeling in good spirits and took his defeat in the right way. "I hardly think that the public will take Willie as a real champion," said Ad.

Winning a championship on a technical foul, as he did, is far from being a satisfactory one. However, he and Billy Nolan will probably make hay while the sun shines, and put Wolgast and the rest of the lightweights in the rear for quite a long time.

I will not be surprised to see Nolan get busy with that New York Boxing Commission as soon as he arrives there and try and hurry them along to get the weights raised in the lightweight class. Should he succeed he would be about as bad off as he is now. Packy McFarland, Jack Britton, Matt Wells and Freddie Welsh are all good 135-pound boys and any of that quartette would make things very warm for the new lightweight champion.

Ritchie hardly classes with McFarland or Britton in cleverness and hitting. Both these boys are about the same height as Ritchie, so it looks like a very busy and strenuous time ahead for both Willie and Nolan. Wolgast has done better in each fight he has had since that operation and should still improve. Should he get back into his old-time form it will matter little to him whether the weight is raised or not. Joe Rivers will be able to fight at 135 pounds in another year and be better than at the present time.

Should the weights be raised it will bring together the most classy bunch of lightweights that we have had since Kid Lavigne was the champion.

There may be a hitch in the match between Eddie Campi and Kid Williams. Williams's manager is asking a guarantee of $2000 for his end and Tom McCarey is undecided about giving him that much.

It seems to me that a classy boy like Williams, who is considered by many eastern experts to be the equal of Johnny Coulon, would be worth that amount. Campi and Williams would surely draw a big house at popular prices and bring together two of the cleverest bantams in the world and be the next thing to a championship affair.

Williams and Coulon will have to box a twenty-round go before the title can be taken from Coulon, and the winner of the Campi-Williams contest would be the legitimate man to fight for the title.

Bantamweight contests between men like these three are always very interesting. The going is always much faster than in any other class and it would take a lightning calculator to keep track of the blows. There is sure to be action every moment the little fellows are in the ring. They also show much more cleverness, speed and fast footwork, and usually do much less clinching and the holding that makes many contests uninteresting to look at.

The arrival of Al Palzer and his manager, Tom O'Rourke, will add an interest to the Flynn-McCarty bout. Palzer is said to be a big fellow without much cleverness, but a dead game man with a hard punch. Billy McCarney, who is managing McCarty, saw Palzer fight in New York and is confident that Luther can beat him if they ever meet.

TEDDY TO RACE AT ASCOT PARK.

Teddy Tetzlaff has been announced as due to race in two or three different places on Saturday.

Mr. Tetzlaff's manager, E. E. Hewlett, stated yesterday that Teddy will drive at Ascot Park. Although Hewlett says that Teddy will drive against time, E. A. Moross, manager of Bob Burman, claims to have signed a contract whereby Tetzlaff will appear in a match race against Burman.

PASADENA BOY HONORED.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY (Cal.) Dec. 3.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] H. L. Hahn, a freshman of Pasadena, won the Thelle tennis trophy yesterday in the handicap tournament by defeating Brown, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3. He showed excellent form in his matches with R. L. Murray and G. L. Shul, defeating both. Hahn also has won his class championship.

Delay.

WAITING GAME AGAIN WINNER.

EDDIE LAWYERS STAVE OFF EX-CENSOR'S TRIAL.

Though Presiding Judge Refuses Further Continuance, Suspended City Prosecutor's Attorneys Take Matter Before New Jurist and Case Goes Over Again.

Despite the fact that Presiding Judge Willis set the Guy Eddie trial for tomorrow, lawyers for the defense appeared before Judge Arnott of El Dorado county yesterday, sitting in Department Eleven, and secured ten days' additional time.

The continuance was granted upon affidavits furnished by W. H. Dehm, representing Eddie. These set forth that more time was needed to get witnesses here from Lena, Wis., and other places where the complaining witness, Alice Phelps, is supposed to be known.

The judge who granted the continuance is an outside jurist and not conversant with the case. He has had no dealings with the defendant's counsel previously, and is not familiar with the preliminary aspects of the accusation.

A similar attempt was made to secure a continuance from Judge Willis, but the latter jurist promptly announced that the case would go on trial on the day set, as in his judgment the reasons adduced for the delay were not sufficient.

The case was then assigned to Department Eleven. Judge Arnott temporarily sat there yesterday, though Judge Fred V. Wood of Amador county will hear the Eddie case if trial begins the 16th inst., the latest date set for the hearing.

When Eddie, suspended City Prosecutor and self-appointed moral censor of chorus girls, was first arrested, he asserted that he wanted a speedy trial and "vindication." His course since that time, as shown by the records, has been to secure delay.

Deputy District Attorney Keyes, who, with Deputy Blair, will try the Eddie case, said yesterday that he made no objections against the postponement, as he was recently assigned to the case and was glad to get the extra time to review the evidence taken at the preliminary hearing before Judge Wilbur. However, he said he would oppose any further delay and insist upon trial the 16th inst.

The county grand jury resumes its session today after a recess of a week. It is believed that some action will be taken on the investigation into the motives for the arrest of F. W. Lloyd, formerly a special police officer.

But one witness remains to be interrogated, Paul Powell, a reporter for an Earl twilight sheet. When first summoned to appear he was in San Francisco, but has since returned. After his evidence is concluded, the grand jury may make a report to the presiding judge.

Judge Wood comes from Jackson, Amador county. He was first appointed by then Gov. Gillett to fill a judgeship made vacant by death. Since then he has been elected for a second term.

Judge Fred V. Wood,

Of Amador county, who will preside at the Eddie trial if it is begun on the 16th inst., the date fixed yesterday on the occasion of the most recent delay in the case against the ex-moral censor.

CHANCE PLAYS DEUCE.

Two Auto Accidents Two Hours Apart and Only Two Blocks Apart Result in Injuries.

Coincidentally the numeral two played a conspicuous part in two auto accidents yesterday. They occurred within two blocks of each other and happened two hours apart.

At Ninth and San Pedro streets, Herbert Palke, a 17-year-old delivery boy, living at No. 947 West Eighth street, was knocked down by a machine and sustained a sprained right foot. It was at Seventh and San Pedro streets, two hours earlier, that G. Horn, No. 250 East Fifth street, was knocked down by another car, and suffered severe bruises and contusions on the left side of the body, head, and on the left hand and leg.

BANKRUPTCY PETITIONS.

The Stetson System Company, a tailoring establishment at No. 206 South Broadway, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday, with liabilities scheduled at $14,805.09; assets, which including stock in trade valued at $1762.39, and life insurance policies of $4000 are $5641. The debts are mostly due for merchandise and advertising with various Los Angeles newspapers.

A. L. Paddack and Company, Huntington Park grocers, made an assignment for the benefit of their creditors. The debts are $5819.99; the assets, $3566.38, of which last amount $1680.33 is stock in trade.

THREE YEARS OF MISERY

Mrs. Burnside Escaped an Operation by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mahoningtown, Pa.—"For three years I suffered untold misery every month, and had to stay in bed the first two or three days. I also had a displacement and other ailments peculiar to women. I became so weak and run down I could scarcely walk across the floor.

"The doctor told me I would never be well unless I would undergo an operation, but I was advised by my mother to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after I had taken four bottles I am strong and well. I have got others to take your medicine with the same good results and they cannot say enough for it."—Mrs. J. A. BURNSIDE, Mahoningtown, Pa.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

TAKES RIDE; ARRESTED.

Boy Held by Police Pending Outcome of Injuries to Man Knocked Down by His Auto.

Walter S. Reeder, 15 years old, living at No. 210 South Fremont street, is being detained by the police, awaiting the result of the injuries sustained by John Dubooshy, No. 129 South Los Angeles street early Sunday morning, when he was knocked down by a machine driven by Reeder. The accident happened at Fifth and Main streets. It is said that Dubooshy is so seriously injured that he may not recover.

According to information given out yesterday by the detectives at the Central Station, Reeder was asked by a friend to take his machine to the garage. Instead, he went for a ride, taking a girl acquaintance with him. Witnesses of the accident declare that Reeder was traveling in excess of fifty miles an hour when he ran Dubooshy down.

Fontana Orange Groves

At $450 Per Acre

The Highest Type of "Life Insurance"

Practically every discriminating, thoughtful man and woman in Southern California would like to own and live on a beautiful, health-giving, perfume-laden, profit-producing orange grove—that's sure!

The life of an orange grower is about as pleasant, healthful and profitable as can be found anywhere on the planet.

The man of average means, however, believes that an investment in an orange grove is way beyond him. From the standpoint of purchasing a full-bearing grove this is absolutely true.

But the immense resources and untiring enterprise of the Fontana Company has now made it possible for people with comparatively small incomes to purchase orange, lemon or grapefruit groves on an easy buying plan. They may remain at their present occupation while the company brings their groves to maturity along practical, scientific lines.

The Fontana district is noted for its abundant, cheap, gravity-water supply, its rich, deep, loose soil, absolute freedom from diseases, smut, scale, etc.; ideal climatic conditions and the proper elevation.

Fontana groves are not sold on contract—deeds are given to all purchasers. The company has actually more money invested in every grove sold than the amount of the first payment made by the purchaser—this investment means water pipes, trees, fertilizer, cost of preparing land, etc.

The shares of water stock accompanying each acre are worth about $200 each. Water and irrigation experts consider the Fontana water system to be the best in the entire citrus belt.

Fontana groves are purchasable for one-fifth down on the purchase price (planted to order, $450 per acre) with 6 years' time to pay the balance. The second payment does not fall due until the end of the third year.

Those who desire to plant and care for their own groves, are entitled to the advice and counsel of the horticultural department at all times—if they are not familiar with citrus growing. Scores of prominent Los Angeles business and professional men have purchased Fontana groves, which are being scientifically maintained by the company at the moderate cost of $2 per acre per month.

As a present living place the Fontana district is unsurpassed by any other section of Southern California. Beautiful palm and rose-bordered avenues, picturesque mountain scenery, and the best of social, educational and transportational advantages combine to make Fontana an ideal community.

Make an appointment at once for a personally conducted trip to the Fontana groves. For literature, maps and other information see Thomas D. Campbell & Co., Exclusive Selling Agents for the Fontana Company, Owners and Developers, 625 So. Hill St., Los Angeles.

Looking Towards Christmas

FOR months and months Feagans and Company have been looking towards Christmas--searching the best markets of this country and Europe, for the exclusive and unusual gift things we know you expect us to have.

We have aimed to make this a different Christmas store--and have sought out the clever little things rather than the strictly commercial. We believe you will enjoy choosing here---because you will find so many enticing things that are not to be had elsewhere—and the very unusualness of which will add to your joy of living.

We want you to feel that this is your store—and that you are thoroughly welcome to come here for gift suggestions. But let us emphasize the oft-repeated suggestion---"Shop Early"—for time is all too short—and wise choosing warrants careful deliberation.

A List of Suggestions You may find Helpful

Motor bags, fitted with travelling comforts—especially made in Europe for Feagans and Co.

In the Feagans diamond cases, you will find many rare and exclusive jewels that have been especially designed for us, and of which no duplicates exist.

NEWS REPORTS FROM COR...

Pasadena.

SPECIAL TRAIN FROM PORTLAND

Pasadena Will Be Visited by Exclusive Party.

Horses Must Yield to Automobile Fire Trucks.

Deposits Increase Rapidly in Crown City Banks.

PASADENA, Dec. 4.—Portland, Ore. will show its good will toward Pasadena by sending a special train bearing 150 of its leading citizens. It is due to arrive here on the 10th inst.

The visitors will be members of the Carnival of Roses Association here and they will come to this city for the especial purpose of seeing the Tournament of Roses. Already they have styled themselves the Royal Rosarians and are making plans for the trip. The Tournament of Roses Association officials here have recently been apprised of their intentions.

This will be one of the chief features of the tournament. The visitors will be given places of honor in the day's celebration. They will probably bring with them many roses from their Northern Pacific home.

The Northerners will come on invitation of the local organization. They were invited on the 11th inst.

The following letter was sent to "His Royal Highness, W. C. Bristol, Crown Prince of the Royal Rosarians:

"Pasadena, its Board of Trade, the Tournament of Roses and all other civic associations extend to the Royal Rosarians a cordial invitation to visit Southern California during the holiday season and view Pasadena's great New Year's Day pageant. Owing to the wonderful profusion of flowers in Portland, and in this city, a bond of unmented friendship should exist between us. We are anxious to extend to you hospitalities, and trust that the Royal Rosarians will come to us fortified for a splendid good time.

(Signed) "EDWARD T. OFF,

Following is Bristol's reply:

"The Royal Rosarians greatly appreciate and accept the cordial invitation of the Pasadena Board of Trade, its Tournament of Roses and other civic organizations to participate in Pasadena's New Year's Day parade. The Royal Rosarian special, gorgeously equipped, will arrive in Pasadena early New Year's morning with pleasant greetings for Pasadena and Southern California.

(Signed)
"W. C. BRISTOL, Crown Prince."

The Rosarians will bring with them their crack uniform drill team, under the direction of Prof. Robert Krohn. A special section in the grandstand in Tournament Park will be set aside for the visitors.

The Tournament of Roses Association yesterday made formal announcement of the prizes that are to be awarded on New Year's Day. Never before, in the long line of tournaments, have such handsome prizes, or prizes which represent so much money, been awarded as are to be awarded this winter.

A list of rules to govern the exhibits also was issued yesterday.

ESTIMATES COST.

Chief Clifford of the Pasadena fire department, who for many months has been advocating that the use of horses in the fire department be given up entirely and all auto-apparatus procured, yesterday submitted a statement to the Board of City Commissioners in which he estimates that the cost of the recommended improvement will come to between $12,000 and $15,000.

This estimate does not include what is to pull the engines, but the horses to pull the engines with the hose wagons, a system that already has been adopted in some other cities where the change has been made.

PROTEST IS MADE.

Members of the City Council yesterday listened to arguments made by property protestants to the proposed East Side storm drain district. After three hours and a half of vigorous talk, the hearing was continued until the 16th inst.

The principal spokesman for the protestants was Martin E. Geibel of No. 725 Howard place, an attorney. Attorney Edward H. Hahn, who represented the more conservative element, also spoke.

MAKE GOOD SHOWING.

A call from the comptroller of the currency for reports from the Pasadena banks yesterday showed that the total deposits for the day amounted to $14,108,000, as compared with $12,000,000 on September 1st. The deposits in all of the banks show a marked increase. The combined total of the First National Bank and the Pasadena Savings and Trust Company was $4,522,000, as against $4,075,000 at the time of the last report. The Union National Bank and the Union Trust and Savings Bank together totaled $5,445,000, as compared with $4,905,000 the week previous. The deposits at the Security National Bank amounted to $3,139,000.

MANY ARE COMING.

The winter tourist season in Pasadena has now begun in earnest. The trains are bringing in many visitors daily. The Hotel Maryland will hold its formal winter opening next Saturday afternoon and evening, the new Building of the Hotel Green will be opened between the 10th and 15th inst., and the following week will see the Hotel Raymond opened. DANGER IS LESSENED.

Interlocking Switches on Pacific Electric Near Pomona Tend to Make Travel Comparatively Safe.

POMONA, Dec. 3.—The recently-installed interlocking block signal system put in by the Pacific Electric Railway Company on its lines between this city and San Dimas, is working most satisfactorily and the danger of accidents from collisions will be greatly lessened thereby. Special electric indicators have been placed at Pomona Junction and Lone Hill, at Lordsburg and at San Dimas. By means of these signals, whatever car enters the block first has the right of way, to the exclusion of others and all train crews are thus "tipped off." The old telephones, which were first in use when the Pacific Electric line was opened in this locality, are being displaced by the electric automatic system.

Although the season at the American Beet Sugar Company's plant at Chino, has but closed, plans are already under way for next year's activities. Chief Agriculturist Karl Rudolph of the company, has about 2000 acres of land plowed, preparatory to beet planting anew and just about this time a soaking rain would be most welcome to the beet growers, as well as to other farmers on the Chino ranch and in fact, all over Pomona Valley, the last showers barely wetting beneath the surface of the ground.

A lecture on "A Trip Through the Yellowstone," illustrated by stereopticon views, was delivered at the Pilgrim Congregational Church last evening, by Prof. Lloyd B. Austin, educational secretary of the Los Angeles Y.M.C.A. Over a hundred beautiful ing descriptions were interesting.

Long Beach.

GORED BY BULL MAN MAY DIE.

Long Beach Dairy Employee Is Terribly Injured.

Engineer of Submarine Boat Company Goes East.

General Terrazas With Suite Leaves for Mexico.

LONG BEACH, Dec. 3.—As the result of a ferocious attack by an enraged bull, Joseph Rudolph, aged 46 years, lies at a local hospital, probably fatally injured, suffering from wounds which would ordinarily have caused instant death.

Rudolph, who has for several years been an employee of the Fred Bixby dairy ranch, entered the enclosure where the bull was kept this morning and almost immediately the animal rushed at him, head down and drove one of its horns into the man's neck, under his left ear, tearing a big hole in the neck and ranging up through his mouth, breaking off a small piece of the jawborne and breaking several small bones in the neck.

Evidently believing his victim dead the bull turned away from Rudolph after the attack and the injured man after a time succeeded in crawling out of the pen, just succeeding as the maddened animal again tried to reach him. It was half an hour before he could summon assistance and was then rushed to the city in an auto and physicians called. They are unable to foretell the outcome as serious developments are apt to follow. The victim's mouth and tongue are visible through the hole in his throat, and he breathes through this ragged wound as well as through his mouth.

BANK SHOWING.

The showing by the four local national banks in their statements published on call of the Comptroller today is perhaps the best ever made in Long Beach. The aggregate resources of the four banks are $5,420,144.51, and the deposits, $4,056,488.94, an increase in deposits since the September call of $416,787.85, and in resources, $320,297.64. The Farmers bank, a State institution, also shows a quarter of a million increase in deposits and $100,000 in resources.

On Sunday evening Allen Hoar, chief engineer of the Los Angeles Submarine Boat Company, left for Washington with complete plans, specifications and bids for the eight submarines which the government desires built. As the bids are to be open Friday, it was deemed best to forward the bids by special messenger to avoid danger of delay.

Yesterday evening Manager John M. Cage arrived home from Los Angeles to find an official letter from Washington, delayed in transmission setting forth additional requirements regarding the submission of bids, one of which was a bond of $30,000 for carrying out the bid if accepted. The next few hours were busy ones for Mr. Cage. He dictated and had typed the lengthy statements required, called a meeting of the directors for the necessary signatures, hurried to Los Angeles and arranged the necessary bond and after affixing a special delivery stamp, drove to the depot and handed the envelope to the mail clerk on a train that was just pulling out of the station at 8 o'clock.

To protect the company against any delay in the mails, Mr. Cage then filed affidavits and the delayed official letter with a local bank which will telegraph the engineering bureau of the circumstances of the case, so that the bids on Friday when presented by Hoar will not be thrown out by failure of the required bond. The contract is an important one, meaning the expenditure of nearly $4,500,000 on the Pacific Coast for submarines if the local bid is successful.

After a stay of ten months in Long Beach, Gen. Luis Terrazas of Chihauhau and his family and servants, numbering twenty-two persons will leave Long Beach tomorrow in a private car over the Southern Pacific for El Paso, going from there to his home in Chihuahua. The family have been in exile for several months, owing to revolutionary conditions in his country, and the return now is an indication that conditions are becoming settled. The Terrazas are owners of millions of acres of land and vast herds of cattle and horses and are accounted among the wealthiest of Mexicans.

Despite the fact that they were aware of the issuance of a writ of mandate to compel them to embody five additional amendments in the charter amendment election to be called for December 30, the City Council this morning declined to further consider the initiative petition, again presented to them with the certification of the City Clerk that the petition contained the required 15 per cent. of registered voters and promptly filed it, together with a supplemental petition.

After talks by L. N. Whealton, who is championing the cause of the Progressive League, and R. H. Jackson, neither of which had any effect in changing the opinion of Council, Attorney Whealton served on them the writ of mandate issued by Judge Hutton and returnable Monday before Judge Wood. The City Attorney was instructed to appear for the city in defending the suit.

DEFENSE HAS DAY IN COURT.

San Bernardino Murder Case Develops New Features.

Another Mile of Paving Has Been Ordered.

Dentist Charged With Gross Cruelty by Wife.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John Blake, who today took the stand in his own behalf in the trial of the murder case against him, declared that he had for months feared for his life because of trouble with the Young family at Kramer where the killing occurred.

Because of this he says he went armed but says that the discharge of the pistol when he killed Steiner was an accident. Young claimed Blake had tried to get him fired as Santa Fe agent, while Blake denied on the stand that he ever sought to make any trouble for Young with the railroad.

John C. Wray of San Pedro was a strong witness for Blake, testifying that Blake had weeks before the shooting asked his advice as to what he should do, saying that he feared for his life. Wray also strongly contradicted the testimony of A. E. Cronenwett with whom he had a conversation regarding the shooting the next morning.

The evidence was completed this afternoon and the arguments will be commenced in the morning, the case probably going to the jury late in the day. Blake, who is nearly 80 years of age, is a veteran of the Sepoy mutiny in India in 1858.

MORE PAVING WORK.

Another mile of paving has been ordered started by the City Council, the improvement to be made on Seventh street, from B street to I street. The cost of the betterment will be assessed against the abutting property owners, it being probable that an oil macadam will be used, similar to that used for the improvement of streets in the residence districts in the past.

Seventh street is the last of the close-in residence streets to be improved, except Sixth street in which the proceedings are already under way. The paving of F street is now being completed and when the improvements outlined above are finished the city will have the best streets of any town of its size in this part of the State.

CHARGES CRUELTY.

A sensational suit for divorce has been filed against Dr. H. L. Milliken, a well known local dentist, by his wife, Mrs. Margaret M. Milliken, who alleges gross cruelty. Mrs. Milliken says her husband locked her in a room at night when she was seriously ill, refusing to call a physician or nurse, declaring it to be useless—that she could not recover anyway. The divorce action follows the recent suit filed by Dr. Milliken to gain control of the valuable Third-street property which stands in his wife's name. The wife alleges the cruel treatment has continued most of the time since they were married in Bloomington, nearly fifteen years ago.

NINE PROPOSITIONS.

Nine propositions for a site for a City Hall have been submitted to the City Council and will be opened Thursday evening. A movement is on foot, backed by Attorney Byron Waters, for the razing of the old city pavilion in Lugo Park and the erection of a City Hall there of low, rambling mission type, the court in the center to form an auditorium for large gatherings. A petition urging this plan will be presented Thursday night, also.

NEW PROSECUTOR.

William J. Guthrie has been named as City Prosecutor, the position being a new one to handle the criminal business of the city. C. C. Haskell, named as the city's legal adviser December 1, did not have the criminal business included in his duties.

With his head bleeding from serious scalp wounds caused by being thrown against the top of his auto, and curled up in the rear seat of the machine trying to light a "wienie" sausage for a cigar, A. Moran was found last night by the police. He was drunk, his machine had gone into the ditch, but fortunately did not overturn, while he himself was badly bruised up. Moran was given medical attention and his damaged auto hauled out of the ditch.

The Bank ---Of Yesterday

For the Millionaire

Was merely a place in which men might deposit their money. Sometimes the deposits were safe, sometimes they were not. Ramshackle buildings, inferior safety-deposit vaults and an untrained body of bookkeepers did not give the depositor any great sense of security. The president sat in his musty office, as secluded as an emperor. It was almost impossible to see him in person. The other officials likewise considered themselves, in position and importance, far above ordinary mortals, and conducted themselves accordingly.

This Bank Today

For Every Man —For You

What a difference! Splendid, indestructible vaults and a perfect system of bookkeeping in the hands of experts. Here is an institution, the keynote of which is personal service and in which every member, from office boy to president, is always "get-at-able." This bank is more than "good business." It is HUMAN. The officials, men of known integrity, wide experience, and keen insight in money matters, take a personal interest in every depositor and thus, through good advice, by making small loans and in a hundred other ways, tide men over temporary financial embarrassments. The smallest depositor always receives the personal help of the highest official.

STOCK LETTER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The strength of American issues in London was reflected by a somewhat higher range of prices during the early part of today's session. Later irregularity became the order of things, however. This was induced by the liquidation of a substantial line of Harriman stocks, notably Southern Pacific. About this company's future there appeared to be a diversity of opinion owing to the fact that nothing tangible at this period is obtainable, relative to the probable plans likely to be pursued in connection with adjusting the affairs of both Union and Southern Pacific in keeping with the decree of the Supreme Court. It is the opinion in reliable quarters that Southern Pacific as a separate property will be able to continue its highly satisfactory record from an earning standpoint, but such views were previously predicted for the most part on the road's retaining its Central Pacific connection. Now that it seems that the Union Pacific will acquire the latter and that an interchange of traffic on as large a scale as heretofore is not probable some misgivings are in evidence. As a consequence there has been quite a little scattered liquidation and bear pressure. The sharp break in American Can also contributed to the unsettlement in the stock market. In that connection it was said that the disbursements likely to be ordered at the meeting Wednesday in the nature of initial payments on back dividend are not likely to be as substantial as previously anticipated. If true this would of course mean that the common stock will probably be less that much further away from disbursements. The market was stimulated in the last hour by Washington stories to the effect that a resolution had been introduced in Congress directing the Secretary of the Treasury to deposit $50,000,000 in the banks to relieve the money strain. The disposition to lighten lines of industrials has of late become quite pronounced, owing to monetary conditions and to the fears as to the probable extent of tariff tinkering. It is not unlikely that for a short period money rates will become easier, but unless the treasury relief is afforded the treasury disbursements will doubtless be stemmed by the same strain as were those of December. Judging by the action of the market today a moderate upturn seems probable as it has become quite popular of late to press the selling side, the result of which is that many weak accounts have been eliminated and the short interest expended.

STOCK LETTER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The strength of American issues in London was reflected by a somewhat higher range of prices during the early part of today's session. Later irregularity became the order of things, however. This was induced by the liquidation of a substantial line of Harriman stocks, notably Southern Pacific. Just what this company's future there seemed to be a diversity of opinion, owing to the fact that nothing tangible of this period is obtainable, relative to the probable plans likely to be pursued in connection with adjusting the affairs of both Union and Southern Pacific in keeping with the views of the Supreme Court. It is the opinion in reliable quarters that Southern Pacific as a separate property will be able to continue its highly satisfactory record from an earning standpoint, but such views are not particularly predicted for the most part on the road's retaining its Central Pacific connection. Now that it seems that the Union Pacific will accept the latter and that an interchange of traffic on as large a scale as heretofore is not probable some changings are in evidence. As a consequence there has been quite a scattered liquidation and bear drives. The sharp break in American Can also contributed to the unsettlement in the stock market. In this connection it was said that the settlements likely to be ordered at the meeting Wednesday in the nature of initial payments on back dividends are not likely to be as substantial as previously anticipated. If this is the case it would of course mean that the common stock will probably be carried much further away from its settlements. The market was stimulated in the last hour by Washington advices to the effect that a resolution would be introduced in Congress directing the Secretary of the Treasury to deposit $50,000,000 in the banks to relieve the money strain. The disposition of the various lines of industrials has of late become quite pronounced, owing to monetary conditions and to the doubt as to the probable extent of the tightening. It is not unlikely that for a short period money rates will become easier, but unless the money relief is afforded the treasury disbursements will doubtless be followed by the same strain as were in evidence in the month of December. Judging by the action of the market today a moderate upturn seems probable as it has been quite passed the point of late to press selling, the result of which is that many weak accounts have been eliminated and the short interest reduced.

PRODUCE MARKET

A general decline in egg prices was noted, quotations were quoted down 2 cents. Dakota eastern 4 cents lower, Kansas, Nebraska, etc., and storage eggs 1 cent. Receipts of the East and a slight increase in San Francisco were in a large measure responsible for this decline. Ranch eggs 6 cents within a week. Changes in prices on local stock was reflected for the first time yesterday by a decline in eastern fresh eggs. Prices promise to remain pretty steady for the present, although the rate on ranch eggs may become a little easier during the next two weeks or so, if conditions are favorable. However, as high as 45 cents was asked yesterday for case count stock. It is quite generally believed that there will not be a strong reaction in prices, even if conditions are unfavorable. Reported receipts of eggs were seventy-seven cases.

New York butter was 2 cents higher than the local market and in Chicago the price was half a cent higher. Elgin butter was quoted at 35. The markets here and in San Francisco, while not so high as in many sections of the East, were quite firm. The tendency is slightly upward here, but it is hardly believed that there will be an advance. Receipts were 26,694 pounds.

Some northern fresh cheese sold at 17¼ cents, due mainly to the decline in San Francisco to 17 cents a pound. The cheese market has shown spasmodic tendencies toward easier prices recently, but taken as a whole prices are pretty steady around 19 and 20 cents. The easier tone in the market on local varieties seemed to influence prices on eastern and Oregon stock to some extent. Daisies from both sections were offered as low as 18 cents. Some Swiss wheel cheese was put up for sale at 20 cents. Receipts were 710 pounds.

Beans were somewhat scarce and prices averaged around 6 to 7 cents a pound. Some stock a little below grade went at 4 cents, but the quantity was limited. A fair shipment of peas came in and sold at 4½ cents a pound, which is cheaper than the recent prevailing rate. They were cleaned up in pretty short order, however. Potato receipts were only thirty-two sacks. The market was easy. There was a slight recuperation in onions. Northern, yellow and Australian browns were selling at $1 to $1.10 in some instances. Receipts were 1130 sacks. Thirty-five sacks of sweets came in. The price was somewhat firmer. The first shipment of Delicious apples came in from the State of Washington, and sold at $1.75 to $2 a box. They are red apples, resembling Spitzenbergs, and are in high favor in the East, where they bring as high as $2.50 to $3 a box. Apple receipts were only forty-eight boxes. The stock on the market was mainly storage. Bellflours were offered as low as $1. Early Jersey cranberries were on the market and sold at $10 in some instances, and Late Howe's at $11.

The latter were offered as low as $10.25. Forty baskets of avocados—the largest shipment of the season thus far—arrived, and were selling at $3 to $5 a dozen. A carload of Golden dates came in. They were quoted at 7½ cents a pound. Some raspberries remained on the market from Monday's receipt and sold at 10 cents a basket. Strawberries came in from Gardena and brought 10 cents a basket. Persimmons were a little cheaper, selling as low as 6 cents a pound, and pomegranates were quoted at 4 cents. In carload lots oranges have sold at auction for about $1.95. Bananas were firmer.

Prices on gasoline, distillate and naphtha declined about 1 cent yesterday.

LOS ANGELES STOCK EXCHANGE.

Market Quiet Yesterday—National Pacific's Assessment Delayed Until Tomorrow by Directorate.

The volume of business was light yesterday. Even the Union issues were comparatively inactive. Union Oil was a point up from Monday's close and held pretty well at that figure. One block of a hundred shares changed hands. Union Provident exhibited no change in the trading. Closing quotations showed strength, however, $103.50 bid, at $104.50. Associated was possibly a shade weaker and closed 46.87½ bid. Jade Oil Company showed a slightly better tone, selling at .07½. It closed .07 1-8. The remainder of the oil stocks showed minor changes, but furnished no business.

Goldfield Consolidated reappeared in the mining list.

The directors meeting at which National Pacific is to levy another assessment was postponed until tomorrow. It was to have been held yesterday.

SAN FRANCISCO EXCHANGE.

(Special service to The Times by B. F. Taylor, 118 West Fourth street, Los Angeles.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—There is very little to be said about today's market in Southern Nevada stocks. Changes in quotations were purely nominal. In the Comstock list prices generally were weaker. In the outside districts Peak was up 5. Nevada Hills was down 7½ and Round Mountain 3.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Police Commission yesterday asked the City Council to empower it to impose fines on holders of permits issued by the commission who have violated the rules, and the rumor was current that this was a part of a plan to save to Beebe & Cohn a saloon license that the commission had revoked. The Mayor denies that such is the intent, although Beebe & Cohn have asked for a reconsideration of the punishment imposed and have indicated that they are willing to pay a heavy fine.

Councilman Topham proposed yesterday, when the hatpin ordinance was presented to the Council, that it should also include the prohibition of long feathers that might tickle the men under their chins.

A squabble arose in the City Council yesterday over whether a vote of "thanks" or "appreciation" should be given the fire chief and his men for their heroic work on the St. George Hotel fire. The "thanks" prevailed.

A jury in the Superior Court will soon have to determine whether a woman who apparently is of sound mind is insane. Several specialists have declared she is dangerous. Officers of the First Methodist Episcopal Church are endeavoring to have her sent to an asylum.

At the City Hall.

MORE POWER FOR A COMMISSION?

WANTS TO FINE AS WELL AS REVOKE PERMITS.

Police Board Asks Council to Pass an Ordinance Increasing Its Authority in Cases Where Holders of Licenses Violate Rules—Mayor Denies Interesting Rumor.

The Police Commission filed a petition to the Council yesterday recommending that an ordinance be passed providing that the commission shall have power to impose a fine or suspension, or both, upon the holders of licenses issued by the Police Commission for a violation of any ordinance or rules and regulations governing the conduct of the business.

This simple grant of more power to the Police Commission ordinarily might not have attracted special attention, but there was gossip about the City Hall yesterday that the appearance of this request just at this time is of more than ordinary significance, and that back of it lay a plan for the saving of the saloon liquor license of Beebe & Cohn at No. 618 South Broadway.

This license was revoked by the Police Commission two weeks ago after a trial of the firm on the charge of allowing minors to enter and frequent the saloon. One youth testified that he had purchased intoxicating drinks at the place six or eight different times.

Petitions were introduced, signed by numerous business men or concerns in the block, that the license be not revoked, and speaking in high terms of the general conduct of the Beebe & Cohn establishment. This did not prevent revocation.

A week after the revocation, however, an appeal was made by the firm for a reconsideration of the penalty imposed. It was argued that considerable investments had been made in business enterprises adjoining the saloon because of its existence there, and that these investors would lose heavily were the saloon eliminated. The suggestion was made that the commission withdraw its action revoking the permit and impose a heavy fine instead, allowing the saloon to continue. The subject was taken under consideration for one week and in the meantime it was referred to the City Attorney for a report.

The case will appear in the regular business of the commission this afternoon. The request for power to impose fines in such cases is believed by some persons to be paving the way for action in the Beebe & Cohn case, but the Mayor stated emphatically last night that this was not so.

"I am not discussing that case," said the Mayor, "but we feel that we should have definite authority to impose fines when in our judgment it is proper. I will say, however, that this action was not framed up to aid in keeping the Beebe & Cohn license alive. Why, the ordinance couldn't go into effect for thirty days, anyway."

It was suggested that the men who wanted to hold to a saloon license that has a trading value of from $4000 to $10,000 would willingly wait thirty days. Then the Mayor refused to further discuss the subject.

CHIN-TICKLERS.

AVAUNT, LONG FEATHERS.

And now it may be the sly, chin-tickling plumes and feathers on the hat of my lady that the ruthless hand of the city legislator may reach out to attack through unyielding ordinance. This possibility was suggested in the City Council chamber yesterday, when the famous hat-pin ordinance was presented for consideration.

The hat-pin ordinance—if it ever reaches the stage of having passed the Council—would make it possible for the woman wearing a hat-pin the point of which stuck out more than an inch beyond the crown without being "corked," to be thrust into prison for six months and compelled to pay a fine of $500.

The ordinance was referred to the Legislation Committee, but it may be made the bearer of other styles for woman's toggery before it finally reaches a Councilmanic vote. Councilman Topham arose as soon as the reference to a committee of the ordinance was made and solemnly declared:

"I went to church last Sunday night and a lady sitting in front of me had two long feathers in her hat that got into my eyes and even tickled me under the chin. I would suggest that the prohibition of such unseemly feathers be added to this ordinance."

THANKS TO FIREMEN.

HOTEL DESTRUCTION ECHO.

A fine point was raised in the City Council yesterday, when Councilmen Reed, Topham and Whiffen refused to vote for a resolution of thanks to the fire chief and his men for their work in the St. George Hotel fire, but declared they would willingly vote for a resolution of appreciation of the firemen's work.

Councilman Whiffen declared that he did not believe it just the proper thing, nor for the best interests of public service, to extend a vote of thanks to men for doing their obvious duty, even though this duty carried with it grave danger. The other opposing Councilmen took the stand that when firemen engage in this service they must expect to meet such contingencies as arose at this fire, and to do their duty without expectation of votes of thanks, but that they were willing to express their appreciation of duty well done.

The resolution of thanks was introduced by Councilman McKenzie, and received the votes of the other Councilmen, except Topham, Reed and Whiffen, who stood out on the grounds set forth.

City Dump Offends.

Property owners on Carlilo street, between Temple and Bellevue avenue, are raising serious objection to the city using the street, which is a low depression there, as a dumping ground for tin cans and street sweepings. They allege that during the recent "clean-up" campaign the bulk of the rubbish gathered through the city was dumped into this hole, and that it is within thirty feet of flats that have lost their tenants because of the conditions. The spokesman for the property owners appeared before the Council yesterday and declared they had been sent from one city department to another for several weeks and were unable to get relief. The Council instructed the Streets and Boulevards Committee to make a personal inspection and give relief to the neighborhood if possible.

Sanitary Inspection.

Dr. R. G. Broderick, Health Officer of San Francisco, and Dr. William F. Snow, secretary of the State Board of Health, were accompanied by Health Commissioner Powers yesterday in a general inspection of sanitary conditions in the industrial districts. They made favorable comment on the general situation.

PROSPECTIVE LEGISLATION.

COVERS WIDE SCOPE.

The City Council received a lot of ordinances from the City Attorney's office yesterday that cover a wide scope, and most of which will eventually become laws.

One provides that no pupil of the public schools shall offer for sale any school book without the written authority of the parent, guardian or teacher of the school the pupil attends.

Another grants a spur track privilege to Domingo Oyhazabal along Alameda street, between First and Second, according to the recommendation of the Public Utilities Board.

Another provides for the purchase of the necessary supplies and appliances for the lighting of Canal street between Third and Seventh streets in Wilmington. One-eighth of the cost of lighting this street for the first year the system is operated is to be paid for by the city; the remainder is to be paid for through an assessment district.

An ordinance was also submitted providing for the widening of Park View street between Seventh and Eighth streets, and still another ordinance provides for an additional chauffeur in the health department at a salary of $75 per month.

An ordinance was also submitted providing for an increase in the salary of the Mayor's assistant clerk to $90 a month.

More Street Expenditure.

The sum of $16,500 is estimated by the Board of Public Works as the necessary amount required for the further purchase of road oil for application to the city's streets, although 15,000 barrels of road oil have been applied already this year. The board asked the City Council yesterday for authority to advertise for the purchase of this extra oil. At least 5000 barrels of this will be used for new work.

City Hall Brevities.

The City Council voted yesterday to approve the recommendation of the Bridge, Gas and Water Committee that the request of the Public Service Commission be complied with and the rates for municipal water service at San Pedro and Terminal Island be the same as those of the San Pedro Water Company.

The City Council asked the Board of Public Utilities yesterday to give its immediate attention to the overcrowded condition of the street cars during certain hours. It is probable the board will set a time for a public hearing at its session today.

A protest was raised by Councilman Reed at yesterday's Council session against the further purchase for the city of high-priced automobiles for the use of departments that require rough usage from machines. Reed presented a resolution that raised the ire of members of the Supply Committee, and there ensued an argument in which personalities flew freely. Finally Reed withdrew his resolution, declaring that he believed it had accomplished its desired purpose.

Provision was made yesterday for paving with asphalt on a five-inch concrete base of Pasadena avenue across the Arroyo Seco near Avenue 35, to close a gap in the permanent improvement of the avenue at that point.

Favorable official action was taken yesterday by the Council on the plan to widen East Third street from Garry to Alameda to a uniform width of eighty feet. This action was recommended by the City Engineer and the Board of Public Works, and approved by the Council.

REAL PLOT OR OF THE MIND?

WHOLE CHURCH CONGREGATION AWAITS VERDICT.

Woman on Trial Asserts There Is Conspiracy to Railroad Her to Asylum to Cover up Scandal—Disputed Letters Have Peculiar Bearing on Case.

The trial of Elizabeth Thompson for insanity before a jury has been a remarkable exhibition of a woman keyed up to meet damaging evidence of mental unsoundness and betraying neither by word or look the slightest agitation. In appearance she was the calmest person in Judge Cole's court room. The case was practically closed yesterday afternoon and is expected to go to the jury today.

According to former close friends who are members of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Miss Thompson has delusions and it is dangerous for her to be at large. Medical experts called by the prosecution declare she is a paranoiac. Miss Thompson contends she is perfectly sane and that a conspiracy exists to railroad her to an insane asylum in order to cover up a scandal.

In a long and lucid-sounding letter she wrote to S. P. Mulford, she charges that the wife of a high church dignitary betrayed her friendship by influencing her employers to discharge her. This letter was read in court yesterday by Hartley Shaw, representing the official board of the First Methodist Episcopal Church and the District Attorney.

Other letters were read which showed a peculiar friendship of a married woman for Miss Thompson. This friendship, Miss Thompson says, was broken off after her dismissal from the embalming department of Pierce Bros.' undertaking establishment. She continued to receive loving epistles from the woman, but in a disguised hand-writing. The authorship of the letters was denied.

Dr. Ross Moore testified Miss Thompson is not a free moral agent because she has dominant delusions. Dr. Dwight R. Moore, answering a hypothetical question, concluded she is mentally unsound. Dr. H. G. Brainerd, from a history of the case and an hour's talk with her, concluded she is of unsound mind and has dangerous delusions. In his opinion these delusions from a small beginning have grown until they take in all her former church friends, and he says the circle will continue to widen.

The case is probably one of the hardest a jury has ever been asked to determine. Miss Thompson is a devout church woman, intelligent and of a loving disposition. Her demeanor in court has never varied from that of a keen observer. Her attorney, Judson E. Brown, may call Milton Carlson, a hand-writing expert, this morning to pass on the disputed love letters for the purpose of showing the friendly relations which existed between the two women.

SEARCH FOR LAND.

COURT IS INVESTIGATING.

The heirs of Edward Kern, former Chief of Police under the Harper regime, endeavored in the Probate Court yesterday to get a description of real estate which it is alleged was transferred to him by Harper during the latter's administration troubles. The affidavit of Walter R. Leeds stated that the property was owned by Charles Stansbury and Leeds, the title being in the name of Stansbury, and that Stansbury refused to disclose the nature or value of it.

Stansbury appeared in court yesterday on a citation and his testimony was to the effect that Harper owed him $1000 and was indebted to Kern in the sum of $2700. Stansbury said he did not want the real estate as he did not consider it of any value. Judge Rives continued the case for further light.

Kern died at El Paso April 20 inst. His will was probated June 17. The estate was valued at $6500 and consists of a lot at San Pedro, worth $1000; 160 acres near Fairmont, $960; a lot on Santa Fe avenue, $2700; a partnership interest with Ernest Werden, and stock in the Southwestern Packing Company.

JUST BOYS.

STORY OF A BALL GAME.

Time hung heavily on the hands of six boys, spectators at a ball game between the Belvidere and Rowan-street schools November 22, and invading left field they were having a fine time rough-housing the fielder when Prof. J. C. Reinhart and Prof. W. E. White remonstrated.

They were ordered off the field and retired to the curb, asserting their right to stand there. According to the professors the boys gave a good imitation of a vaudeville performance which proved distracting to the ball players. Finally a constable was summoned, but they did not accept his advice to retire in good order. They were charged with disturbing the peace.

There was great indignation on the part of the mothers, aunts and grandmothers of the boys who had assembled in the Juvenile Court yesterday. They voiced their faith in the lads, saying they might be mischievous but never—no, never—bad.

"Why, your honor," one woman exclaimed, "my boy comes home whistling." Ample evidence of his good nature. "He has always teased somebody from babyhood."

Judge Wilbur continued the case until February 4. Meantime, the boys must be on their good behavior. They are Frank Courtel, Carl Indart, Irwin Bennett, Oscar Roberts, Orville Kellogg and Roy Lipsig.

WOMAN WITNESS RELEASED.

Miss Nellie Graney, who has been held in the County Jail as a witness in the trial of Joseph F. Fear for the murder of Avalon Cramley, at Pasadena, was released by Judge Arnot yesterday on $1000 bail. An effort was made to release her on a writ of habeas corpus on the ground that she was illegally held in jail. Judge Arnot ruled there was reason for doing so, and said he would consider a reduction of bail from $5000 to $1000. The latter sum was furnished.

It appears from an investigation of the crime that Miss Graney, Cramley and Fear were in her room. Fear took exception to Cramley's presence on the score that he was a married man. During the altercation that ensued, Miss Graney says, she left the apartment, going to the bathroom. On her return, Cramley was lying with his throat cut.

LIFE ESTATE.

PASADENA MAN'S WILL.

Jacob F. Mahler, who died at Pasadena November 21 last, created a life estate for the benefit of his wife, Catherine. At her death, according to his will, the estate shall pass to his grandson, George F. Mahler, Jr., $1000; granddaughter, Lena M. Holder, $1000; grandson, Herbert Mahler, $1000, and great-grandson, George Clausen, $500. The remainder is to be given to his sons, George F. and William F. Mahler.

The value of the residence on South Lake avenue is given in the petition as $10,000. Notes, mortgages and bonds are valued at $10,000. The exact value of the estate is not mentioned.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

WILL BE GOOD. Eleven youths showed pentitence in the Juvenile Court yesterday as the story of their contempt for the speed laws was told. Their motorcycles had apparently gone the limit. Their excuses were varied. Three are special delivery boys; others work for evening newspapers, and one had been sent for a doctor. They had cut loose because they were in a hurry, and promised never to do so again. They are W. R. McElroy, Myram Raynor, Raymond Prussenger, William Merriwether, Edwin Chudy, Harold Christie, Victor McClees, Ernest Karrie, Robert Hepburn, Edward Hendrick and Harry Knabenshue.

Baby's Voice

Every woman's heart responds to the charm and sweetness of a baby's voice, because nature intended her for motherhood. But even the loving nature of a mother shrinks from the ordeal because such a time is usually a period of suffering and danger. Women who use Mother's Friend are saved much discomfort and suffering, and their systems, being thoroughly prepared by this great remedy, are in a healthy condition to meet the time with the least possible suffering and danger. Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers; it is in no sense a remedy for various ills, but its many years of success, and the thousands of endorsements received from women who have used it are a guarantee of the benefit to be derived from its use. This remedy does not accomplish wonders but simply assists nature to perfect its work. Mother's Friend allays nausea, prevents caking of the breasts, and in every way contributes to strong, healthy motherhood. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers.

Of Ten Embassies Six Are Presided Over by American Wives.

BY CONSTANCE CARRUTHERS.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Dec. 4.—[Special Dispatch.] Absurd! Ridiculous! Monstrous! There was a veritable storm of protest, intermingled with disbelief, when the news became generally known in social circles in Washington of the edict that hereafter if a German diplomatist marries an American girl it will be considered tantamount to asking for his resignation.

If such is the case, it was said at the German Embassy today, no word had been received from the German foreign office or elsewhere. Diplomats generally gave it as their opinion that German diplomacy would hardly countenance the rule.

Intermarriage, providing the American family was in good standing, they declare, tended to bring the United States and the country the diplomatic representative was from closer together.

NEWS TO ONE MAN.

"This is news to me," declared Commander Boy-Ed, naval attache of the German Embassy. "I do not think it
